

THEIR REASONS WHY. License Court Judges Tell Those Who Failed to Pass Examination. WHY THEY WERE KNOCKED OUT. The Court Doesn't Think Brewers Should Have Several Licenses.

BOTTLERS AND WHOLESALERS LAID LOW. Three orders relative to the liquor license question were handed down yesterday by Judges White and Magee, as an outcome of the recent License Court. The first was on the granting of wholesale licenses to brewers who desired to establish agencies in small towns and townships for the sale of their own products. This order reads as follows: The following brewers were applicants for wholesale licenses: Bier & Danahans, First ward, McKeesport, Keystone Brewing Company, First ward, McKeesport, Hasterlein Brewing Company, Fourth ward, McKeesport, D. & A. Lutz, Fourth ward, McKeesport, First & Oberlin, Third ward, McKeesport, The Straub Brewing Company, First ward, Bradwood, Bier & Danahans, First ward, Bradwood, Iron City Brewing Company, Second ward, Bradwood, Keystone Brewing Company, Second ward, Bradwood, Keystone Brewing Company, Chartiers borough, U. A. Lutz, Chartiers borough, Bier & Danahans, Chartiers borough, William Tann Brewing Company, Chartiers borough, Wainwright & Co., First ward, Homestead, Hasterlein Brewing Company, Second ward, Homestead, U. A. Lutz, Second ward, Homestead, Iron City Brewing Company, Second ward, Homestead, Keystone Brewing Company, Second ward, Homestead, Hasterlein Brewing Company, Harrison township, Homestead, Michael Ezz, Harrison township, U. A. Lutz, Harrison township, Wainwright & Co., Harrison township, William Tann Brewing Company, Harrison township.

Judge White on Brewers' Licenses. WHITE, J. All the brewers above named were granted brewers' licenses in the districts where their breweries are located, and most of them were also granted bottles' licenses, to bottle their own products. These applications are for wholesale licenses in other districts, and it was argued by counsel for the brewers that the licenses should be granted to the products of their own breweries. In 1888 and 1889 a few such applications were before the court and all were refused. Last year 1890 were granted. This year there are 27 applications. If they should all be granted, and all have an equal right—next year, no doubt, there would be twice as many, and so increasing with every year. I do not think such licenses should be granted for these reasons: First—It does not seem to me that the law contemplates that one person shall have several licenses in different places. The law is intended to protect the public and to give to the applicant all personally supervised and conducted the business. This is impossible in such cases as the above. Bier & Danahans ask for five licenses distant from their brewery, and distant from each other. The Keystone Brewing Company ask for four in the Iron City Brewing Company for 4, Lutz & Son for 4, the Hasterlein Brewing Company for 4, the William Tann Brewing Company and Wainwright & Co. for 2 each, and each of the others for 1.

Second—The personal qualifications of the applicant required by law is a guarantee that the business shall be conducted properly, and implies the personal supervision of the business. That is impossible in these cases. The business must necessarily be entrusted to a clerk or servant, who may not possess these qualifications, over whom the court has no control, who may be irresponsible for violations of the law, and by whom the applicant is to be held liable as an agent of the brewery, he should apply in his own name, possess the necessary qualifications and give the bond required by law.

Guardian Against a Monopoly. Third—If they have an undoubted right to the limited wholesale license, I cannot see why they are not entitled to the general wholesale license, and if they are entitled to a general license of licenses, I cannot see why the larger wholesalers are not also entitled to a number, and thus have branches everywhere in the county. In this way the business would be monopolized by a few persons and be placed on a very uncertain and unsafe basis. The argument is that it enables the house brewers to compete with foreign brewers by having in their houses as "storage" house, where they can keep their beer and furnish it to their customers in good condition. But there is nothing in this argument. We do not grant licenses to foreign brewers. Some licensed wholesaler may act as their agent, or he may act for a house brewer. I can see no objection to a brewer having an exclusive right to sell his beer, but I cannot see how it can be stored and kept until his customers need it. Of course, if it cannot be stored in a brewery, it can be stored in a warehouse, and be delivered on such orders. But most of the places in which these licenses are asked for are within an hour's railroad distance from the brewery and shipments can be made several times a week. And now, May 4, 1891, for the reasons above stated, license is refused to the several applicants in the foregoing list.

Why Wholesalers Were Refused. The second order of the court referred to the wholesale applicants and gave the reasons for the refusal of the unsuccessful ones. The order reads as follows: The following persons were applicants for wholesale licenses who had a license last year: Oswald Heckman, First ward, Pittsburg; John Kiehlman, Second ward; George H. Neely, Fourth ward; William Becker, Fifth ward; Friedenberg and Feudtner, Thirtieth ward; David (Lepenstein), Fourth ward; Joseph (Lepenstein), Fourth ward; Joseph (Lepenstein), Fourth ward; George W. Kulppehl, Robert Liddell, Patrick (Lepenstein), Thirtieth ward; Charles Larkins, Thirtieth ward; M. Dubold, Fourteenth ward; Owen McCooker, Thirtieth ward; Henry (Lepenstein), Thirtieth ward; August F. Miller, Seventeenth ward; Daniel (Lepenstein), and James (Lepenstein), Thirtieth ward; Adolph (Lepenstein), Laskell Bros., and James Morehead, Thirtieth ward; Michael (Lepenstein), and Joseph Miller, Twenty-fourth ward; John Weber, Twenty-fifth ward; John G. Schlemmer, and Philip Weber, Twenty-seventh ward; Louis W. Bender, William Tann, and Fred W. Spreng, Twenty-ninth ward; Michael (Lepenstein), and Mary Yeager, Thirtieth ward; Michael (Lepenstein), Thirtieth ward; Andrew (Lepenstein), Thirtieth ward; Allegany; Susan (Lepenstein), Thirtieth ward; Michael (Lepenstein), Thirtieth ward; P. J. Brennan, W. J. Connolly, and Patrick S. McGowan, First ward, Bradwood; Michael (Lepenstein), Thirtieth ward; Gottfried, Henry (Lepenstein), and James K. Nelson, Chartiers borough; George (Lepenstein), Thirtieth ward; E. C. Frank, Conrad (Lepenstein), and Henry Stamm, Harrison township; Fred (Lepenstein), Harrison township; William and Melchor Wolf, Millin township; John (Lepenstein), North Versailles township; and William (Lepenstein), Union township.

And now, May 4, 1891, the foregoing applicants as at the March term for wholesale licenses, after hearing in court and full consideration are severally refused, because they do not possess the qualifications required by law, and for the further reason that during last year they carried on a considerable retail and bottles' business under a wholesale license. For cause. And now, May 4, 1891, all other applicants at this term of court for wholesale licenses who were not granted or included in the foregoing list, or whose applications were not considered after hearing and full consideration, are severally refused, because they do not possess the qualifications required by law for a wholesale license, and the Clerk of the Court is directed to make the entry of refusal in each of said cases. For cause.

Butlers told why they failed. Applicants for bottles' licenses were dealt with in the next order, which was as follows: Applicants for bottles' licenses—Joseph Litchner, 30 Webster avenue, Eleventh ward, Pittsburg; J. B. Schmidt, 22 Vine street, Eleventh ward; Fred Galtich, 2111 Shuman street, Twelfth ward; John Huran, 26 Tenth street, Twelfth ward; J. J. Jones, 2111 Vine street, Twelfth ward; Fred Galtich, 2111 Shuman street, Twelfth ward; James Fallon, Juniper and East streets, Eleventh ward; William (Lepenstein), 489 Plumer street, seventeenth ward; George (Lepenstein), 1181 North street, William (Lepenstein), Peter Myers, Patrick O'Neil, Nineteenth ward; Joseph Miller, Patrick O'Neil, Nineteenth ward; Peter M. Tweedle, Twenty-first ward; Louis Miller, Thirty-fifth ward; Fritz Schellinger, Thirty-fifth ward; John M. Caldwell, Allegheny, First ward; Robert (Lepenstein), J. H. Ross, First ward; R. J. Ford, Thirtieth ward; Albert F. Pitzke, Robert (Lepenstein), Thirtieth ward; Albert F. Pitzke, Robert (Lepenstein), Thirtieth ward; Robert O. Henderson, Millin township.

And now, May 4, 1891, the foregoing applicants for bottles' licenses, after a hearing in court and full consideration are severally refused, because they do not possess the qualifications required by law. For cause. Applicants for bottles' licenses—Joseph Litchner, 30 Webster avenue, Eleventh ward, Pittsburg; J. B. Schmidt, 22 Vine street, Eleventh ward; Fred Galtich, 2111 Shuman street, Twelfth ward; John Huran, 26 Tenth street, Twelfth ward; J. J. Jones, 2111 Vine street, Twelfth ward; Fred Galtich, 2111 Shuman street, Twelfth ward; James Fallon, Juniper and East streets, Eleventh ward; William (Lepenstein), 489 Plumer street, seventeenth ward; George (Lepenstein), 1181 North street, William (Lepenstein), Peter Myers, Patrick O'Neil, Nineteenth ward; Joseph Miller, Patrick O'Neil, Nineteenth ward; Peter M. Tweedle, Twenty-first ward; Louis Miller, Thirty-fifth ward; Fritz Schellinger, Thirty-fifth ward; John M. Caldwell, Allegheny, First ward; Robert (Lepenstein), J. H. Ross, First ward; R. J. Ford, Thirtieth ward; Albert F. Pitzke, Robert (Lepenstein), Thirtieth ward; Albert F. Pitzke, Robert (Lepenstein), Thirtieth ward; Robert O. Henderson, Millin township.

FINE HEALTHY SKIN. Cure of a Distressing Skin Disease Gratefully Acknowledged by a New York Gentleman. My little grandson having been cured of an eruption by the CUTICURA, I was prevailed upon by my wife and daughter to try it myself. A distressing skin eruption had been the basis of my life for twenty years.

Cuticura Remedies. Words can scarcely do justice to the esteem in which these great skin cures, blood purifiers, and greatest of humors remedies are held by those who have found them the only relief and speedy cure for skin, scalp and blood diseases which have rendered their sufferers miserable by reason of unsightly disfigurement and great physical suffering. CUTICURA cleanses the blood by reason of its purifier internally (to cleanse the blood of all impurities and thus remove the cause of the eruption), and externally (to clear the skin and scalp and restore the hair), and enters all the pores of the skin, scalp, and blood, with its action, from infancy to age, from pimples to scrofula.

THE CAUSE EXPLAINED. Why So Many Weak Men and Women are Seen on Our Streets To-day. There seem to be more weak, debilitated and broken down people in America to-day than ever before in the history of this country. It is a fact that the American people are growing weaker, or it is due to some local cause. There can be little doubt that it is owing almost entirely to the fearful after effects of the Grip. This terrible and mysterious complaint, starting unaccountably and running severely, invariably leaves the person in a weak, nervous and run down condition, from which it requires much time to recover. When people are in such a state, when nature is weak and broken, what would common sense and prudence do? Precisely what physicians say should be done, viz: assist nature, stimulate her lagging faculties, build her up. How? By using a pure medicinal stimulant and for this purpose there is nothing equal to pure whiskey. Doctors, scientists and the leading thinkers of the land have declared this and have unhesitatingly agreed that there is no remedy so pure and efficient as Duffy's Pure Malt. It stimulates healthily and builds up wasted tissues. It restores the nervous organization and assists to health. It is popular because it is so efficient. Great care should be taken, however, to secure only the genuine. Distrust any dealer who for any reason seeks to induce you to buy something "just as good." By the judicious use of this pure medicinal stimulant, the after effects of the Grip may be removed and health and strength put in place of weakness and debility. Forty-five highest awards have been received by Duffy's Pure Malt from different international exhibitions for its purity and other goods. Superior Plasters have many competitors but no rival. It is not a nostrum. Get the Genuine.

THE trial of the Rev. A. E. Sutherland, charged in the United States Court with writing and denouncing improper matter in the mail, was held at this term of court. Many prominent clergymen from the eastern part of the State were here to testify in the case. The case was postponed by agreement of the attorneys. WILLIAM J. FRYER yesterday entered suit against the Imperial Coal Company for $200 damages. Fryer states that he owns land in Root and Upper St. Clair townships, the coal under which is owned by the defendants. They mined out the coal, he claimed, and removed the supports, causing the surface to sink and crack, and destroy the springs, etc. JUDGE H. A. WYLLIE, Indiana county, presided yesterday in Room No. 2 of Common Pleas No. 2. He is here assisting Judge Ewing during the absence of Judge White, of this county, who is taking a rest. The case before him yesterday was that of Gemmill Breitenbreit & Co. against the Diamond Lumber Company, an action on a note. It still is on trial.

THE Ladies Delighted. The pleasant effect and the perfect safety with which ladies may use the liquid fruit laxative, Syrup of Figgs, under all conditions, make it their favorite remedy. It is pleasing to the eye and to the taste, gentle yet effectual in acting on the kidneys, liver and bowels. BRACE UP. There is a prodigious number of persons who fancy they are slow at the reins and are now. All they really need is a dose of St. Patrick's Pills to cleanse and renovate their system. It would do them more good than a dose of any of your blood purifiers. For sale at all druggists.
