A DYING STATEMENT

Made and Signed by Dave Nicely on the Umberger Homicide.

ADMITS ROBBERY, DENIES MURDER.

Mysterious Blazes Repeatedly Discovered in an Office.

A QUEER ELECTION BET OF A COFFIN

SOMERSET, April 9 .- Rev. C. W. Granger, the spiritual adviser of the executed Nicely brothers, made public te-day the text of a confession signed by Dave Nicely before his death. It is believed also, that Joe Nicely admitted his guilt before being executed, but if he did so, the public will not learn anything about it for several days yet. The following is Dave's confession in full:

I, David Nicely, make concerning the murder of Herman Umberger, for which I am convicted and sentenced to be hanged April 2 1881, the following statement: I was present when Herman Umberger was murdered. left my home about I o'clock on February 27, 1889, to go to some place in Somerset county for the purpose of robbery, but not murder, and did not know who was to be robbed, not learning Mr. Umberger's name untill well along on the road. The murder took place about 7 o'clock in the evening. I arrived at loome about 1 or 2 o'clock the next merning. I had a pistol and free into the ceiling, but not with the intention of hitting Mr. Umberger, nor did any shot I fired hit him. I intended only to frighten him. As to my evidence in court, part was true and part was not. My evidence in court was not true in that I said I was not present at Herman Umberger's murder, when I was. The pockethook preduced in court as mine was not the one which I gave to Will Thomas as I testified in court. It was bogus. Hamilton Smith's testimony in the case against 1889, to go to some place in Somerset county Thomas as I testified in court. It was bogus. Hamilton Smith's testimony in the case against me was falso in this. I was not in Ligonier on February 27, 1888, as he swore. Lew Beener and Ed McCraoken did not meet me on the pike as they stated in court. Charles Vaneer and Lewis Vaneer, his son, could not have reconneed me where their testimony says they did on the Pittsburg and Philadelphia pike, February 27, 1888. I make these statements in view of approaching execution, in the fear of God, truthfully, to C. W. Granger, my spiritual advisor.

A later dispatch says: Joe also made a con-A later dispatch says: Joe also made a con-fession to Rev. Mr. Beal, who was also pledged and to reveal it until he had delivered certain nessages to certain persons, and which will come to light shortly. There seems now to be to question but what the Nicely boys belonged to a well-organized gaag of robbers, who held life of but small value.

MANY UNACCOUNTABLE FIRES.

Drawers in an Office Desk Seven Times

Ablaze in Two Days. PECTAL TELEVISION TO THE DISPATCH. SCHANTON, April 9.-During the past few weeks the insurance offices of N. H. Shafter have been five times entered by burglars, the papers and books everhauled and damaged, the safe cracked, money taken therefrom and the desits mutilated. Some of these thefts have ocand his office force were at dinner. The police tried in vain to solve the mystery.

At 5:45 o'clock last evenion, while Mr. Shafter and his employees were working on their books, a fire suddenly blazed up in the drawer of a desk which had not been opened during the day, and many valuable papers were destroyed. To-day six more of these mysteri-sus fires broke out in the office, the first oc-curred at Sab A. M., the next at 10, the next at 10 M, and the next at 1120. There were no ratte muts 520 in the afternoon when the office table was found to be ablaze. In 20 minutes later, a box of biotters was seen to be on fire. All of these blazes were extinguished without difficulty. During the greater part of the day Mr. Shatter sat about his office surrounded with buckets of water and prepared for any emergency. Hundreds have visited the apartments to note the damage caused by the unaccountable fires. The theory of the authorities is that some fiendish and ingenious enemy of Mr. Shafter has, with the aid of chemicals, adopted this mode of perse

A MURDEROUS NEGRO.

He Kills the Keeper of a Watch Box and Attacks Another in His Flight.

EFECTAL TRUEGRAM TO THE DISPATORAL CHARLESTON, W. VA., April 9.-News has just been received here of a murder that occurred in Bluefield Tuesday night. Two negroentered the watch box at Sink Hole, near that place, and on being ordered out by the watchman, J. J. Meadows, one of them drew a revolver and shot him dead above the eye. Serceant Haldwin found the negro preparing to board a freight train. The negro started to run, when Haldwin fired and his man fell, but after-ward rose and entered the woods. A posse was organized, and followed the man 15 miles through spew and darkness, and finally cap-In his flight the negro came upon a freight train at Ada, and attempted to kill Conductor Mosely, who he thought was after him.

LADS ARRESTED FOR MURDER.

Their Explanation of the Death of a Farmer in Whose Company They Were. STRUCKL TELEPRAN TO THE DISPATCH. MEADVILLE, April 2.-Lynn Hites, Edward Skeel, Jr., and Burt Peelman, three farmer boys of this county, were arrested to-day for murder. On the morning of March 17 Martin J. Hotchkiss, a farmer, was found by the readside near this city covered with blood and unconscious. Last Sunday both feet were am-purated, and last night be died.

porated, and last night he died.

The three boys named were with Hotchkiss on the night of the 16th. They say he had a bottle of alcohol and got them all drunk, when they got into his buggy. Hotchkiss made the horse run and was thrown out and hurt, and the boys, frightened at what had happened, ran away and left him lying in the ditch. All of the beys are very respectably counected.

THE SUICIDE OF TWO BOYS. They Take Arsenic With the Avowed Object Of Dying Together. LANCASTER, April 9.-Milton Kaufmann, a young man of this city, died ten days ago under mysterious circumstances, and last night his brother Harry nied from the same symptoms, which resembled arsenical poisoning.

Their father to-day stated that Harry had ronfessed to him that he and his brother had taken poison with the object of dying to-pether. The boy would give no explanation of

WON A WAGERED COFFIN.

The Loser Refuses to Deliver It Until the Winner Gives Up the Ghost.

PEPECIAL TELEGRAM TO THE DISPATCH. AKRON, April 9.-There was a queer bet made here on the recent elections in this city. John Hill, a plumber, and Mr. Kasson, an undertaker, made a bet on the result for Mayor, the wager being a bathtub against a coffin. Rasson lost, and Hill claims the coffin. This the undertaker concedes, but is unwilling to losy until the winner dies. Hill does not want to die, and says he will get his coffin, dead or miles.

That Unfortunate Beaver Falls Woman. PETERSAL TELEGRAM TO THE DISPATCE. BEAVER FALLS, April 2.-James Piper, the Burgess of this place, wishes THE DISPATCH to correct the sensational story of a woman being robbed and thrown into a river and becoming found and thrown into a river and be-coming intexicated by vile whisky administered to revive her, which caused her to be jailed for intexication. His Honor says the woman en-nered his office to make a complaint against two Italians for throwing her into the river, and her drunken anties were such that he ordered her locked up until she should become sober. Investigation showed there was no truth in her stors.

A Suicide at Zanesville.

SPECIAL TALEGRAM TO THE DISPATCH.1 ZANESVILLE, O., April 2.-Mrs. William Russell, wife of a Newtonville farmer, committed suicide by hanging to-day. She had long been in ill-health.

BEAVER FALLS is all torn up over an elopeheat. The parents of both lovers—Marien Tulis, aged IP, and Miss Emma Strub—object-od to their union, so the young people fied to Jamestown, N. Y., where they were made one. THREE tramps, John Kern, John Mooney freight car at East Greensburg siding Wednesday night. When the cars were taken out Mooney and the unknown man were instantly killed, and John Kern had both feet cut off.

us by the well-known makers of the "Star" Shirt. A few hours afterward out comes the "certain concern" mentioned above with an announcement that it "has for many moons sold the same identical 'Star' Shirts for 85 cents." The word "moons" is most appropriate, for there's more moonshine in the statement than anything else. Of course they can sell a "Star" Shirt, or a shirt made by the same firm, at 85 cents, and this is all that certain qualities of this make of shirt is worth. Neither the firm re-
