PATECIAL TELEGRAM TO THE DISPATCH.; SOMERSET, April 2 .- For the third time in the history of Somerset county the Sheriff and his assistants have found it their duty to execute the sentence of death. Almost a generation has elapsed since such a scene as that enacted in the jail to-day was witnessed here, and naturally it attracted great attention. The wide publicity of the crime for which the brothers, Joseph and David Nicely, to-day suffered the penalty of death; the length to which the trial was drawn out, and the various appeals to a higher court, to the Pardon Board and to two Governors;

the almost tragic attempts at escape, and the feigned insanity of one of the prisoners, all of which has been duly set forth in The DISPATCH, have served to excite an interest in this case that was more than State wide.

The Morbid Flocking to Somerset.

People moved by the morbid desire to see, or even be near, the scene of the hanging began to arrive last evening, and excursion trains to-day added to the number until the town was crowded, although the two corridors of the jail from which the execution could be viewed, at most could not accommodate more than three score of people.

Sheriff Good began to receive applications for passes from all parts of the State ten days ago, but, aware that the jury, physicians, reporters and a number of sheriffs from adjoining counties would crowd the space at this command, be was compelled to disappoint

The execution took place in the upper south corridor, where a double trap is built in the corridor, where a double trap is built in the foor; and those who were placed in the lower corridor had to be satisfied with a sight of about two feet of the lower extremities of the victims after the traps had failen. Sheriff Good, like most big men, is big-hearted, and he has treated his prisoners with unusual kindness. For some weeks their meals have been a la carta. Nothing was refused them that whim or appetite suggested.

Buoyed Up by Delusive Hopes. The Nicelys' spirits have been so buoyed up tation or respite that their thoughts, until ately, have never turned to religion, Joe's either fergued or real condition made his case hopeless in this respect, but Dave, under the ministrations of Eider Granger, of the Disciples Church, seemed really repentant, carly in the evening Elder Granger, accommanded by several others, repaired to the jail and administered the sacrament of communion Dave. At this time Dave seemed perfectly it-paised, and not a tremor could be obarved in his muscles or voice.

The night was passed as might be expected if mea in their situation. Joe, for a while, was kiremely restless. Dave went to sleep at 1:30 and slept till 3 o'clock. When Dave awoke, or lind tallen into a deep sleep. By 5:30 at leas of sleep had passed from both prisoners, breakfast of bread, butter, eggs and coffee as served at 0:30 a. M. Joe Confesses That He Was Shamming. There was an affecting scene in the jail at 11 o'clock this morning. Joe seemed to have comdetery given up. He was standing behind the bars of his cell, with big tears rolling down his chocks, and when anyone went near him he asked to be forgiven. He sent for the Sheriff and told him that if he had been the cause of any routide he wanted him to forgive him. Said Joe: "I tried to escape, and made soveral attempts. I am sorry I rollined any one, but my life was dear to me, and I thought if I could save it I would do so." He then sent for the deputy sheriffs and all persons connected with the jail, and asked to be forgiven. The tears were rolling down his cheeks all morning, but they seemed to be more from remorse train fear.

When asked by the correspondent how he felt, Joe said: "I am doomed to die—I know there is no hope for me now, but I will die bravely. I don't want to be any more trouble to the officials. I have no hard words to say of anyone." He wrote and signed the following statement: ears of his cell, with big tears rolling down his Sheriff Good is a prompt official, and it was only a few minutes past the nettline when Davo Nicoley, with Elder Granger, the Sheriff, Rev. Mr. Beal and Joe, tollowed by Deputies Barron and Dickey, emerged from the head of the west corridor of the jail, and the condemned men promptly stepped upon the traps. Little time was lost after the ropes were adjusted. Dave and Joe each consumed about a minute in saying that they felt safe, so far as his future was concerned, harbored no chmity, and was willing to die.

The last voice had hardly died away before The last voice and nardly died away before the blackcaps were drawn over the men's faces, the traps spring and they dropped through the floor some five feet. Dave's body made about two revolutions, his shoulders gave a nighty heave and he ceased struggling. Joe Dies the Harder.

Joe seemed to have a stronger hold on tife. For several minutes there was a hoarse gurgling sound from the compressed windpipe, and his hands opened and closed convulsively. The traps fell exactly at 1:37 P. M., and in 22 minutes they were pronounced dead, and have's body was taken down and carried to its coffin in the front office. About a minute later Joe's body was similarly disposed of.

Various estimates are placed on the crowd here to-day. It probably numbered 6,000 persons. Hundreds filled the streets in front of the jail and Coort House, standing in a snow-storm and in nucless, standing in a snow-storm and in nucless, and the painer by sums pickpocket was here and is the gainer by sums ranging from 55 to $180.

a cousin of the father of the James brothers lor, one of the condemned men, is believed to have been at one time, when in the West, a few years ago, a member of the James gang. After his return from the West he frequently and to his great delight boasted of his relationship with these desperate robbers. So great was their infatuation for them that Dave great was their intatuation for them that Dave Nicely, Joe's brother, named one of his chil-dren Jesse James, thinking it a great honor, Herman Umberger, who was murdered by the Nicelys was married three times, his first wife being a half sister of Mrs. A. THROUGH THE TRAP, NO WILDWOOD WELLS ARE DUE FOR Field-Jefferson Center Has No Staying Qualities-The Operations at Harmony and Glenshaw-Progress at Mt. Nebo. SPECIAL TELEGRAM TO THE DISPATOR.

WILDWOOD, April 2.-The field is uterly teatureless to-day, so far as new developments are concerned, nothing new having come in within the last 24 hours, and there are no wells of any importance due for some days to come. The Griffiths and Forest Oil Company's No. 11 well on the Whitesell farm, was to-day agitated and is doing 17 inches per hour, and the same company's No. 5 well on the Smith farm is doing 250 barrels per day. They are drill-ing a pin on a bit in No. 8 Whitesell well to-day, thereby expecting to end a very protracted fishing job. Their Nos. 8 and 9 rigs are being built on the Ringelson farm.

are being built on the Ringelsen farm.

Finnegan & Downing to-day drilled their No. 4 Wallace farm well, which is this evening flowing at the rate of 175 barrels per day. This will stimulate considerable drilling on the southwest end of the pool. Griffiths & Miller are down 350 feet in their Cole well, one mile west of the Ringheisen farm, and 3,000 feet northwest of the Hendelburg well. John M. Patterson's Espey well has got its first casing in, and is drilling at a depth of 1,200 feet. This well is located on the Perrysville plank road and is 3,000 feet southwest of the Cole well. J. M. Guffey's Kreizer well No. 1 is to-day making nine inches per hour. Desper drilling has not benefited the Sunshing Oil Company's well on the Hardy farm, and competent judges place it among the dusters. This would seem to be a pointer as to the northern limit of the Wildwood pool.

The Operations at Harmony.

HARMONY -- At Harmony, Yaunkins Dale's well is good for 160 barrels, while the Fanker No. 2 is doing 75 barrels, and No. 1 30 barrels a day. No. 2 Marsh is casing, and Thomran No. 1 is produc-ing ton barrels. The Kirk Oil Company is ing ten barrels. The Kirk Oil Company is pounding away in the third sand, and have some indication of grease. The Fromm well has a fishing job on hand at 500 feet, while the Seinboch is 800 feet deep. On the Wilson farm the Enterprise Oil Company is pegging away in the caloric sand. Patterson & Lockwood, on the Allen farm, about 1,100 feet southeast of the Fanker No. 1, have begun drilling, and Sutton No. 4, Zeigler, has found a depth of 1,000 feet. 1,000 feet.

Jefferson Center Not a Stayer. JEFFERSON CENTER-The territory at Jefferson Center is not showing staying qualities, and the Oildorado which was expected to be opened in this quarter some time ago has not yet materialized. The wells so far are of the soda fountain order, and netwithstanding the drill is active the production is declining. A Well at Glenshaw.

GLENSHAW-Wittmer & Co. have got considerable gas in the 100-foot and are drilling on to the third sand in the Hossinger well, 23/2 to the third sand in the Hossinger well, 2% miles northeast of this place. This well was started last September and has experienced very bad luck all the way down.

Mt. Nebo—Patterson and the Forest Oil Company's Morrison well is to-day reported as doing 17 barrels a day, and Calboun & Co. are down 1,000 feet in their English well on Lowrie's run.
