CHEAP, DESIRABLE, SUBSTANTIAL.

$40,000, terms to suit purchaser, will buy that elegant and substantial dwelling located in the East End, corner of Fifth avenue and Shady lane; contains if rooms and all the con-veniences; is finished throughout with hard woods; has the southeastern exposure and house alone cost $32,000 to build; lot 148x170 feet; this APRIL 9, 1891.

This town is situated in the cotton region of the South, 50 miles from Birmingham, 60 from Montgomery, and is surrounded by wast deposits of marble, roofing slate and fron ore. Sylacauga is destined to be one of the most important manufacturing cities in the "New South." It is located at the junction of the Louisville ann Nashville and Georgia Central, the two greatest railroad systems in the South. A large cotton mill and iron works, each employing hundreds of skilled operatives, will be built during this year, and the elegible location of Sylacauga as a shipping point, insures a ready market for its manufactures. To the capitalist, merchant, mechanic, ironworker, here is one of the few opportunities offered for a gilt edge investment. Property will treble in value in a year. Prices are low terms easy. Call or send for plan of town and descriptive circulars. property is worth every cent of $55,600, but the owner being in poor health and obliged to leave the city, has decided to take the above figure. For permit to examine premises, see W. C. STEWART. 137 Fourth av. mb15-178u
