

LICENSED TO BREW.

Manufacturers of Beer and Whisky Named for this Year.

NOW OUT OF THE TWO CITIES.

The Judges Bearing Wholesalers from the Surrounding Towns.

YESTERDAY IN THE COURT COURTS

The work of the License Court will be finished to-day, and about Sunday or Monday the announcements will be made.

It was the opinion of the judges at the close of yesterday's session, Judge White stated that they would sit to-day until the list is completely cleaned up.

This probably means a night session of the court, as there are yet 56 applicants to be heard, and 50 per day is the record of the court.

The following is the official list of the distillers and brewers' licenses handed down by Judges White and Magee yesterday.

The list published yesterday afternoon contained some inaccuracies. Among other things, the name of the Pittsburgh Brewing Company was left off.

This was an oversight on the part of the court, as the license was marked granted, but they neglected to place the name on the list.
