Alderman Kerr Holds the Scales of Justice Between Wrathy

ITALIANS AND IRISH AT WAR.

A Lawrenceville Fence Brings Neighbors

Into Hostility. CASES DISPOSED OF BY THE 'SQUIRES

Alderman Kerr, of the Fifteenth ward, once expressed a regret that his early preceptors had not inculcated him with a knowledge of the Italian tongue, but he is less ardent in the matter now; he heard enough of that sibilant language last evening—and incidentally quite enough tongue, too—to make up for the deficiency. He thinks now, that if he had only lived in Venice a few centuries ago that he would have made a very excellent Doge. There is one Italian lady, though, who might not agree with him. Pretty nearly one-half of the Italian colony which has its habitat in Howard lane, near Boquet street, cheek by jowl, as it were, with the best of Pittsburg's blueblood, assembled in the Alderman's office last evening. The spirit of strife had descended in their midst, and discord reigned where melody held sway. In short, Signora Fidele Voccala told Winnie Goggins what she thought of her in very unmistakable language, though it was in Italian, and Winnie knows naught of that speech.

Called Too Many Names. Winnie is an Irish girl, or her parents are of that nationality, and she is the only "foreigner" in the Italian colony. She number of names which she (Winnie) would number of names which she (Winnie) would not like to repeat before "His Honor."

"How do you know what Mrs. Voccals called you, if you don't understand Italian?" asked the 'Squire.

"Oh! I saw her say them," said Winnie, "and, besides, my husband Jim told me what she said."

"Jim," whom Winnie says is her husband, is an Italian shoemaker named Gior-giani, who lives in the same house as Mrs. Goggins. He is called 'Jim Grogan' as a compromise with his proper name, but Winnie elects to an interpretation of her own, and calls herself Goggins. Anyway, Jim entirely corroborated everything that his spouse swore to, and threw upon Signora Voccals the ones of disproving the charge Voccals the onus of disproving the charge of calling Mrs. Goggins some very unpleasant names.

The signora's defense was that Mrs. Gog-gins was not one whit better than Mrs. Goggins, and the less Mrs. Goggins said about that lady the better would she appear in the eyes of the world in general, and the Italian colony in particular. The signora related to the Squire how Mrs. Goggins had only recently returned from a sojourn with friends in the retirement of Claremont, and that she had no relatives in the colony who had any claim upon her. She wanted the rooms which Winnie occupied, and that was why the lady brought her into court.

Made Mrs. Goggins Very Mad. Mrs. Goggins was very wroth when the signora cast a doubt upon her title to the protection afforded by Jim Grogan, and with much declamatory eloquence and tumbled hair, told the 'Squire that the Italians blad ton, told the 'Squire that the Italians about 300 had torn up her marriage certificate while she was in retirement. At this point the two factions of Italians were about ready to descend upon each other, when 'Squire Kerr rose to the occasion and the floor, and declared the case proven, fining Signora Voccala $3 and costs for being disorderly and calling names. Then the seame closed, and the belligerents retired into the above and the belligerents retired into the ob-scurity and gloom whence they came,

A FENCE BETWEEN THEM.

The Standard Oil Company and Christy Burns Have a Difference.

tendent W. F. Williams Standard Oil Company, and his next door neighbor, Christy Burns, have had a disagreement about a line fence. Mr. Williams rushed into Alderman Kerr's office on Thursday evening in an excited condition and a hurry, and said he wanted an officer to arrest a man immediately, if not sooner. The 'Squire sent his constable, William McClelland, to see what the trouble was. The constable found that Christy Burns had cut down the fence which divides the property in a thoroughly scientific and effective manner, and when the constable arrived Christy was turning means of a saw, into two equal portions, one for himself and the other for Mr. Williams

Mr. Burns was arrested and charged by Mr. Williams with malicious mischief. He gave bail for a hearing to-day, between 3 and 4 o'clock. Mr. Williams alleges that the fence is on the company's property, and that they have been keeping it in repair for years, while Mr. Burns is positive that the tence is on his property, and that he can do what he likes with it. The 'Squire will bring the weight of his wisdom and powerful mind to solve the knotty question. He thinks he may have to straddle it.

TOOK THE OTHER MAN'S BEER. A Couple of Lawrenceville Men Go Into

Court Over a Matter of 5 Cents. Alderman McNeirney had a case before him for elucidation yesterday, which was something out of the ordinary. One man came before him with a complaint that another had drunk his beer. Both men were in a saloon and one of them called and paid for a glass of beer. While his attention was being attracted by something in the rear, the defendant drank the beer without even the formality of an apology. Both men waxed warm over the matter, and the com-plainant laid the matter before the Alderman.

The 'Squire looked up his precedents, but could find none, and finally decided that since the complainant had; purchased a thing that the other had appropriated to his own use the offense was one of larceny. He issued a warrant for the beer appropri-

One Italian Borrows From Another, but Fails to Repay the Loan. Antonio Fasenio was committed to jail vesterday for a hearing to-day in default of bail on a charge preferred against him before Alderman Means of obtaining $3 25 from Joseph Minerio, of River avenue, East End.

Minerio alleges that Fasenio borrowed the money from him on the understanding that he would repay it when he had completed a job at cellar-digging he had secured, and that Fasenio neither did the work nor paid their charity have been in receipt recently of a letter from a man in this city, who is thought and very definitely believed to be an impostor. Some of those who have been appealed to are Reuben Miller, Captain Vandergrift, Mrs. Thaw and others. From these he has been given considerable money, as he told a plausible story in the most convincing way. He does not ask boldly for aid, but rather intimates a desire to get along for a brief period without assistance, finally winding up his appeal with a pitiful tale of dire want and need that must soon reduce him to beggary if he meets the mistortune of financial embarrasament that he fears. His lafguage is pure and couched in plaintive terms, so much so that in almost every case he has met with favorable responses.

every case he has met with ravorable responses.

One of the letters, however, was turned over to the Society for the Improvement of the Poor, and the matter was investigated. The letter in question spoke of direct necessity and want, sickness and general poverty, but through it all ran a vein of such shrinking sensitiveness that it is no wonder that even the wary were caught. On investigation by the society the writer was found largely to be an impostor, his want being due principally to his extravagance. The fellow is about 45 years of age, well dressed and gentlemanly.

street, last night. Mr. Jennings presided. The object of the meeting was to determine the time and place of holding the proposed institutes in this county. None have yet been held, and the first one was fixed for June 30, when two sessions will be held in Rev. F. R. Farrand's church, the Southside Presbyterian. In the afternoon primary Sunday school work will be discussed and in the evening general work will be the topic. An address will also be made by the State Field Secretary.

The secretary of the board was directed to correspond with the Sunday school people of Tarentum and ascertain if preparations cannot be made for holding an institute there on the 24th of July. It is proposed to hold a meeting in October along the Monongahela or Ohio Valley, and the final meeting will be held in March of next year in Allegheny. A desire is felt for additional institutes aside from the quarterly ones, and it is possible two can be arranged to be held outside of the city. Messrs, Hay, Blackstock and Gray were appointed a committee on meetings and programmes. One hundred and fifty dollars was voted to the State Committee. The committee will meet again on mittee. The committee will meet again on June 30.

Wm. A. Haire, Who Has Been Seriously Ill, Is Once More Among His Associates.

The friends of Wm. A. Hairs will be pleased to know that he has about recovered from his serious illness and will leave shortly with his father, Robert A. Haire, for a prolonged trip through the Southern States.

Mr. Haire is the resident agent in Canada for the Alabastine Company's goods, and goes South in the interest of that company. The young man, who is 18 years old, was taken down some three months ago with malignant diphtheria; the case was very severe, and the disease left him with paralysis of the spine and legs. For nearly two months he was entirely helpless and had to be handled like a child. In conversation with his father this morning that gentleman stated that after paralysis set in he made very little progress, and at the earnest solicitation of his niece, Mrs. M. B. Church, and numerous friends he was influenced to put the case under treatment at the Electrical and Medical Institute.

"He was benefited from the very first treatment," said be, speaking of the matter. "We had to carry him in and out of the Institute, for he was unable to move a foot. The power of locomotion was entirely gone. After the first ten treatments had been given him, he was able to stand on his feet and walk, and now at the end of four weeks he is walking about as usual. He will be discharged next week, as he is going South with me, and he now needs exercise more than anything else, which he can get, as he is able to get out doors.

"I do not desire newspaper notoriety, but think the objection should be waived on account of the good work that they are doing. If anyone wishes to consult me on the subject, they can address me care of, the Alabastine Company, this city."—Grand Rapids Democrat.

FOR TOURISTS! OUR SPECIALTY:

WH. E. STIEREN, Optician. THE AFTER MATH.

A GRIPPE AND ITS AFTER EFFECTS. NOW THE PROPER TIME FOR SPECIAL TREAT-MENT BY DR. BYERS' METHOD.

MENT BY DR. BYERS' METHOD.

Many people were no doubt surprised that Dr. Byers let so good an opportunity as the "La Grippe" afforded to advertise himself and his practice go by, when the papers were full of advertisements of empirical treatments and patent medicine cure-alis. But his time to speak had not yet arrived. He goes on the principle never to advertise treatment for any disease unless he is sure he can do some good, and all nose and throat specialists know that during the acute inflammatory stages of la grippe local treatment was worse than useless. Nearly one-half of all Dr. Byers' catarrhal patients suspended treatment by his advice during the epidemic, as he considered it imperative for them to stay closely indoors. This honest stand on his part has won him the confidence of all right-hinking patients.

Fm. C. Byers, M. D., No. 421 Penn Avenue

Now is the proper time to take special treatment for la grippe and its after effects, such as nasal catarrh, bronchitis, catarrhal pneumonia, incipient consumption, chronic coughs, etc., etc., as the acute inflammatory symptoms have given way to the sub-acute and chronic forms. In stubborn cases of chronic coughs, and in consumption, Dr. Byers continues to use the pneumatic cabinet treatment with satisfactory results.

ELECTRICITY IN SPECIAL DISEASES. Dr. Byers and his associates have employed electricity in the treatment of suitable cases continuously during the past six years with considerable benefit. When carefully and scientifically applied there is no doubt of its great therapeutic value in certain chronic allments, such as muscular rheumatism, neuralgia, partial paralysis and nervous affections. This branch of Dr. Byers' practice is in charge of an experienced specialist, a graduate of the well-known Bellevue Hospital Medical College of New York.

$5 PER MONTH. All cases will be treated for $5 per month, including medicine, until July I. Parties taking treatment before that time will be treated at the same fee until cured.

Dr. Byers gives his personal attention to all diseases of the eye, ear, nose, throat and lungs. All nervous diseases, skin diseases, eccema, hives, pimples, blotches, etc., blood diseases, scrofuls, rheumatism and all kidney, bladder and rectal troubles successfully treated by an experienced associate specialist.
