WILL THE RECORDS BE BROKEN?

President J. Palmer O'Neil Says All Is in Good Shape,

GENERAL SPORTING NEWS OF THE DAY

A well-known pairon of the trotting track who frequently visits the city, arrived here this evening. While he has always much to say of interest about the trotters and pacers, be emphatically declines to have his name made public. During a conversation last evening he said: "Now mark my prediction: This will be one of the greatest years on record for the trotters and pacers. Recently I have spent much time among the leading trainers and owners, and the general opinion is to the one I have just expressed. There is already great speculation going on now as to whether or not the record Mand S, will be equaled or beaten this year. Some very good authorities think it will be equaled. I am not prepared to go that far, allone. Sunol, in the estimation of many, will bent 200 before next Christmas Day. Some of the best judges of trotters I have lately met do of think that the great filly will get below 100, but the majority of judges are inclined to block that she will equal that mark. But let me draw attention to three great horses; and I can speak with authority about them. I refer to Alberton, McDoel and Nancy Hanks. I will not be surprised if all these three go the mile in 2:10 this year. Allerton is a great borse. I really expect him to make a mark of 2:10, and

"Build Doute, who certainly is a great judge, as the greatest faith in McDoel and Nancy anks, and we all know that both of them are yers. This prompts me to predict that one er oth of them will get to the 2:10 mark. As I both of them will get to the 2:10 mark. As I have just said, the year will be a great one all round. Not only will the favers of last year be speedher, but we'll have numerous new ones that will startle the world. In my rounds among the unineers I find that there are many reds in pickie, and that some more sensational youngsters will come to the front. Of course I am not at liberty to give any names at present, but some of these expected wonders are west of Pritishurg. It is safe to say that there will be more money in troiting this year than ever before because every year is adding men of wealth to the troiting timek. Way, just think of it, only two or three years ago we used to be talking about a hink pill or a 2:10-horse as a wonder. Now we have get down to speculating about 2:29 or 2:10. Surely this is a proof that Americans are more not every. During my last trip I heard many trainers and owners taking about the Pittsburg meet-ig. They all like to come here and I feel confident that we will have some great horses

THE OIL SCOUT'S REVIEW. NO CHANGE TO CHRONICLE FOR THE PAST SEVEN DAYS.

Production Gradually Declining, but the Advent of Better Weather and Roads May Witness a Revival-The Progress of the Wells at Wildwood.

The beginning of a new week and the near close of another month has brought forth no material change in the aspect of the petroleum trade. The most important point is, however, the general decline of production and the increased use of glycerine. Nowhere has there been any territory brought to light that is likely to become as mportant factor in the future of the trade. It is difficult to tell how soon this state of affairs may be changed by the festive wildcatter which now abounds in the expansive region where there is a likelihood of finding the eleagious fluid. The great Russian bear did not create the The great Russian bear did not create the panic that its size indicated, and the 400,000-barreler must have been mistaken for a tidal wave of the foreign grap. It must not be forgotten that the low price of the stanle will materially curtail operations, as has been thought by many, and in which view THE DISPATCH scont coincides. As soon as better weather and roads prevail the volume of operations will be surprising, if all the new work now contemplated is executed.

Allegheny county, so far as activity is con cerned, from the present indication, will be the banner field. Although the waning days of the great Wildwood are at hand, there will be a large amount of work here, while from every point of the compass verging from this field for eight or ten miles, the experimental work now in hand is but an index of what it will be before the summer is ended. The other points of most interest in this county are Coraopolis and Deep Drilling Near Wheeling.

WHEFLING, March 29,-Messrs, Scott at Brady, accompanied by Prof. J. C. White, geologist at the State University, visited the test well up Caldwell's run yesterday. Prof. White, however, stated that the well is now the deepest in the State, Following are prices established by Alleghen. and he would like to see it drilling some 200 or 300 feet deeper. His reason is that at that depth is supposed to exist the limestone be-neath which all the gas and oil found in Canada is supposed to come. No effort has ever been made to tap that stratum in this section, and he thinks something of value may be found under the stone named. An effort will now be mad to have the well sunk to the depth named

HOME STOCKS AND MONEY

No Appetite for Speculation After the Holiday-The Clearings.

Few figures and no business were the chaneteristics of the stock call Saturday. There were a few buying orders for Philadelphia Gas and Electric, but they were held back. An attempt to place them would have started values upward, which is always discouraged at the end of the week. Total sales were 2,214 shares, nearly all Inmished by Electric and Philadel phia Gas.

The only thing that developed special strength during the week was Central Traction, but it lacked staying power and fell back at the finish. A Champion Billiard Performer.

The Effort to Boom Hides West Is Checkmated in the East.

LIGHT HIDES AND LEATHER DULL, SATURDAY, March 28. In lines of country produce the only articles that have shown great activity the week past are potatoes and eggs. At the close of last week eggs were up to 27c per dozen, and at the close of this week are down to 20c per dozen. It is doubtful if in any one week heretofore as many eggs were almost bare of hen fruit, but all signs of scarcity disappeared early in the week. But while stock has been an all quarters the past few days, demand appears to keep pace with supply, and the stock which will be carried over Easter is light. A dealer who haudled two car loads this week reported that he had hardly a case left to Saturday. The feature of the week in cereal lines has been the starp advance in corn and oats. > Hides and Leather. Light hides are duli at last week's quotations while steer bides and callskins are fairly steady. The season is now at its height, when the quality of offerings is at its lowest. Grubs are getting in their best work, and with long hair, which harbors dirt and manure, the hides offered are much below par. In addition, eather is dull and tanners are not inclined to buy heavily even at the reduced rates. The Chicago Shoe and Leather Review has this to say of the situation: "Unless tanners can se-cure an advance in leather it will be 'nip and cure an advance in leather it will be 'nip and tack' with them to pay the ruling price for hides. Shoe manufacturers are determined to resist any attempts toward advances. At the same time they are equally anxions to hold rates steady, and in the face of light receipts and offerings of country hides there seems but one alternative, and that to curtail production until such times as stocks of raw material may increase."
> Western dealers have of late made a strong effort to boom the hide market, but Fastern tanners and dealers failed to respond. The latter were so decided in their opinion that the boom was inopportune that they announced their determination to shut down rather than submit to Western prices. The East is so far submit to Western prices. The East is so far the winner in the conflict. The attempted boom in Western markets has proved abortive, as markets are now lower than at any time this season on light hides. Yankee persistence has been more than a match for Western push.

There was considerable realizing in the oats crowd, and also considerable selling of May and buying of July. The buying was mostly for short account, and was well scattered. The market opened ½c above the close of Thursday and suffered a slight decline, hardening and closing at highest prices of the day, making a gain of 2 considerable.

closing at highest prices of the day, making a gain of \(\frac{1}{3} \).

Trading in provisions was very animated. The receipts of logs were light and the prices higher. That gave the market its opening impetus, under which prices soured. Lard and ribs vied with pork in both activity and strength, and ultimately surpassed it. Pork advanced, compared with Thursday's closing prices, 75e per barrel; lard 40c and ribs 45c.

"A Modern Instance"

Is sometimes more satisfactory than any number of "Wise Laws." There are thousands and thousands of modern instances in which Swift's Specific, for it as the diseases that has justified all the claims made greatest of vegetable remedies for have in their origin impure blood and a debilitated condition of the system. Mr. John H. Lyles, of Sorento, Ill., writes: "I suffered for five years with mercurial rheumatism, which was the result of potash and mercurial treatment by physicians for constitutional blood poison. They not only failed to cure me, but made me a physical wreck and my life a burden. I then commenced taking Swift's Specific, few bottles was entirely cured of the rheumatism which the doctors brought on by their remedies, and of the blood poison which they had failed to cure."
