Harrison Delegates Enter a Protest.

During the confusion an Indiana delegate, Mr. Cole, of Shelbyville, created a imited sensation by declaring that he could call a meeting to denounce the treatment of President Harrison. He was muickly surrounded by other delegates. His complaint arose from the allusion of Foraker to Blaine as having "given us a mpgnificent administration." The Indiana delegate was finally quieted for the time and the convention adjourned.

Mr. Cole subsequently called a meeting of the Indiana delegation and proposed that ume formal notice of the matter be taken. After consideration it was decided to refer the natter to the Committee on Resolutions inasmuch as it was thought likely that Mr. For ker did not intend to convey the meaning that Mr. Blaine was the roling spirit of the admin-istration, but that he meant to compliment the diministration of his own office of Secretary ALAIN.
