THE LIQUOR WAS POISONED

An Unknown Enemy Destroys the Lives

DENVER, April . 25 .- One of the most atrocious crimes ever perpetrated in the West came to light this morning. Some months ago Mrs. Josephine B. Barnaby, widow of J. B. Barnaby, a millionaire mer chant of Providence, R. I., took a trip to California for her health. Mrs. G. S. Warrell, wite of a prominent real estate dealer, accompanied her. On their return, April 9, Mrs. Barnaby found a package, postmarked absence. It contained a small flask of whisky with this inscription: "With wishes, accept this fine old whisky from your triends in the woods."

A few days later, when fatigued, both drank some of the liquid. From that time both ladies suffered terrible agonies, Mrs. Barnaby slowly sinking under the effects of the terrible internal burning of the poison which the bottle was afterward found to con-tain. Two days ago Mrs. Barnaby died and Mrs. Warrell is not expected to live. The motive for the crime is a mystery.
