ONE MURDER A WEEK:

The Third One Added to the List by the Death of Peter Tierney.

WAS SHOT DOWN IN A STONE FIGHT

James Roney, the Alleged Murderer, Will Claim It Was Accidental.

GANGRENE AIDS THE BULLET'S WORK

The third local murder inside the last three weeks was reported to the Coroner yesterday and the alleged murderer is under arrest. This time the victim was a boy, Peter Tierney, aged 13, who lived with his father, John Tierney, in Denny's court, near Thirteenth street. The man who is alleged to have shot him is James Roney, who lives on the hill above Thirtieth street. He is 50 years old and for the past 18 years has been a boss paver in the employ of the city. The man has always borne an excellent reputation and his plea will be that the shooting was accidental. The boy died at 2 o'clock yesterday afternoon, at the Homeopathic Hospital. The story of the shooting is as

On April 1 the boys along Penn avenue were having one of the famous stone fights with the hill boys. There has always been n rivalry between these two factions, and these stone fights have been continued from one set of boys to another during the past 40 years. During the progress of the fight the stones pelted in on Mr. Roney's house, when that gentleman ran out and commenced firing upon

One of the Boys Wounded.

Peter Tierney was wounded in the knee, and was deserted by the boys, Arthur Steel, a big colored ironworker, picked up the boy and carried him to Dr. Staub's office, on Penn avenue. The boy's wound was dressed there, and then an ambulance removed him to the Homeo-pathic Hospital. At the hospital blood poisoning and gangrene set in. The physians there say the boy's sufferings were terrible. Attempts were made to relieve him. but without avail, and yesterday afternoon

At the time of the shooting James Roney was arrested but gave bail. When the Coroner heard of the boy's death he ordered the man's rearrest. Last night he impaneled a jury and commenced the inquest. A post mortem was also ordered and that duty vill be performed by the staff physicians at he hospital. The inquest will be continued this afternoon at 2 o'clock. In the mean-time Detective Robinson had gone in search of James Roney, and shortly before 4 o'clock he appeared with his prisoner.

Mr. Roney Greatly Affected. Mr. Honey seemed greatly worried over the affair, and was very nervous. He is about 5 feet 6 inches tall and well built. He has a frank, open face—in fact, is decidedly fine looking. His brown hair is plentifully streaked with gray, and his heavy mustache and goatee are almost white. He told the following story of the shooting:

"The boys are fighting nearly all the time in the neighborhood of my home, and when anyone speaks to them they only swear at On April I they were worse than I had not said anything until I heard them firing a pistol, I don't know how many shots were fired. I ran out and one boy dropped a pistol and ran away. When I nicked it up the boys commenced throwing stones at me. I was trying to dodge the stones when the revolver went off. I was throwing my arms up to protect my face when the shot was fired. I did not think it had hit anyone, and am told that the boy who it is said I shot was standing away up to the side shout 100 feet away from me when the pixtol west off. The Tierney boy also had a broken arm, and his father, who works for the Pennsylvania Railroad, said the boy had been treated for that for the past six Pineral from the parents' residence, 383 Beaver avenue, Allegheny, on Sunday at 2 p. M. Friends of the family are respectfully invited to attend.

"I am sure I did not want to harm any of the boys," and big tears stood in the old man's eyes as he was led off to his cell.
