SEPECIAL TELEGRAM TO THE DISPATCE. St. AUGUSTINE, FLA., April 3.-The Pittsburgs played the Clevelands this afternoon, and won the honors of the game, but only by close playing. Both teams showed up in fine form, displaying spirit and dash from the start to the end, fine base running and timely hard hitting being the rule of the game. The large audience, many being lauies, enjoyed it bugely. The Pittsburg battery worked weil, Galvin the old-time fashion. Carroli's fielding, the timely hitting of Beckley, the sharp work of Bauer and Pete Browning's "catapults," all told. In fact throughout the game the Pitts-burgs played as if they were well limbered up. The Clevelands snowed up well with three fine sets of base runners, among them Me-Aleer, who did daring base running; McKean's prime shortstop work, and the excellent batting of Davis and the corking two-baggers by tion Miller's coaching of the Pittsburgers Billy Taylor, who played with the Pittsburgs Bully raylor, who payed which the resources in 1882 and 1883, pulled hard for his old team. Betting ran high up in the "colored row," 5 to 1 on Physhurg from the start.

SOME PLAIN TALK Harry Ballard Points Out What the Hall

Party Should Do. CHICAGO, ILL., April 3 .- J. Harry Ballard vas seen to-day in regard to the Fitzsimmons-Hall matter and said:

"It is now close on three weeks since Mr. Clark, on behalf of Fitszimmons, deposited with me $2,500 to bind a match with Hall. The fact was published and I received a number of patches from Jim Ryan and John Grant. Jim Ryan is unknown to me, but Mr. Grant is President of the Astoria Club, Mr. Grant President of the Astoria Club, Mr. Grant wanted the $2,500 sent on to Astoria before anything else was done. Mr. Clark naturally demurred to this. If the Hall party means business they should send some one here to cover the money now up for Fitzsimmons. I am only temporary stakeholder for one side, with a representative of Hall here, articles of agreement could be drawn, final deposits arranged and a final stakeholder arranged may a final stakeholder arranged may. ranged and a final stakeholder agreed upon. The San Francisco Evening Post of Monday, March 30, says that Joe Harris would that day forward $2,500 here to cover the Fitzsimmons deposit, but I have heard nothing of its arrival as yet."

THE COUNTY LEAGUE.

An Enthusiastic Meeting Held and Officers

for the Season Elected. An enthusiastic meeting of the Alleghens County Baseball League was held at this office last evening, six clubs being represented viz.; The Acmes, East End Gymnasium, Oakland, Bridgeville, McKeesport and Mansfield. The following officers were elected: President, C. P. Mayer; Vice President, D. G. Donodent, C. P. Mayer; Vice President, D. G. Donoran, McKeesport; Secretary and Tressurer,

PLEASED WITH THE TEAM.

President O'Neil Quite Satisfied With the First Game of Bis Men. Speaking of the local team's first defeat and first game of the season on Thursday, President

O'Neil said vesterday: "The first game does not amount to much, but I think our players did well to be only defeated by 8 to 6 by the Cleveland players, who have been South practicing for some time. We have been South practicing for some time. We have in a had fix for pitchers, as we only have Staler and Galvin with the team. But Maul and Smith will soon be there, and I have great faith in Smith. Goodness knows when Baldwin will get away from St. Louis as he is being outrageously dealt with down there. Stratton is not so sick as reported. His wife telegraphs me that he has no fever and that he will soon be all right again. If we had our pitchers in shape we would soon be all right."

LOOKS LIKE BUSINESS.

Stronger Prospects of a Contest Between

Jim Hall and Fitzsimmons CHICAGO, April 3.-George R. Clark, the backer of Bob Fitz-immons, has telegraphed to Joe Harris, Jim Hall's backer, asking him to name some responsible party to accept the de-posit for a fight between Hall and Fitzsim-Clark wants the match to be for a side bet of $10,000 a side and the purse offered by the Astoria (Ore.) club.

Great Day for the Bookies NEW ORLEANS, April 3.-This was the fifth day of the spring meeting. Weather fair, track fast and attendance good. Not a single favorite won and the books reaped a harvest. Gibbons and Myer. NEW YORK, April 3 .- Prior to leaving for England, James Gibbons called at the Police Gazette office and deposited $250 with Richard K. Fox for Austin Gibbons to fight Billy Myer, of Streator, Ill., for $2,500 a side, the fight to take place in any club that will put up the largest amount of money. If Myer will agree to fight, James Gibbons instructed W. E. bake place in any club that will put up the largest amount of money. If Myer will agree to fight, James Gibbons instructed W. E. Harming to draw up articles and arrange a match to take place in June. Alf Kennedy, Edly Myer's lacker, was notified yesterday of Austin Gibbons offer, and if Myer is willing to fight Gibbons the match will be speedily arranged. The Crib Club, of Troy, will probably offer a purse of $2.500 for Myer and Gibbons to fight, and the purse, together with the stakes, $5,000, would make $7,000 to the winner.

TC-NIGHT'S BIG EVENT.

Great Local Interest in the Reilly and Un known Wrestling Match.

What promises to be one pl the most excit-ing wrestling matches that has ever taken place in Western Pennsylvania will take place in New Turner Hall, Canal street, Allegheny, this evening. The contestants are Ed Reilly, of the Twelith ward, and an unknown. They are to wrestle under catch-as-catch-can rules best two in three falls, for $250 a side and the best two in three falls, for $250 a side and the entire gate receipts. Each man is to weigh not more than 135 pounds one hour before the contest takes place, and the contestants are to be ready for the contest at 80 clock.

It is needless to say that both men have undergone a thorough preparation for the contest, and as a result each is confident of victory. The match is virtually for the light-weight champlouship of the world, as the winner will be matched to wrestle any man at 133 pounds for $1,000 a side. This alone makes the contest one of great importance.

The betting on the result is quite lively, and there is considerable money for Reilly. Two of his friends called at this office yesterday inquiring where they could find any money for the unknown. They had $200 or $300 to bet at the unknown. They had $200 or $300 to bet at even money. There was one bet of $25 to $20 on Reilly booked, but the betting, with this exception, was at even money. It is not likely that any odds will be bet to-day, as the contest is apparently an easy one. Reilly is a great Pittsburg favorite, and is one of the most vigorous lightweights ever seen on a carpet. The unknown, according to rumors, has a great record, so that the contest may be expected to be a great one.

WILL STOP RACING.

The Gloucester Race Track Officials Come to a Decision Quite Unexpectedly. GLOUCESTER, N. J., April 3.-The officials of the South Jersey Jockey Club decided to-night to discontinue racing at the track here after and Mack did fine work. Galvin pitched in Saturday next. Their reasons for closing the track are entirely a matter of conjecture, as nothing has been made public except the bare indefinite period on the day mentioned. President Thompson, who is virtually the owner of the track, made the announcement himself. He declined to give any reason for the closing, but the general opinion is that the action was taken because of the crusade against bookmaking and pool selling inaugurated last week by the ministers of this county.

All the gambling saloons here, which closed their doors last night, remained tightly closed to-day, and the present indications are that they will not open again.

A SLIGHT MISUNDERSTANDING.

A meeting of the directors of the local ball club was held at the Hotel Anderson yesterday. It was understood that the question of sending Maul, Laroque and Smith to join the team ing Maul, Laroque and Smith to join the team in Florida was discussed. As a result these players were informed that they will not leave the city for the South until this evening, and it may be that they will not go South at all. When these players arrived here President O'Neil intended to send them to join the team at once, but during the last day or two there seems to be an influence at work to prevent their going away at all. The expense of the trip may have something to do with it.

THE FOOTBALL CONTEST.

McDonald Is a Good First for the Pennant-

Homestead will play at Shaner, and McDonald at Braddock. Both games are expected to be good once. Following is the standing of the clubs in the pennant race:

BALDWIN'S case is again due at St. Louis to-day. THE winner of to-night's wrestling match will be a champion. Stick a pin in this. AND there is something very funny in the delay of sending Maul, Laroque and Smith to Florida. THERE is an excellent picture of Charles T. Reiny, the local third baseman, in this week's Clipper.

JOHN M. WARD says that it is quite true that a reconciliation has been effected between Mrs. Ward and himself. It is understood that she has given up all idea of going on the stage. C. W. MILLS, rale, '83, of Denver, Col, one of the Yale University crew who went to Philadel-phia last week to be trained by Bob Cook, was sent back to New Haven Tuesday suffering with typhoid fever.

SANUEL CASTLE, a crack shot of Newark, has challenged Capitain Bogardus to shoot a live-bird match at John Erb's grounds in that city. If the proposition is accepted the conditions will be either 30 birds each for $200 a side, or 100 birds each for $200 a side. AUSTIN GIBBONS, the 125-pound champlon, left Wednesday for England on the White Starsteamer fermande. A DISTANCH from Cincinnational Service December 1

A DISPATCH from Cincinnati says: The successor of John Kelly on the Association staff of umpires is William Gleason, famous as "Brudder Blil," of the old St. Louis Browns. He had a talk with President Aramer to-day, and the rules of '91 were interpreted for his benefit. Gleason will make his debut as an umpire at St. Louis next Wednesday. Talcott, of the New York club, said: "It is curious, but the name of American Association was never once mentioned at the meeting. I will say, unofficially and not as representing the League sentiment, that I do not think there is the slightest chance of the League making advances to the Association tending to a reconciliation. It is my opinion, however, that if the Association should make any advances toward peace the League would meet it half way. But the League really does not care what the Association does."—

DERISION FOR DILKE.

Named as Parnell's Successor at a Primrose League Meeting.

THE EX-LIBERAL SHARPLY RAPPED

Earl Roseberry, the Lordly Head of the flouse of Primrose,

TBY DUNLAP'S CABLE COMPANY.1 LONDON, April 3 .- At the meeting of that now well-known organization, the Primrose League, which has for its badge the flower sacred to the memory of Lord Beaconsfield, and to make which a power in the Conservative ranks every effort has been made, James Forrest Fulton, M. P. for the Northern division of Westham, inveighed against what he was pleased to call the "slander" that had been uttered, to the effect that the Conservative party was giving its support to Parnell. The honorable gentleman, in his excitement, went in for the use of strong words, and stigmatized the statement as a "calumnious falsehood," but be did not stop here, for he went on to declare with vehemence and lervor that, "so far as the recent events were concerned Mr. Parnell was, in his eyes and in the eyes of the Conservative party, exactly what he had always been, viz. an unscrupulous adventurer." In other and far more influential quarters Parnell has been receiving a meed of attention, which, when the excitement of the moment dies away, he will, no doubt, sorely miss,

A Dig at Dilke. Addressing his constituents at Birming-bam, the Rt. Hon. Henry Matthews, Q. C., urged that social matters had undergone no real progress. In referring to Parnell and Sir Charles Dilke, and the condition to which they had both been brought, Mr. Matthews said: "Having basished Mr. Paraell, who are they going to choose as their constituent ruler and who are they going to put in the place of that gentle-

This was evidently a rhetorical question and therefore did not call for a reply. But, to the astonishment of all, there came a voice from the far end of the hall, which cried: "Sir Charles Dilke." The opportunity was too good to be lost for giving a rap to the ex-member for Chelsea, who was certainly one of the most formidable figures in the Liberal ranks when he was in the House. "Yes," said Mr. Matthews, "He has every qualification for the place except that of being an Irishman. In other respects he seems to be admirably adapted

The Hope of the Liberals. The head of the house of Primrose, the lordly hope of the ex-Liberal party, the Earl of Roseberry, who has been Lord Privy Seal and Secretary of State for Foreign Affairs under the Grand Old Man, will next session succeed to the leadership of the party in the Upper House. The move creates no wonder, because everybody expected that in due course Lord Roseberry would occupy this position, and during the life of the late Countess almost the only salon of the party was held at their house. The accession of this comparatively youthful statesman to so important a place is confidently relied on to attract many tollowers to the party and to create an interest in politics among the younger members.

This is highly necessary, for it is said that there are not enough Liberal lords now to fill the places when Mr. Gladstone comes into office; and that he will form a fourth ministry is part of the creed of every Lib-eral and Radical politician. The Radical party naturally objects to the creating of any more peers by the Liberals, because such a course would probably have the effect of prolonging the life of that body for a generation, and a title is to a Radical about as soothing an object as a red rag to a bull.

IBY DUNLAD'S CABLE COMPANY. LONDON, April 3 .- Current report has it that the reason His Imperial Majesty, the White Czar, conferred the Order of St. Andrew on Monsieur Carnot, was gratitude. produced by a lively sense of favors already received from the French Government in hastening the manu acture of the repeating rifles which had been ordered for the Russian army from the French factories.
