A Handsome Bit of Work. One of the handsomest specimens of job printing turned out in this city for a long time is the catalogue of F. G. Craighead, the well-known china and glassware dealer of Smithfield street, which has just been issued from the presses of Percy F. Smith. The catalogue is devoted exclusively to bar glassware and is profusely illustrated. It is printed on heavy enameled paper, and the typography and press work are gems in their way. If you have job or book work of any kind to do, you can't find a better place to take it than to Mr. Smith's establishment,
