WASHINGTON, April 9.-Secretary Proctor virtually admitted to-day, it is asserted, that he is a candidate for the Senate of the United States to succeed Senator Ed-

On the other hand, it is claimed that as he could not at any rate be elected for a longer me than the unexpired term of Senator Edmunds, which would only be until the Edmunds, which would only be until the au of March, 1895, the Governor might as well appoint, as the appointee would assuredly be allowed by the Legislature, which will meet a year from next October, to keep his seat until the following March.

The term of the Secretary in the Cabinet would last until that time, with the prespect of the renomination and election of President Harrison and his continuance in the Cabinet, and many of the freeness of the Secretary think

Harrison and his continuance in the Calmer, and many of the friends of the Secretary think that in view of this fact he would be very foolable to abandon his Cabinet partfolio for a seat in the Senare, which might end with the unexpired term of Mr. Edmunds in an ugly fight for the succession.

The gossipe have him booked for the place, however, and claim that they have his own word for it, and so with this conclusion the Vermont Senatorship is dismissed in the canwass of the greater place in the Cabinet which would be left vacant by his resignation, and ere the Calinet makers are at their wits' end. Guessing at Cabinet Winners.

The appointments of Mr. Harrison to high official position of late have so generally been turn for a likely winner. General Alger is dismissed, pecause he is a candidate for the Presidency, or thinks he is, which is the same thing. Clarkson is declared to be out of politics, and so on with a long list of impossible possibilities. If the President were impossible possibilities. It the President were inclined to again honor Vermont with the place he would probably ask General Veasey, now of the linter-State Commerce Commission, to accept, and so more popular appointment in the eyes of the members of the Grand Army could be made than that of their honored Com-

No event has occurred in the history of this country in a time of peace so fraught with peril to our institutions as this. It may be conceded that it is highly probable there was a kind of rude justice meted out to the victims of the massacre, and in so far as that result was reached it may be received in explanation of the metives of those engaged in it, and relieve them from the charge of brutal, wanton murder, committed to gratify wicked and ferocious natures. Under government of law and order the act committed was murder and nothing but nurder, and in a community alive and sensitive to the duty of maintaining law and order e perpetrators would be sought out and pun-serted, that he is a candidate for the Senate of the United States to succeed Senator Edmunds. One trouble in the way is that, should the Governor of Vermont appoint Mr. Proctor, there would be a chance of his being ousted by another man at the meeting of the Legislature in October, 1892. As in Pennsylvania, so in Vermont, the law-making body holds biennial sessions, and the next regular meeting is not until the time mentioned.

It is claimed by the friends of the Secretary, however, that there are several strong reasons why there should be an extra session of the Legislature very soon, and that the probabilities are this course will be pursued, failed to punish danger-ous characters. A PITCHED BATTLE AT A FIRE. Firemen, Police and Citizens Beat a Mob

From Another Town. WILKESBARRE, April 9 .- A serious riot occurred at Kingston, just across the river from this city, this afternoon, while the local fire brigade was engaged in extinguishing a fire. Mitchell Duffy, from Edwardsville, forced his way inside the lines. Upon refusing to get out, the firemen turned the hose on him. A number of Edwardsville men watching the fire became angry at this, and jumping over the ropes attacked the firemen surprises that they hardly know which way to fiercely. The latter stoutly defended themselves, and in a short time no less than 25 men were engaged in a hand-to-hand encounter. Stones, clubs, wrenches and everything that could be used as a weapon were wielded. The firemen were soon outnumbered, and were on the point of beating a retreat when the police appeared and engaged at once with the rioters. Meantime reinforcements arrived from Edwardsville, and the battle became general. The business men along Main street, seeing the police beaten back by the Edwardsville people, took a hand in the fray. The fight was long and bloody, and when, at the end of an hour, the Edwardsville forces were put to flight, there were no less than 20 men badly injured on each side. Broken heads, noses and limbs kept the doctors of both towns busy for hours, and it is feared that two or

There are various romors here regarding Pitcher King. It is generally conceded that he is Jost to the St. Louis club and may sign with the Pittsburg club this week. He denied having signed with any League club yet, but it is well known that a League agent is after him here at present. Von der Ane makes all kinds of threats about enjoining King as soon as he goes to any other city, but Von der Ahe's talk is not much listened to. King is not saying much, but it will not be a surprise if be makes terms with Pittsburg to-morrow. There is something going on.

The directors of the local club held a meeting yesterday afternoon at the Hotel Anderson. EPROTAL TELEGRAM TO THE DISPATOR. BRADFORD, PA., April 9.-There is a great deal of discussion here over the standing of the home club in the New York and Pennsylvania Baseball League. Sam McBride holds the lease, but is holding off and wants $800 for it. If McBride will stand out of the way there is yet a chance for a good club here, but this he will not do.

The declaring of a forfeiture will not be finally decided until the meeting in Jamestown next Saturday. Hornellsville is not able to support a club, and if this town is not enrolled support a club, and if this town is not enrolled, the number in the League will be only six. There is a strong desire to keep Elmira on the list in spite of the distance, and Youngstown may also be added. Youngstown is a strong base ball city and will strengthen the League.

for the Pennant. The record of the Western Football League is now exceedingly interesting. The McDonalds defeated Braddock last Saturday by 13 goals to 0, which is a record score in the league compe-tition. McDonaids have not lost a game, but they have yet to meet both McKeesport and Lawrenceville, and many think they cannot beat them both; and if they get licked by one of them, two of the three will be tied for first place at the completion of the schedule. If such is the case the association will likely order the two leading clubs to play off again in Pittsburg, so that a great final game should be the The game between McDonald and McKees-

Association football seems to have taken quite a hold on the people of McKeesport, and with favorable weather a large turnout of people is expected to witness the contest.

The Thisties, now that first place is beyond their reach, are determined to tie for second position. The Braddock, Homestead and Shaner clubs will now content themselves with trying to get ahead of each other, while the Eurekas, although never having won a game, are still pluckily fulfilling their scheduled games.

About Downes' Claim, BOSTON, MASS., April &-W. C. Downes, the Harvard and New York amateur runner, does not propose to relinquish his claim to having run the fastest quarter of a mile in the world. J. C. Mr. Hammett had with him the picture of Downes at the start. With the aid of this he located him at a point on the track and then measured 40 yards, which came to a point on the track where it is agreed by all that Downes finished. Mr. Hammett claims this proves conclusively the correctness of Downes' record.

SPECIAL TELEGRAM TO THE DISPATCH. WASHINGTON, PA., April 9. - The Young Men's Christian Association gave an entertainment to a large and select audience in their rooms, on the corner of Main and Beau streets, commencing at 8 o'clock this evening. The first part of the programme was a game of chess played, not with wooden pieces, but with real living persons, comprising 8 ladies and 8 gentlemen and 16 of the prettiest little girls in Washington, dressed in red and white, occupying on the checkered board the places of pawns. Dr. Johns opened the proceedings with an explanatory address on the game of chess. This great game was captained by T. B. H. Brownlee for the whites, and the following are the names of those who composed his forces: King, Frank J. Lemoyne; queen, Miss Margaret Johnson; d. Lemoyne; queen, Miss Margaret Sonison; castles, Miss Lorena Linton and Lauretta Brownson; bishops, A. J. The colored contingent was captained by Prof. Adolph Schmitz, and his kingdom consisted of the following: King, Minor H. Day; queen, Miss Josenhine Gutman; castles, Miss Birdie Brown and Kate Caldwell: bishops, Fred Wilson and A. M. Linu; knights, Mesers, Daly and Henderson. The pawns were: Minna Katzenstein, Hattie Hutchison, Hattie Phillips, Maggie Jackson, ina Duncan, Rena Milne, Emma Miller, Nettie Picket.

The game played was a Lopez gambit, and after a very exciting time, which the audience thoroughly enjoyed, the battle was finally won by the colored host and ended amid great applause. Then came a violin solo by Miss Hamilton, of Washington, which was well received. The second part consisted of two games of checkers, played with 24 of the prettiest little girls that Washington could produce, 12 dressed in the purest white with white wreaths around their lovely hair, making a pretty sight on the large checker board, and opposite them stood 12 gurls dressed in the orightest red. Sixteen of these acted the part of pawns in the game of chess, but four little girls of each color were added to the checker board. They were: Winnous Baldwin, Stella Vester, Josephine Fleming, Cora Thompson, who all wore white, and Emma Miller, Nellie McLean, Lazzie Milne, Helen Murphy, who all wore white, and Emma Miller, Nellie McLean, Lazzie Milne, Helen Murphy, who all wore white, and Emma Miller, Nellie McLean, Lazzie Milne, Helen Murphy, who all wore white, and Emma Miller, Nellie McLean, Lazzie Milne, Helen Murphy, who all wore white, and Emma Miller, Nellie McLean, Lazzie Milne, Helen Murphy, who all wore white, and Emma Miller, Nellie McLean, Lazzie Milne, Helen Murphy, who all wore white, and Emma Miller, Nellie McLean, Lazzie Milne, Helen Murphy, who all wore white, and Emma Milner, Nellie McLean, Lazzie Milne, Helen Murphy, who all wore white, and Emma Milner, Nellie McLean, Lazzie Milne, Helen Murphy, who all wore white, and pearance here last Sunday, when a gleam of intelligence seemed to lift the mist from his past life, and he announced to his assonished anditors who he was.

To-day Hezekiah Newby, a son of William Newby, appeared here hunting the man who claims to be his father. He is a young farmer living six miles east of Mill Shoals. White county, and only 'yesterday he heard of the mysterious stranger appearing here and claiming to be his father. He determined to investigate the matter, and to-night went to Carmi to find, if possible, his long-lost father. His mother is living in Texas, is still a widow, and has been for years drawing a pension from the Government on account of the death of her husband. Young Newby says, if it proves to be his father, he will immediately telegraph his mother that the "dead is alive," and have her return at once.

This is the story of William Newby, as told by himself and his comrades, and should it prove to be true, and those who knew him during his career in the army assert that it is, jt will be one of the most remarkable romances of the late war.
