A BETTER GRADE THAN FORMERLY

Machinery Has Supplanted Handwork in Many Instances.

IPROM A STAFF CORRESPONDENT. lation adjacent to Pittsburg devoted to the pottery business, as well as every lover of fine porcelains, will be interested in a report just sent to the State Department by Commercial Agent Griffin, stationed at Limoges, France. Following statistics showing the increase of the manufacture in the last three or four years, Mr. Griffin says it is remarkable, in looking over the exports from this district to the United States, to notice the effects of the new tariff:

French press 'that exportations would be excluded by the new duties." A Decided Increase Shown. goods: the decorations are becoming richer and richer; the shapes are ther and more artistic.

"The American insite is said to be the finest and most highly cultivated of any to which the manufacturers cater. The average price of goods has increased considerably. This is solely due to the richness of decorations and styles. The price of labor has a downward tendency; there has not been published a single increase in wages. The supply of skilled and unskilled labor is greater than the demand, consequently there has been a corresponding amount of suffering among the laboring classes.

Machinery Succeeds Hand Work, "Machines of different kinds are being introduced all the time to diminish hand labor, and thereby the cost of kneading, molding, enam-eling, etc., is reduced to a minimum. Another process that has lately been employed, as yet thither. The nome market is of little account, the cheap German and English china, with the poorer kinds of Faience, undersell the better corcelain of home factories. Next after the United States and France are England, Russia, South America and Spain, in the order named."

This made the gentleman angry, and the lawyer desisted, but proceeded to beat the attendants with the stuffed weapon. Selizing a big bottle, he threw it at the head of one of the attendants. Mr. Palmer was sent for, and he in turn sent for the police. C. L. PEARSALL,

1 Fulton Fish Market, New York. is correspondingly high all through the Northern and Eastern States.

It cannot be too strongly impressed on people that, in order to ward off the disease, warning symptoms must be regarded and prompt action taken. It becomes extremely difficult to dislocing the disease if allowed to take its course. Hence its name. It generally commences with a slight headache, or panns in the small of the back or limbs. It does not always give one even as plain a hint as this—a feeling of tightness across the forehead, buzzing in the ears, or peculiar feeling about the eyes, may be all the caution one gets, so it is culpable carelessness to neglect even these slight signs.

The remedy lies in a stimulant, and the preference should be given to whisky. All the doctors of the country are agreed on this point, but are very careful to impress on their patients the fact that pure whisky alone must be taken. Duffy's Pure Mait Whisky is the purest on the market, and can be readily obtained at all drug stores. This preparation, which is indorsed by all the leading doctors, scientists and chemists of the present day, is this year adding to the first-class reputation which it won during the epidemic of the Grippe last year. There are many imitators who say their whiskies are 'just as good." Do not be deceived. They are not. Duffy's Pure Mait is the only medicinal one. Cuticura Remedies
