A Startling Tragedy That Is Agitating the People of Franklin.

ARSON ADDED TO HIDE THE CRIME.

The Terrible Taking off of Merchant Tailor N. P. Tobin.

LIVE NEWS FROM THE THREE STATES

SEPECIAL TELEGRAM TO THE DISPATCH.1 FRANKLIN, March 22 .- The residence of N. P. Tobin, a leading merchant tailor, was destroyed by fire this morning, and the remains of Mr. Tobin were found in the debris. There are many theories as to the cause of the fire and death of Mr. Tobin. The body was found in a crouched position in the parlor, the head resting in a pool of blood, and over the eyes there was a big bruise. There was found at the kitchen door a brace and several bits. These and other points lead to the general belief that Mr. Tobin surprised some burglars at work, and in the struggle that followed he was murdered, and the house fired to conceal the crime.

The body was burned beyond recognition. An inquest is now being held, at which it imprints of a man's finger nails were discovered on the dead man's throat. The inquest will not be completed before Monday. quest will not be completed before alonay. Several persons have been arrested. All unknown traings who were seen around that part of the city where Tobin resided were arrested, but as yet there has been no evidence to connect them with the crime.

Two years ago a great sensation was caused y the finding of the dead body of Mr. Tobin's aughter, Mary, in the waters of Long Island ound, near Clifton, and it is generally beseed she was mindered, but the mystery surbunding her death has never been cleared way. Mr. Bobin's mysterious death has nuced a sensation here.

used a sensation here. Tobin was alone in the house, Mrs. Tobin and Tobin was alone in the house, Mrs. Tobin and their two children, having left Saturday evening with a friend to spend Sanday at Waterloo, eix miles from the city, where Mr. Tobin was to have joined them to day, and attend a quarterly meeting of the Methodist Church. He was a man of greal physical strength, and it is thought that there were several assailants in order to have overpowered him. The autopsy made by Doctors Leaderham, Nicholson and Calbrith, showed that he was not stifled by the smole, but was violently choked to death. The murderers no doubt were tramps, as three tramps were seen running away from the house to the Lake Shore Railroad track just as the fite was discovered a bout 5 o'clock this morning. The first comer to the fire discovered a The first comer to the fire discover window open, also a brace and bit, a hatchet, etc., at the back door. How much the murder ers stole is not known, as the house and contents were all practically destroyed.

THE SCULL-GREEVY CONTEST.

Counsel for the Latter File a Strong Protest Against a Hearing at Everett.

STECIAL TELEGRAM TO THE DISPATCH.; DEDFORD, March 22.-The taking of evilence in the Scull-Greevy contest was resumed yesterday at Everett. Counsel for Greevy, Messra. Fietcher and McNamara, refused to accept service to be present at the hearing and filed a lengthy protest against evidence being taken in Everett for the reason that they as attorneys for Greece would be reason that they as business. atterneys for Greevy would be in danger of their lives from the Republican 'plug uglies' and blackguards of that community, and that the Democrats lave not held political meetings in the borough of Ererett or the town-hips adin the borough of Everett or the townships ad-journing since 1880 for the reasons above stated. They also state that the riot which took place at Everett at the time of taking testimony there several weeks ago was a prearranged affair. Mr. Scull's attorney, John H. Jordan, will resume taking testimony in Everett on Wednesday to show that there was no riot and that counsel for Greevy were the instigators of the trouble that was brought about by attempt-ing by three to scenre possession of the ballot beaus of which they had no claim on. Mr. Scull's attorney will finish taking testimony on the 20th inst., when Mr. Greevy has ten days to take evidence in rebuttal.

John Tyson Has a Menagerie of the Ferocious Animals at Miffligtown. THE CIAL TELEGRAM TO THE DISPATOR. MIFFLINTOWN, March 22 -Yesterday morning John Tyson, the veteran trapper, on exam-ining his traps on Shade Mountain, about five miles above this place, discovered that one of them contained an enormous wildeat. John put the animal in a bag, and placed a coon he had caught in another trap in the other, and slinguic the sark over his shoulder, started for me. On the trip the wildcat bit and scratched home. On the trip the wildcat bit and scratched floroely, tearing Trson's back in several places. He got both animals home, however, and now has them on exhibition.

Trson has quite a museum of wild animals he has caught. The last week he caught an old wildcat, but as his leg was broken, he had to kfill it. Tyson has trapped on the mountains for 40 years, and during that time he says he has cautured over 20 great bears, innumerable wild cats, and a host of other wild animals of all descriptions. He prefers to keep those alive that are uninjured, and makes quite a profit in selling them for show.

THE MAN WAS MURDERED.

Sensational Developments follow the Exhumation of a Body at Scranton. REPECTAL TELEGRAM TO THE DISPATCE, I

SCRANTON, March 22.-Coroner Gardner and his jury yesterday exhumed the remains of Julius Mescoe, whose mangled body was found along the Ontario and Western track, and a post mortem developed the fact that he had been muruered. The evidence shows that Mosone was murdered some distance from the railroad track. He was then placed upon the rails in such a way that the whoels of the first train which passed out off his head and lore ou one

A man named Rowlands, who had been with Messon on the previous day, was placed under arrest, and was found to be wearing Mescoe's but, while blood was on his clothing. When the body of Mescoe was dug up, Rowland's hat was found in the grave.

M'KEESPORT NOT AFFECTED

Street Improvements. TYPICIAL TELEGRAM TO THE DISPATCH McKEESPORT, March 22.-The McKeespor officials are congratulating themselves over the idea that the recent decision of the Supreme Court in the reference to the street improve-ments will not affect McKeesport, and the reason given is that the street improvements here were done under the act of April, 1867.
This act is not the one specified in the Supreme Court's decision, therefore the decided opinion given is that McKeesport will not be barred from collecting the great amount of money due the city for street improvement.

STYLISH HEADGEAR.

You can't possibly get a new hat too soon. The new one will afford you all the protection that the old, dusty and greasy one does, and prices will be no lower a month hence than now. We have in stock every shape hat that's manufactured that's in style. We can sell you the Knox, Youman or Dunlap shape, made on the same block, made by the same men, and save you at least a third of the price asked by exclusive hatters.

We illustrate herewith three of the leading styles this spring. The top one goes by the name of the "Manhattan," and can be obtained in different heights of crown and widths of brim. It is a popular hat with gentlemen of the metropolis, and you'll soon see a great many of them on the streets of Pittsburg.

The center one is one of the most sensible shapes in the market today. We've named it the "Gusky." We secured 100 dozen of these from a party who supplies a well-known hat manufacturer whose goods are never offered at retail for less than $5. Last Saturday, to commence the hat business with a rush, we offered them at the low price of

We also carry an immense stock of School Hats, Boys' Derbys and Children's Hats.
