If ever Robert Fitzsimmous basa recollection of an American city or town he will have a recollection of Pittsburg. He is the reported champion middle-weight of the world, and last evening the backers of Ed Smith and Smith himself went and forced an interview with Fitzsimmons at the Seventh Avenue Hotel. Nothing ungentlemanly was meant and noth ing ungentlemanly was done. Smith is confident that he can defeat Flizsimmons under any rules governing prize fighting or modern time boxing. Smith showed his confidence in going and meeting Mr. Fitzsimmons and in presence of the latter saying:

"I can beat you under any rules you choose to name for money or for fun."

"I can beat you under any rules you choose to name for money or for fun."

John Quinn was present and immediately put up $1,000 as a forfeit for Smith to fight Fitzsimmons at middle-weight for a stake.

"Will you cover that?" said Mr. Quinn.

"I haven't a cent," said Fitzsimmons, "but I'll wire my backer. Mr. Clarke, in Chicago."

A long conversation followed, in which it was pointed out that Smith is in Pittsburg for the express purpose of making a match to fight Fitzsimmons under any recognized rules for the middle-weight championship. Smith's backers also pointed out that if Fitzsimmons does not fight, Smith will claim the title. Finally Fitzsimmons seeing he was surrounded by men who were there for business agreed to terms to the offect that he will fight Smith at 154 pounds, weigh at the ring side, for the biggest purse that will be or may be offered. Although the conditions were not according to rules the Smith party accepted them, and as a consequence Fitzsimmons is bound to fight Ed Smith at the weight named. ith at the weight named.

quence Fitzsimmons is bound to fight Ed Smith at the weight named.

Smith is emphatically in earnest and desires that a forfeit should be put up to-day to bind the match. He has an idea that the blonde Australian will leave the city before coming to any definite match-making business. One thing is true, Fitzsimmons has been called at his own terms, viz., prize ring weight under Queensberry rules. He cannot possibly go back on his own proposition, no matter how unfair it may be to Smith. The latter and his party have been waiting for Fitzsimmons for a long time in this city and if the reputed champion goes away from here without definitely making a match to fight for the tutle he ought never to nave the audacity to call himself a champion again. It is now a matter beyond a show affair. Fitzsimmons is either middle-weight champion or he is not. If he is he must defend his title under the conditions of the "ring." If he is not a real champion he will ignore all challenges and continue to travel on the effects of cheap show bills.

agreement from Darrin and signed them, with the proving that the race take place in Pitts-burg on Decoration Day.

Priddy has forwarded a forfeit of $250 to the Sporting Times, New York, the amount neces-sary to cover Darrin's forfeit. Priddy agrees to run for $1,000 a side, and will allow the Sport-ing Times to be stakeholder, but insists that the referee be a resident of Allegheny county. Darrin may agree to this; he cannot well re-fuse.

Itseems certain that these two distance runners will come together, and if they do, probably one of the best races ever seen in Western Pennsylvania will be witnessed. Darrin has made an international reputation, and Priddy has already defeated everybody in America who has tackled him at three miles. At any rate, it is safe to say that if these two men can come to terms and run a race of three miles the winner will be ready to run any other man in the world.

MUNIFICENT GIFT Donation of $490,000 Worth of New

York Property by a Priest TO THE BIG CATHOLIC UNIVERSITY

That is Now Under Course of Construction in Washington.

CAREER OF THE GREAT BENEFACTOR

NEW YORK, April 16 .- The Rev. James McMahon, pastor of St. Andrew's Roman Catholic Church, in Duane street, at City Hall place, made over to-day to the Roman Catholic University, at Washington, real estate in this city and Long Branch, valued at $490,000 over all incumbrances. Father McMahon has given this property to establish a school of theology. He made over the deeds to-day in the office of his lawyers, Tucker, Hardy and Wainwright, in Temple court. He was accompanied by Bishop John J. Keane, Rector of the University. The New York property consists of five parcels. The first includes three city lots on Riverside avenue and three on Clermont avenue, the whole comprising one plot near One Hundred and Twenty-second street. It is valued at $100,000, and carries a mortgage of $17,500. The second parcel is the house and lot at 254 West Thirty-fourth street, now occupied by the Standard Club. This s valued at $60,000 and is mortgaged for $20,000. The third parcel includes two lots fronting 51 feet on Seventy-ninth street on the corner of Columbus avenue. They are valued at $60,000 and carry a mortgage of

The fourth purcel comprises eight lots on the west side of Columbus avenue, between Eightigth and Eighty-first streets, and are Eightiath and Eighty-first streets, and are valued at $20,000 and mortgaged for $8,000. The fifth parcel consists of eight lots on the south side of Seventy-seventh street, 50 feet east of Ninth avenue. It is worth $125,000 and is mortgaged for $24,000. The property at Long Branch comprises 11% acres, upon which stands the United States Hotel. Father McMahon said to-day this was worth $200,000, but the real estate valuation is $125,000. Taking the lower valuation upon the Loug Branch property, the gift amounts to $490,000, less mortgage claim of $82,000.

Father McMahon is in his 75th year, and is about to retire from active work. For years he has been known as the wealthiest Catholic priest in the country. It is believed that he has a large property left, some say nearly to that he has just given to the University. He was born in Ireland and educated at Maynooth College, of which his uncle was President.

Carsear of Father McMahon.

Career of Father McMahon. He studied divinity at the seminary of St. Sulpice, in Paris, and later in the Sulpician Seminary in Montreal. He came to New York Seminary in Montreal. He came to New York in 1843, and was appointed by Bishcp Hughes assistant to the Very Rev. William Starrs, at the old St. Mary's Church. In 1848 he was made paster of the Church of St. John the Evangelist, which then owned the property where the present St. Patrick's Cathedral stands.

When the church was moved to Fifty-fifth strees and First avenue, and the cathedral begun, Father McMahon was put in charge of the cathedral. He superintended its building and officiated as paster until 1880, when he was sent to St. Andrew's as paster. He has been there ever since. there ever since.

Father McMahon was born a business man. He had a small inherited fortune when he came to New York, and amused himself by dealings in real estate. He was fortunate in all his speculations.

An Excellent Scholar. He acquired the Long Branch property in 1869, having purchased it as one of a syndicate. Later he bought his associates out. He is also noted in the church as an exceptional Hebraic and Biblical scholar. In 1848 he published a translation of the New Testament, based upon translation of the New Testament, based upon Challoner's revision of the old Douay Bible. He also edited the Haydock Bible. He has foilowed music as a hobby, and is familiar with the mechanism of church organs, and even skillful in their construction.

The foundation of the university, to which the gift is made, was begun four years ago with the gift of $300,000 from Miss Mary Gwendolin Caldwell. Father McMahon's is the only considerable gift since. The university is for the nigher education of priests. Bishop Keane said to-day that Father McMahon might resign from St. Andrew's and move to Washington. Father McMahon declined to say what his intentions were.

A CROOKED CONCERN.

The Investigation of a Building Associatio Reveals a Nest of Fraud.

St. PAUL April 16.—Investigation into the business methods of the American Building and Loan Association has been remitted. Bank Examiner Kenyon, at the direction of the Governor, has been at work on the association's books for the past month, and his report, which was submitted to Governor Merriam this morning, is prolific of sensations.

It finds that forfeited stock has been sold by the majority of directors to their friends or trusted employes at a nominal figure; that the purchasers in some instances had the numer-ical amount of certificates reduced in number of shares, so that no further payments would be necessary, and then borrowed from the as-sociation on the stock so reduced three-fourths of the loan fund, enabling them thereby to get of the loan fund, enabling them thereby to get more money from the association than was required to purchase the stock. As conducted in this manner, the right of forfeiture results in a loss to the association, the original stockholders losing the entire investment. The Attorney General has been instructed to ascertain whether there is sufficient grounds to commence suit against the company for the purpose of having it close up its affairs, and in case that there is, to proceed legally at once.

ASBURY PARK, N. J., April 18.—Councilor McGill has appointed ex-State Treasurer Toffey receiver of the Decatur and Nashville Improvement Company. This corporation was organized under the laws of New Jersey for the purpose of constructing the Decatur, Chesapeake and New Orleans Raliway. This is the railroad company whose bonds figure exclusively in the failures of the American Loan and Trust Company and the Washington National Hank, both of New York. J. Edward Simmons, the President of the Fourth National Bank of New York, is the receiver of the American Loan and Trust Company. Receiver Toffey has made, through counsel, a demand that Receiver Simmons return to him bonds of the Decatur, Chesapeake and New Orleans Raliway Company of the face value of $333,000. Receiver Toffey claims that $183,000 worth of the Bonds were squeezed out of the Decatur and Nashville Improvement Company as extra or additional collateral security upon certain loans. The other $150,000 worth of the bonds, Receiver Toffey alleges, were obtained by some of the directors of the American Loan and Trust Company by a similar process of "squeezing."

The Decatur and Nashville Improvement Company had been promised certain loans. These loans were withheld until the $160,000 in bonds of the railway company were turned over to the directors of the loan company. These directors subsequently turned the bonds over to the loan company, and Mr. Simmons now has possession of them as the receiver of that corporation. If the bonds are not returned to Receiver Toffey he will bring swit for their recovery.

DRIVE AT WATCHORN.

nator Hines Denies That He Went Into the Coke Region to Incite Riot.

[FROM A STAFF CORRESPONDENT.] to divide the present Sixth district into three-the Sixth, Seventh and Eighth; the first, com-posed of the borough of Coraopolis and the townships of Stowe, Robinson, Moon, Findlay, Neville, Crescent, North Fayette, South Fay-ette, Collier, Upper St. Clair, Scott, Snowder HARRISBURG, April 16.-There was some lively sparring in the Senate this morning over Senator Hines' bill to provide three additional clerks for the State and two for the Auditor General's Department. Senator Robbins tried to amend by reducing the number to one in each department, but it was lost. Senators Hines and Green defended the increase, saying Mansfield, Chartiers, Greentree and West Liberty and the townships of Chartiers, Union, Lower St. Clair and Baldwin. The Eighth, with one member, will contain the boroughs of Homestead, Beltzhoover, Knoxville, Elizabeth, West Elizabeth and Reynoldtown and the townships of Mifflin, Jefferson, Elizabeth, Forward and Lincoln.

The Ninth is formed of the boroughs of Tarentum, Etna, Sharpsburg, Milivale, Spring Garden, Bellevue, West Bellevue, Gleinfield, Ostorne and Sewickley, and the townships of Aleppo, East Deer, Franklin, Fawn, Hampton, Harmar, Springdale, Harrison, Indiana, Kilbuck, Marshall, McCandless, O'Hara, Onio, Pine, Richland, Ross, Reserve, Shaler, Sewickley, Leet and West Deer, with two members. The tenth includes the city of McKeesport and the townships of Versailles, with one member. Eleventh, with one member, is made up of the boroughs of Verona, Oakmont, Wilkinsburg, Braddock, Walmerding, Edgewood, Swissvale, Brushton, and the townships of Plum, Penn, Patton, Braddock, Wilkins and Sterrett, that it had been recommended by Governor Beaver in his last message, and that it was im-possible to do the work with the present force of clerks. Senator Gobin asked how it came, if extra clerks were needed and the work could not be done without them, that eight experienced and competent clerks had been removed by the present administration and inexperienced men put in their places? There didn't appear to be too much work in the Executive Department, for one of the clerks there had had time to leave his desk and go out into the coke regions to incite striking miners to riot. Department, for one of the clerks there had had time to leave his desk and go out into the coke regions to incite striking miners to riot.

This drive at Executive Clerk Watchorn brought Senator Hines to his feet with an indiguant denial of the charge. He asserted that the "fact wasn't true," but had been concoted by newspape, correspondents who were paid a penny a line for their rot. The bill passed second reading, but the Republican majority will fight it on final passage. There seems to be a general feeling against making any more positions to be filled by Democrais. Information furnished by the State Department shows that there has been no increase of the clerical forge there, since 1874. In 1873 the receipts were $7,996 and the expenditures $25,-337 48, leaving a deficit of $17,341. In 1890 the receipts had increased to $43,935 75, and the expenditures to $26,799 83, leaving a surplus of $17,136 42. In the past ten years the work at the corporation desks has more than deubled, and at the commission desks increased 50 per cent.

A LIVELY TIME

expected To-Day When Certain Rese tions Are Called Up.

(FROM A STAFF CORRESPONDENT.) HARRISBURG, April 16.—To-morrow is reso-lution day, and unless the same delays are used which shut them out last Friday, there may be ively times in the House. Mr. Seanor will try to call up his anti-discrimination resolution and Mr. Wherry is fairly aching to get up that and Mr. Wherry is fairly aching to get up that bill introduced by him about two months since, providing for the appointment of a joint com-mittee to report as to the advisability of creat-ing a State Department of Supervision of State Institutions. If he succeeds in calling it up, the report just filed by the Commission of Charities and Corrections will be handled very vigorously by the gentleman from Cumber-land.

It may be added that the opponents of both resolutions are just as active as are Messrs, Seanor and Wherry, and business will not be rushed in order to reach them.

SCHOOL BOOK TRUST.

The Testimony Taken in the Investigati Will Be Printed.

[FROM A STAFF CORRESPONDENT.] HARRISBURG, April 16 .- Dr. Towler, Forest, moved to-day to reconsider the vote by which the House had refused to concur in the Senate resolution for the printing of 3,000 copies of the testimony taken by the committee investigating the School Book Trust. He said he feared the House had acted thoughtlessly. he feared the House had acted thoughtlessly.
A Senator intimately concerned in the investigation had told him that the information contained in this testimony was of great value, and that certain gentlemen who had been earnesily lobbying in the interest of the school book publishers were very anxious that it be not printed. The motion prevailed, and the resolution was concurred in.
