LOOKING FOR FLAWS IN THE BILLS

on These Measures.

THOUSANDS OF LABORERS OUT OF WORK

Around City Hall vesterday the question under discussion was the probable action of thie week, but nothing was done. The all-Governor Pattison on the new street bills, rail rate is now 18 cents, reduced from 21. Which are likely to be presented to him next. How to get around the river snag is what

The legislative delegation returned to the-city yesterday. Senator Flinn took the bills to the city's attorneys in order that they to the city's attorneys in order that they might be thoroughly overhauled and any constitutional flaw detected and remedied. The bills come up in the Senate on Tuesday for concurrence in the House amendments, and if no further changes are made will go direct to the Governor.

Legislature will pass any street act that is while if the Ohio should drop to an unnaviequitable, but the question hinges on the constitutionality of the bills. We are makconstitutionality of the bills. We are making every endeavor to have these bills as perfect as possible, so we will be able to go before the Governor with an argument backed by the constitutionality of these measures."

Has a Big Interest in It.

Contractor Evan Jones dropped into the Controller's office vesterday to learn the the Two-Mile Run sewer at a cost of over ing the street acts of 1887 and 1889 unconstitutional, prevented the collection of the cost of the improvement, and Mr. Jones has been compelled to pay for several months, $50 a day to banks for carrying his paper. In addition to this Mr. Jones has four unfinished street paving contracts on his hands, on which work has been stopped by the same decision. For these reasons he is deeply interested in the outcome of the present street e surprised it you knew the number of idle men in the city to-day. There are bun-dreds, yes, thousands, of them.

Men Who Have Their All at Stake. "Perhaps the people who suffer the most are the men who own one or two horses and carts. Nearly all their work is on street improvements, and when that stops there is nothing but idieness left for them. What has added to their flouble is the fact that he disputes among the building trades have put a stop to that sort of work. There is comparatively little building being done now, and, therefore, but a light demand for earts to haul the dire away from excavations for foundations. "Another thing that presses hardly upor these men is the high price of feed. It is more costly, this year than it has been for a long time. Still, they have to buy it to keep their stock, which is their capital, alive. If these men get behind $100 or so they have but little hope of catching up again. Altogether, the outlook for them is a gloomy one."

MEMBERS OF LODGE NO. 82, A. A. OF L. and S. W., will meet at Fiannery's undertaking rooms, 1612 Second avenue, at 130 P. M. SATURDAY (to-day), to attend the funeral of our late brother, Joseph Whitington. Members of sister lodges are respectfully invited to attend. nore costly, this year than it has been for a gloomy one."

How to Beat the Ohio Is Puzzling the Loca

The Pittsburg committee of freight agents met at the Lake Shore office yesterday to dispose of a mass of detailed matter that had accumulated. A more important subject, the question of river rates, was broacned, but it was dropped like a hot potate. The Cincinnati Packet Line, with The Livelihood of Many Men Depending the river at its back, is a painful subject to the initial lines, and the roads beyond St. Louis who take advantage of the low river to that point from this territory are not held in high esteem. A meeting to knock out the 1614 cent rate to St. Louis was held at Cincinnati STREET, TELEPHONE NO. 0022 which are likely to be presented to him next week for his signature. Controller Morrow, Mayor Gourley and Chief Bigelow feel confident that the Governor will approve the acts, as they believe the measures are constitutional.

How to get around the river and the sum of the confidence of the confidenc to a boycott, and all the local agents declare that no such plan was ever thought of or Senator Finn said yesterday; "The would be entertained for a moment. Meanthe time being. Rivers and canals always were a nuisadce anyhow in the eyes of rail road managers.
