THE UNION LINE CASE.

Judge Ewing Says That Mr. Martin Has No Case in Fouity.

DISMISSED AT COST OF PLAINTIFF.

Bigelow Gives Another Reason Why He Is Not in Contempt.

TESTERDAY IN THE COUNTY COURTS

Judge Ewing handed down an opinion in Common Pleas Court No. 2 vesterday in the estate of George McC. Kountz, against the Pittsburg Union Passenger Railway, the Pittsburg, Allegheny and Manchester Traction Company, Booth & Flinn et al. The object of the suit was to annul the lease of the Union Passenger Railway to the traction company, and stop work on the traction line. The defendants claim that the suit was not bena fide; that the real sholder of the stock al-leged to be held by George Kountz is Commoore W. J. Kountz, who is the person in whose nterest the suit is entered, and who voted for interest the suit is entered, and who voted for the lease which he now endeavers to annul.

Judge Ewing dismissed the bill at the cost of the complainant. In his opinion he says: "Under this answer it is not even the case of a stockholder who ignorantly consented to the lease and afterward discovered the mistake, but it is the complaint of a promoter of the lease with knowledge of the law, who without offerings to do equity to the lessee or contractors asks to have the lease annulled."

The case now rending in the United States offering to do equity to the lessee or contractors asks to have the lease annulled."

The case now pending in the United States Gircuit Court, in which W. H. Adams, of Chicago, is plaintiff against the traction company, is brought upon the same grounds as the one dismissed this morning, and, as claimed by atterness for the defendants, is weaker because of the non-residence of Mr. Adams, it being alleged there that he is not the real owner of the stock in his name, to protect which he brings suit. There is no collusion between Mr. Adams and Commodore Kountz. Adams is a brother-in-law of Kountz, and the answer of the traction companies sets up those facts. Defendants claim that the law and the reasoning of the Judge in the county courts governing the case just dismissed will likely be followed in the Circuit Court. The cloud of lingation hanging over the Allegheny and Manchester has been broken by the decision of resterday, and when the pending action is settled its troubles will doubtless end.

UNDUE INFLUENCE CHARGED.

The Validity of the Will of James Corrigan to Be Tested in Court.

Mrs. Mary Murphy yesterday filed in the Orphans' Court an appeal from the probate of the will of her father, James Corrigan. The will in question is dated March 31, 1891, and Mr. Corrigan died April 1. He bequeathed to his daughter, Mrs. Murphy, the interest on $2,000 during her life, at her death the principal to go to her daughter. One thousand dollars is to be given to St. Peter's Roman Catholic Church, alleges that her father was incapacitated from making a will, and that his wife used undue in-fluence to get him to sign the instrument, keep-ing him under the influence of drugs and liquors. The will, it is asserted, was not dated butil after his death.

He Tells the Court Once More Why He Should Not Be in Contempt. E M. Rigelow, Chief of the Department of Public Works, yesterday filed a supplemental answer to the rule on him for an attachment for contempt of court in not complying with the order to remove the dirt placed on the wharf. He assigned as an additional reason why he hould not be attached, that the case after his conviction had been appealed to the Supreme the Supreme Court has never acted upon the appeal and it is still pending. He asks the court not to take any further action on the indictment or sentence until the Supreme Court shall have determined his petition.

TEN YEARS A VICTIM OF CATARRH How a Cure Was Found After Everything Else Bad Failed.

A SURE CURE FOR LA GRIPPE.

If cases like the following can be cured, certainly there is hope for all. This patient rertainly there is hope for all. This patient had been growing worse in spite of all treatment for ten years, and had reached that terrible condition known as the third stage of catarrh (atrophic catarrh). The offensive breath and dry scabs forming in the nose, and cracking in the ears, describe a condition which is considered by most physicians as hopeless. The case is given in the words of the patient:

"KYLE, TEX., March 21, 1891.

"For ten years I have been a sufferer of that dreadful disease, chronic catarrh. The doctors all pronounced my case to be catarrh in its worst form. I took many case of W. W. Martin, guardian of the kinds of treatment to po avail. I have tried I commenced to use it, and soon found re-lief. I continued until I was completely cured, and am now entirely rid of all catarrhal symptoms. I would give $10 a boutle for Pe-ru-na rather than to be without it. It has restored me to perfect health. MRS. M. J. TAMBLIN."

It would be difficult to describe a worse case to cure than the above. The length of time it had run, the fact that it had con-ment alone, and no spray, gargle or inhalent was used. The case began to improve as soon as the medicine was begun, and in a few weeks every symptom had disappeared, but the medicine was continued a while longer for fear they would return. Not a month passes but that hundreds of similar cures are made by the internal use of Pe-ru-na, unassisted by other treatment.

The only reason that there are any failures is either because the catarrh is complicated by some organic disease or the patient does not take the medicine long enough. The majority of people expect to be cured in a week or two of catarrh that has run 10 or 15 years. Such people are nearly always dis-appointed. Peru-na will cure a recent case of acute catarrh in a few days or weeks, but when the disease becomes chronic it takes longer.

During the epidemics of "la grippe" Peru-na has been in great demand, as it is the only specific known for this disease. Not a single failure has yet been known in the cure of "la grippe" where the Pe-ru-na was used from the beginning of the attack. In lingering cases of "la grippe," where other remedies have failed to cure, Pe-ru-na rarely fails to completely restore in a short time.

Cold winter coughs, bronchitis, sore throat, and pleurisy are all catarrhal affections, and consequently are quickly cured by Peru-na. Each bottle of Peru-na is accompanied by full directions for use, and The balance of his estate he bequeathed to this widow, Margaret Corrigan. Mrs. Murphy is kept by most druggists.
