went there. When Mr. Stroup was apprised of the fact of his having been refused a license last evening by a DISPATCH reporter, it was the first intimation he had had, he said, of the news. He was at a loss as to any rea sons why he should have been refused when so many new men were granted licenses, and could assign no reason for it. Mr. Stroup could hardly believe that a icense had been retused him.

Never Expected to Be Knocked Out. "Wby," he said, "so far from expecting a refusal I have been engaged in fixing up my house with a view to making it more comfortable and convenient than ever. I comfortable and convenient than ever. I have spent $1,800 in decorations within the last three months, and only to-day bought more material for setting off the saloon to better advantage. in an orderly manner, and that I have suc-ceeded is proven by the fact that this is the first time in 18 years that I have been positively refused. "My house has been frequented by the best people in the city, and nobody can say they have ever seen a drunken man on my premises. I have served nearly 300 people at meals every day, and as many as 500 on Saturdays, and, I believe, to the satis-faction of every one who came here. Among these who dime here are mean and here. those who dine here are many gentlemen who never touch liquor in any form. Judge who never touch liquor in any form. Judge Stowe has dined here four days a week, for the last five or six weeks; General Pearson, Charles C. Monsooth, and Major Montooth; Charles O'Dounell, P. C. Knox, of Knox & Reed; Mr. Long, of Fourth avenue; Mr. Harper, Mr. Underholdt, Mr. Evans, and many others are frequent guests of the house. This place has cost me $73,000, and I have always tried to keep a house which would be some-thing above the ordinary run of saloons in charter vesterday. this city. I have nothing to say regarding the actions of the Judges. They are the arbiters, and must know, of course, what they are doing." Mr. Lenz, of Lenz & Kleinschmidt, could not assign any reason why he was refused a license. He said it was true he was Presideut of a social club which met in the Forbes street Turner Hall, but the amount of beer which was drunk there did not exceed what was sold in any other club in the city. Mr. Lenz said he would still carry on his restaurant business, and wait until next year. I. B. Boyer, of Hotel Boyer, was also refused a license. Mr. Boyer was all and could not be seen regarding the matter. The loss of the license will be taken as bad news by a number of oil men and well-diggers, who make this hotel their headquarters.

> THERE WAS NO BREAK Corkworkers Claiming Increased Strength in Their Ranks.

The corkworkers are jubilant that the threatened break in their ranks did not occur yesterday, and they say now that they can win. They deny the statement that they are not getting their benefits. On the contrary they say they have all the money they need. They have arranged with the management of the World's Museum in Allegheny for a benefit on Friday afternoon and evening, and several hundred tickets have already been sold.

Several Pressing Orders.

Preparations are going on to put the Allegheny Bessemer Steel Works in shape to roll rails again. It is said that several big orders are pressing the firm of Carnegie Bros. & Co., among them the Penn sylvania Railroad order, and that they will take this action in order to fill their contracts, as the Duquesne mill can be operated with a great deal less coke than it takes to run the Edgar Thomson.
