THE COKERS' EASTER

It Is Spent in Quiet and Anxiety for To-Day's Developments,

WHAT A LEISENRING MINER SAYS.

A Nest of Bollers at Scranton Explodes, With Dire Results.

BAD DEBTS ARE LEFT BY A DEFAULTER

SPECIAL TELEGRAM TO THE DISPATCH.: MT. PLEASANT, March 29.-Easter or something else has kept the coke region very quiet to-day. Hundreds of strikers attended the elaborate services of the Catholic churches this morning. At Morewood the men were especially quiet. They were discussing the same question that has been bothering them all last week-that is, who will draw the coke at Morewood Monday morning. A telephone message to THE DISPATCH correspondent from Morewood says the Southwest Company is confident that plenty of men will be ready to draw the | ical Alliance will be held in Florence ... The coke in the morning.

The strikers held a meeting this afternoon to take action on the work to-morrow moraing, but what they did is not known. The caders say the coke will not be drawn, and claim that the men who have been working are only deceiving the operators, and will not go to work again. Company E will join the deputies at Morewood about midnight to-night.

A Leisenring miner writes to THE DISPATCH to correct the ground th o correct the report that 56 men were at work there. Says the writer: "There is not a miner in Leisenring nor has there been since Februin Leisenring nor has there been since Februars's, for the purpose of making coke, General Manager Lynch, accompanied by Sheriff McCormick, was here yesterday to deputize the store clerks and foreman, but I fail to see where it is needed as this place has been very quiet so far, and will likely remain so if they go not exasperate the men to deeds of violence, which may be their object. The management in No. I has been mure fortunate than ours, as they had the wars loaded at the shaft bottom, and with what coal the bosses dug they were able to make a smoke, but it will soon die for want of fuel. There has not been a miner in today, nor has there been more than one in so fail—and he is a carpenter."

THE HOOSIER SCHOOLMASTER PLAN. A Novel Scheme Adopted by a Landlord for Evicting His Tenants.

MUNICIAL TELEGRAM TO THE DISPATCH MOUNDSVILLE March 29 .- S. G. McFadden has bit upon a novel way of evicting tenants. In one of his houses in the Second ward there lived, until yesterday, a widow, lonely, but saught. She sould not pay her reat, and re-tured to vacate the property. Mr. McFadden sent Constable Holliday to argue the question

He wreed with McFadden and another Ther found the doors harricaded and windows fastened, with the determined low maide. Mr. McFadden produced about a postude of sulpnur and a broad board, had a man to mount the roof and pour the other down the chimney and pur the board. ruinbur down the chimney and put the board over the top. They waited patiently for the result. The widow suidonly burst out the dieer amid a cloud of smoke. Then, after waiting until the fumes cleared away, they cettered and set her things out on the street, and the property now bears a card, "For Rent."
