When a Motion to Suspend the Rules has been made and defeated no similar motion can be entertained the same day if a single member objects.

Mr. Cochrane, of Armstrong, moved to add a proviso that physicians should in no case be considered employees.

Mr. Lytle said that the amendment should be passed. To give up their passes was a bitter pill, but the members should swallow it.

Mr. Cochrane withdrew his amendment, but Mr. Keyser immediately renewed it, and an interminable discussion began.

Mr. Senner characterized the proceedings as outrageous. The farmers and laborers demanded this bill, and the Legislature had been in session all winter and had done nothing.

Mr. Senner said the charge was false and the speaker called both to order. Mr. Lytle charged Mr. Gilliam himself with talk to the effect that he had no objection to it.
