JOHNSON'S CASE AGAIN LOOMS UP.

Wrestler Ed Rolly Puts Up a Forfeit-General Sporting News of the Day.

There is quite a warm controversy going on among the directors of the local ball club regarding the prices to be paid on the opening day and on the Fourth of July. At the directors' meeting Thursday it was decided to charge $1 per sent for several hundred of the reserved seats on the opening stay and also on the Fourth. Every director voted in favor of this policy except President O'Neil, who is now doing some tall busiling to have the resolution revoked. Yestenday he talked very emphatically on the "The policy is a mistake. We have no right matter and said: to increase prices beyond the ordinary either on the opening day or on any other special gay. The same prices should prevail all through and I think we are doing quite enough when we are jumping from 25 to 50 cents. If we in any way increase prices on special days we can-not gain much, and it gives the public a bad impression, I am thoroughly opposed to the

An official of the club, who had favored the move, said: "Our idea is merely to give persons an opportunity to secure their seats early for the two occasions named. On the opening day and on the Fourth of July there are very hig crowds, and we think that hundreds people will willingly pay an extra 25 cents to secure a good seat. But I understand that the entire matter is to be left with President Well, and in that event the resolution passed at our incetting may not be carried into effect."

A tier of 12 private boxes will be built on the rout of the grand stand beginning at the press box and continuing toward right field. Some of the boxes will held four persons, and the others will hold eight. They will contain opera chairs and will be elegantly litted up. Yesterday President O'Neil was extremely busy trying to lease some of them. Some are already sugged. Furing a conversation regarding the price of admission, President O'Neil said the visiting club has to be paid for every person who goes into the grounds. This year clubs may give the councilmen and officials of their city free passes to the games, but all these persons must be paid for to the visiting club. There will be no 'lathes' day,' in but, the League has decided to make all pay except the home club pays for them. "Ned and in that exent the resolution passe at the home club pays for them, paraing Pitcher King, President O'Nell of much to say of a definite kind. leaving Mr. O'Neil said: "It does not matter how the case ends, we will not be interiered with. The League is all right. The case is a very simple one to understand. Here it is: All Johnson sold us $40,000 worth or baseball stock, etc., in Cincinnat, for which we agreed to pay him $30,000. As soon as we agreed on the deal Messrs. Prince and Wagner stouged in and said that part of that $10,000 worth of stock was theirs and that they wanted their share of the $30,000. Our money is therefore, held by court, and the question is to whom does it belong? Is sit all Johnson's, or have Prince and Wagner shares in it? Our purchase is not in disjuite, but simply the money are man for it. It does not matter to us who gets the money, but I would really like to see Johnson get all of it. He deserves it." will not be interiored with. The League is all the Career of Tom Sayers. The following extract from a letter written by Johnnie Gideon, the veteran backer of Tom Sayers, to the Clipper, is exceedingly interest-ing. Speaking about Sayers, Gideon says:

JOHNNIE GIDEON'S STORY. He Tells Some Interesting Things About It Is Being Evolved Slowly in the

"I could go on about all Sayers' fights, but I mention this one as the cementing or our friendship. When he went into the ring to fight John Heenan, Tom weighed about 149 ounds-not an ounce more. I weighed him on the Saturday before, at 4 o'clock in the afternoon, at the racing scales of Sam Rogers, the celebrated trainer, at his stables. Tom then weighed, in nudity, 147 pounds, for be it inderstood, although the fight was at catch weight Tom weighed every morning. During his career, weight and height given away by him were nothing, as all his records testify. His best fighting weight was 148 pounds, and when he fought and won his first battle, March when he fought and woo his first battle, March 19, 1849, against Aby Couch, who weighed 168 pounds. Tom weighed but 128 pounds. He gave weight to all who met him but one, whom he beat in 17 minutes. That was Bob Brettle, of Birmingham, who was then the acknowl-edged middleweight champion, and Tom fought him $2,000 to $1,000. "The weight and height of some of Sayers'

"The weight and height of some of Sayers' antagonists were enormous when pitted man to man. Couch was over 168 pounds and stood 5 feet II inches. Collin- weighed 144 pounds and stood 5 feet II oche. That day Sayers weighed 188 pounds. Nat Langhauf stood 5 feet II inches and weighed 168 pounds. Sims weighed 182 pounds and was 6 feet in height. Poulson weighed 175 pounds and Sayers 149 pounds. Aaron Jones stood 6 feet and weighed 188 pounds. The Tipton Slasher weighed 188 pounds and stood 6 feet 2 inches. Bill Benjamu, who Tom beat twice, weighed 175 pounds and stood 6 feet II inches. Tom Paddock stood 5 feet II inches and always weighed in the ring 180 pounds. Sayers stood 5 feet 8½ inches in height, and his best fighting weight was 148 pounds. He received the belt for the championship of England on June 22, 1857, after his victory over the Tipton Slasher, and it would have been his, could be have held it against all comers for three years, but he resigned it after his battle with John C. Many Little Children Poisoned by Eating Wild Parsnips.

DECISIONS IN DELAMATER LAWSUITS SPECIAL TELEGRAM TO THE DISPARCH. UNIONTOWN, April 10 .- The affairs of the Columbia Iron and Steel Works are not yet regarded as definitely settled. Managing Director E. M. Butz and his brother John are still here endeavoring to effect an arrangement whereby the receiver appointed by Judge Reed yesterday will be withdrawn and the assignee Charles A. O'Brien, be permitted to act. Arrangements are said to have been about completed with local capitalists and a Pittsburg capitalist to furnish the funds to purchase the first mortgage bonds held by Boggs & Buhl, which amount to $102,000. The bonds, it is understood, will be purchased at a slight discount, and in case the deal goes through, the stock of Boggs & Buhl will be transferred with the bonds, and the management will again pass into the hands of the Mesers. Butz. The stock of Boggs & Buhl, added to that already controlled by F. M. Butz, amounts to a majority of the stock in the concern. It is understood that the National Bank of Fayette county and the People's Bank, of this place, rave guaranteed a portion of the fund to purthase the bonds.

F. M. Butz said this evening that their plans would be completed to-morrow, but refused to say what they were. The arrangements which the McSrs. Butz are endeavoring to effect is favored by a number of the local stockholders. favored by a number of the local stockholders, but satisfaction is expressed in all quarters with the appointment of Colonel Schoonmaker as receiver. Confidence is felt here that under whichever control the Columbia Works are operated they will emerge from their present difficulties. A number of claims for labor have been filed against the company within the last day or two, but no suits have yet been brought.

A SUSPICIOUS POISONING CASE.

The Stomach of One of Three Dead Children Sent to Pittsburg for Analysis. SERVICIAL TELEGRAM TO THE DISPATCH.

GREENSBURG, April 10 .- A deep mystery rrounds the death of three children of David Carroli, who lives at this place. One week ago the children were taken suddenly ill, but in spite of all that could be done by physicians, the children died after suffering terribly. The physicians ordered an investigation, as symptoms strongly pointed to poisoning. The chil-dren had been running in the fields and had dren had been running in the fields and had also been eating some canned corn, etc., but it was thought best to hold a post mortem, and the stomach of the oldest child, who was 5 years of age, was sent to Pittsburg for analysis.

The physicians are very reticent in regard to the case, but enough has been learned to indicate that the children had died from poison admistered by some person. It is said the dose was a powerful one, and was sufficient to cause the death of a dozen mer. Two other children in the family are seriously ill, and it is learned they will die. The Carroll family is composed of himself and wife and her sister.

FEARS OF A WATER FAMINE.

McKeesport Will Have Poor Service During a Reservoir Cleaning.

INPECIAL TELEGRAM TO THE DISP TCR. McKeesport, April 10.-The reservoir is to be cleaned, and also the well at the pump house. It will take fully a week to clean the latter, and during the process no water can be proped. The reservoir holds 5,000,000 gallons of water, and the city consumes one-half of that amount daily.

In all probability the water must be then pumped to the city direct into the mains, and this will give a very poor quality of water. A water famine is feared, and during the progress of the work very strict police and fire regulations will be enforced.

WHOLESALE POISONING OF CHILDREN. They Ate Wild Parsnips, and Three Have Already Died.

PRECIAL TELEGRAM TO THE DISPATOR. DUBOIS, April 10.-The greatest excitement ever seen here has been caused by the almost wholesale poisoning of the children of famhe ring by his backers, who threw up the -ilies in the First ward from eating wild vege-

ne Society Asked to Find a Hon for Mrs. Graven.

Mrs. Christina Graven, aged 62 years, of No. 26 Decatur street, Allegheny, is the subject of a cruelty complaint made to the Humane Society. In the complaint it was stated that Mrs. Graven was at one time worth considerable money, and after being robbed of all of it, she was cruelly treated by her relatives.

The result of an investigation by Humane Agent Berryman did not put the matter in as bad a light as reported. According to the story told the Humane Agent it appears that at one time Mrs. Graven was worth about $15,000 in cash. This money it is said, she was induced to loan to her brotherin-law, Joseph Bumbaugh, who now lives at Freedom, Pa. Bumbaugh, it was said, got the money to go into business and after-ward failed, losing every cent of it. This af course made Mrs. Graven penniless, and likewise Bumbaugh, who is now said to be in straightened circumstances, and he has a large family to keep. Since Mrs. Graven lost her money none of her relatives or friends have cared to keep her. She has a brother, John Graven, living at Freedom, but it is said he refused to assist ner unless the other relatives would aid in keeping her also. Mrs. Graver is now living with Jacob Stinecker, and has been there for the past four months. It is said they are under no obligations to support the woman, and for this reason want her to get another home. Mrs. Graven herself told the Humane Agents that she was anxious to get in some home, but could not do so without assistance. John Graven will be communicated with by the Humane Agents, and as he is reported to be a man of wealth, efforts will be made to have him put Mrs. Graven in some home.

BEN.BUTLER AROUSED

At Being Politely Called a Liar in Open Court at Boston.

QUITE A SENSATIONAL SCENE

Bold Ben Charged With Falsity by United States Judge.

AN EXCITING DIALOGUE BETWEEN THEM

ISPECIAL TELEGRAM TO THE DISPATCH, 1 BOSTON, April 10.-Judge Carpenter, of the United States Court Bench, called General Butler a liar to-day in a heated argument over legal matters connected with the famous Johnson case, upon which General Butler has staked his reputation. He did not use the word "liar," but everybody knew what he meant, and there was a decided sensation in the crowded court room over that and the dramatic scene that fol-

The case against Mrs. Johnson, who was convicted of perjury in attempting to obtain pension, came up on General Butler's otion for a new trial. The General has stated that he did not get a fair hearing before the present Court and the feeling between the Court and counsel has not been marked by unnecessary friendliness. There were several brushes in to-day's proceedings. Judge Carpenter, in refusing to grant General Butler's motion for a new trial. said: "The second objection was to the with holding or 'holding up' of a ruling upon the validity of the marriage of defendant to Stevens under the laws of Vermont, until the charge was delivered to the jury. This was not true. It never was true, and it was always known not to be true ever since the

Butler Stung to Madness.

"The question was fully argued by the counsel at the time, and the Court stated fully what he should rule. The statement, therefore, being false, and known to be false by the counsel now before the court, it con-stituted no grounds for a new trial." This brought General Butler to his feet and, trembling with excitement and rage, he exclaimed: "As to the allegation that the claims in the motion are false, I reassert them to be true, and that they can be proved by the records of the court."

Judge Carpenter, with firmness and very pointedly, replied: "You have said so once, and you knew it to be false."

General Butler turned pale, compressed his lips to suppress the retort that was ready, and after a moment of painful silence he took up another phase of the case and the following spicy debate followed: General Butler-I propose to have a writ of error from the Circuit Court as soon as the Court will settle the exceptions. Again Called a Liar.

The Court-There have been no exceptions presented up to this present moment.

General Butler—That is as true as some thing else I have heard. The exception is now in your hands. The Court-You have not presented them to me at any time, and you have not done so General Butler laughed and pointed to the clerk, who held a document in his hand, and said: "Give me that till I hand it to His Honor." The Court (to the Clerk)-Keep that, Mr. Clerk; it will not be used for any performance.

General Butler-Will Your Honor accept them? There is the bill of exceptions pre-sented, read to Your Honor. Your Honor knows them, evade them if you like. I Turning to the people in the court, he made this appeal to them: "I wish you to take notice here, because I will be told in the next court that I did not offer them."

The case will be called for sentence next Tuesday, and another exciting tilt is expected at that time.

RAN UP AGAINST THE LAW.

ANNIE LEE, the colored girl who accident ally shot Mrs. Young, in Allegheny, was re-leased yesterday by the Mayor. JAMES BROWN, colored, was given six months in the workhouse by Magistrate Leslie yesterday for an attempted assault on little Nellie Morris. FRAN & SCHMIDT is in jall, awaiting a hear-ing before Alderman McKenna, on charges of assault and battery and surety of the peace made against him by Rosa Schmidt. EOB HUGHES, well known on the Southside was arrested yesterday on information of his mother-in-law before Alderman Succop. She claims he robbed her house on Carson street. MAGISTRATE LESLIE yesterday committee Joseph Bolden to jail for robbery and imper-sonating an officer. Monday night be extorted $3 from Charles Wright on the pretense of being a detective.

SPECIAL OFFICER CARRIGAN yesterday ar rested James Conway on a warrant for surety of the peace. The prosecutor is Samuel Tate, a South Twelfth street saloon-keeper, who claims that Conway threatened to kill him.

Paralyzed by Her Husband.

Patrick McDermott, who stabbed his wife at her home on Shelby alley, Southside, a few weeks ago, was recommitted to jail yesterday to await the result of injuries which were inflicted upon his wife. A hearing was to have been held in the case before Alerman Succop, but Mrs. McDer-mott was unable to appear. She is now suffering from paralysis, which, it is said, was caused by the injuries she received at the hands of her husband.

"OH, IF MOTHER WERE ONLY ALIVE!" All through life she has known a mother's watchful care. She now is a young mother, and gains strength but slowly. She would "give to do everything for her precious baby, but cannot: the doctor is so strict, and does not sympathize with her, "as mother always did."

That baby has unfolded in the young mother's heart, new emotions. She has a living responsibility, and requires strength to enable her to perform a loving duty. At such a time, too much care cannot be taken, and the Vegetable Compound is indispensable. Send stamp for "Guide to Health and Etiquette," a beautiful Illustrated book.

"Dear loctor—lam in receipt of your favor 21st inst., and was greatly pleased that the contents of uny former letter were so gratifying to you, and I assure you that words fail me at this moment to express to you my unbounded satisfaction with the results of your treatment. If am full of activity and hope to-day where one year ago I was despondent and ill natured. When I wrote to you the other day I did not write as an advertisement, it was purely the outpourings of a thankful heart, and I would say if you wish to use my name in any way that they may warmest consent, and in the meantime anything that I can do for you, will be, on my part, a deed of justice to one who takes such a deep interest in his fellow man. "GREENSBURG, PA., March 23, 1891.

Wm. C. Byers, M. D., No. 421 Penn avenue, "I would add to what I have already said that when I contract a cold now it does not give me much trouble where a year ago or before I commenced your treatment every time I contracted a cold I was compelled to stay in the house at least two days and then it took from one to two weeks dosing and nursing to get me in shape again. In conclusion I would say that I would not endure the racking pains in my head and have my system out of order again if your treatment would cost me 510 per month.

"Yours respectfully.
