STILL HOLDING OUT

The Record of Long Strikes in the Coke Region Broken.

REAL CAUSES OF THE STRUGGLE

Both Sides Were Endeavoring to Overreach Each Other.

REASONS FOR PROLONGING THE FIGHT

FROM A STAFF CORRESPONDENT. SCOTTDALE, April 27 .- The record of long strikes in the coke region has been broken, and this has been the hardest fight the operators and wage workers have ever had. The latter have been making war against great odds, and it is a wonder that they have been able to stand out as long as ings before they began the strike. Never before have the operators been as well prepared for just such a light as this. It was a most inopportune strike on the part of the wage-earners, and the chances are that they will lose it.

The operators are well organized and so far the breaks in their ranks have been very few.
The same may be said of the strikers, as the arm majority of the men who are going in to work are imported into the region and do not work are imported into the region and do not come from the ranks of the strikers. It is true that some of the strikers' leaders have gone to work, and this morning another was added to the dist. Robert Row, of Painter, who is said to lead the Italians, went to work for McClure

Still Standing Firm.

Yet with all these olds, the men stand firm and it looks as though they were prepared to do so for some time to come. They claim they have plenty of money and the stories circuhated to the contrary are wrong and meant to no them barm. That the credit of the organi-ration is good, is evidenced by the fact that about two weeks ago, when money was short, over $2.00 in orders were recognized by vari-ous dealers in the region. They have since here noud. There is still more money to come. early or fully 100 cars had been shipped. Mr., youb said this morning that 155 cars had been ipped Siturday. These stories certainly do of fit together. If 155 cars were shipped on aturday the total for the week would have

Another Plant Started

One new plant started up this morning at the old scale of wages, and Sceretary Parker says of elegant sash ribbons, satin and faille; usu-more will folios. The Franklin works of 50 ally sold at 85c. You take your choice of vens, owned by the Keisler Company, began perations to-day. The proprietors say they ave reasons for so doing, and there was no cause for them to stand out any longer. West | Will build up their trade rapidly if they have reasons for so doing, and there was no rause for them to stand out any longer. West Gverton, owned by Overholt & Co., made a small start at the new scale. The operators claim there are over 20 men at work, but the Frikers say that only six men went to work. A needing was held there yesterday, and after numerous votes were taken the majority of the num decided not to go to work, although at first they thought it best to do so.

An attempt was made to start Dexter, owned by J. C. Stauffer, but it proved a failure. It was to have started at the new scale, and some of the old employes had promised to be around, but they didn't appear. At Painter, the increase was nearly 25 men, mainly Italians. A small increase was reported at Morewood and in fact all over the region.

One of the reasons for prolonging the strike to the want of cosmidence on both sides. The operators have tricked the men and the men have done linkewise with the operators, until it has come to the point when each believes the ather to be a rascal and probably have some grounds for their belief. If it were possible to restore confidence, the strike could easily be settled, but at present the end does not look rear. There is just as much suspicion in the ranks of the men as against their employers. Hundreds of the men have no confidence in their leaders and the leaders have no confidence in some of the men. in some of the men.

Wrongs to Be Righted. An agreement, signed under such circum stances, would hold neither party, as either knows how easy it is to break it. An operator sain this morning that he believes the people as arule to be all right, if they were not agitated and had no wrongs to work them into a passion "But they have both," he continued. "It is all a mistake to say they have no wrongs, for all a mistake to say they have no wrongs, for they certainly have. We have never had much trouble with our men, and we are proud of our record. Still they are expected to stand with the strikers, and we are expected to hold out with the operators. If the proper concessions were made by all parties concerned, the affair could be easily settled. The men took up this strike at the wrong time, but I am not prejured to say that they can't stay out a great acal longer. I disn't expect them to hold out as long as they did. Certain it is that the iron and sheel business wid not allow the coke strike to greatly interfere with it, as it into profitable for that. Mr. Carnegie broke the strike ones, and the latest men are looking for him to no so again." no so again."
Father Lambing's address was discussed on all sides this morning, but so far it does not seem to have any special effect on the strike, as the men seem as firm as ever. The strikers as the men seem as firm as ever. The strikers owns that it will really have so bad effect on their cause. They still declare that they have nothing to do with the Socialists, but cannot prevent their speaking in the region.

To may was supposed to be a turning points in this strike, it didn't turn. The strike is still on and it will require a big move on one side or the other to end it.

Peter Wise Returning From Columbus With $3,000 For Strikers. IFROM A STAFF CORRESPONDENT, 1

SCOTTDALE, April 27 .- Peter Wise, District Master Workman, is expected to return from Columbus to-merrow. In a letter received by Secretary Parker this morning, he declares that the National officers are confident of winning the strike, and the resources of the leaders are first class.

From another source it is learned that Wise will bring about $2,000 from Columbus.

AT THE OLD SCALE.

oke Officials Reported to Be Working on Men to Return.

FROM A STAFF CORRESPONDENT, 1 MT. PLEASANT, April 27.—One of the More ood strikers came into town this afternoor with the story that Morris Ramsay had visited him and asked him to go to work at the old scale. The man said that Mr. Ramsay was willing to hire all the old men again if they would break away from the union. The men refused to go to work until the officers of their assembly were notified and agreed to it. It is also reported that there was a strike among the black sheep at Moreweou on account of a reduction in their wages to pay the deputies.

The latter report was also circulated concerning Adelauce, but Manager Lunch denied it. Both the reports about the Moreweod plant were denied by Bookkeeper James Hook, as Manager Ramsay was not in the office. The labor men declare that both are true bills.

THE RED FLAG ABSENT. IT WAS NOT CARRIED IN THE BIG PARADE AT MT. PLEASANT.

An Organized Body of Citizens Prepared to Tear It Down-Jonas and Delaber Fire Off Socialistic Speeches at the Large Crowd Present.

IFROM A STAFF CORRESPONDENT. ] Mr. PLEASANT, April 27,-There was no red flag in town to-day, though fully 4,000 people were here, and had the fiery emblem of anarchy been flung to the breeze there surely would have been a fight. But they have been able to stand out as long as they have. There are numerous reasons why they should have been defeated long ere this. They are fighting against a falling markst, and should work be resumed there would not be employment for more than half of them.

In many cases the mines were shut down ten days or more before the strike began ands of course the men spent a great deal of their savings before they began the strike. Never before have the operators been as well prepared men, mainly of his persuasion, were ready to listen to the balance of his address.

Delaber was the first speaker, and he made an address as mild-mannered as anyone even in Mt. Pleasant could ask. Jonas was different. As Mt. Pleasant could ask. Jonas was different. As usual, he ranted about the monopolistic press, at which his hearers howled with delight, and he then tackled Father Lambing's address, using THE DISPATCH from which to quote stray passages. The Socialistic editor then spoke for some time in German, and two or three languages were given, in order that all the Socialists in the crowd might hear and learn. It requires several languages to catch all of them.

Messra Parker, McBryde and others followed these gentlemen, and made addresses urging the men to stand to the strike, and promising victory in the euch. Nothing happened all day to mar the pleasure of the people, and they spent a most enjoyable day bulling under the apple trees, thinking of the happy millennium promised, when that will be their chief occupation.

It is plain that the people of the town ex-It is plain that the people of the town expected trouble, as an organized movement was on hand to tear down the obnoxious banner should it be carried in the parade. A prominent citizen was to have had the honor of tearing it from the hands of the Socialist who carried it, and a hundred others were ready to defend him against anybody who dared to resist. The orators disclaimed any intension of carrying the banner in the parade. When the parade passed up Main street it was seen that the red banner was not there.

Captain Loar ordered the guards out to salute the flag. The guard with its relief—one sergeant, three corporais and six men—in command of Lieutenant Berryhill, were lined up in front of the armory and saluted the colors as they were carried past. The meeting closed with three cheers for the Stars and Stripes. Adjutant General McClelland was here all day and attended the meeting of the Socialists.
