In an interview with Mr. William Camp bell, of the Fifth avenue firm of Campbell & Dick, the following facts were elicited as to the dry goods trade. In many important lines trade was restricted and delayed in the early spring, by reason of the prevailing pidemic. The showings for March and the renter part of April were not up to last greater parton spin when not up to may year as regards volume of trade. In the line of carpets and other house furnishing goods, the grip held trade back a month be-hind its usual time. Orders for goods were in many cases put off on account of sickness in the homes, rendering it impossible to furnish the dwellings. In the line of dress, goods and bonnets the senson was kept back longer than usual for the reasons that Easter came unusually early this year and was followed by a spell of chilly weather.

A Revival in Drygoods.

By reason of these adverse circumstances there is a surplus of the heavy-weight dress goods, which were on hand when trade was at its worst. In the past two weeks trade at he worst. In the past two weeks trace has opened up lively, and lighter weight fabrics have the call. Drygoods merchants could hardly anticipate the two impertant items, namely, the grip and backward spring, and hecause of their lack of prophetic knowledge, will be forced to carry over unkil wiedge, will be forced to carry over unail or convenient senson a surplus of heavy-hit fabrics in the line of dress goods. the past two weeks there has been such coised improvement in the drygoods a, that there is now no longer any doubt volume will be fully up to hast year, and ome cases where special efforts were c an intrease is reported. Since May there has been such a rush for goods as suce more than a full average soring

Day there has been such a rush for goods as to insure more than a full average spring trade, and there are no signs as yet of a letter that there are no signs as yet of a letter to the rush. Light dress good fabrics and household decorations are in such demand that there are no fears of a surplus to be carried over. The drygoods merchant whose faith in light disappointed this season, though a month ago has faith may have been terribly sinken.

There is little change in prices of drygoods as compared with last season, notwithstand-ing the McKinley bill. Imported goods have not materially changed in cost. Foreign manufacturers are determined to hold the American trade, and representatives from the German and French manufactories have been diligently at work for the past few months to hold our trade by refew months to hold our trade by re-fucing prices so as to compete with finnestic goods. The decline in price of fine wools has been to the advantage of the oreign manufacturer, so that there is very ittle difference in price of imported goods is compared with last year. In some lines of dress goods there has been an advance of the best body brussels carpet has advanced as peryard, and other grades not more than be per yard. Many of the light tapostries for the same in price as they were before he like of silks prices were never as low as he line of silks prices were never as low as now, and with the exception of a few high insy novelties, all the silks handled by our hygoods' firms are manufactured in this

As to Styles Prevailing.

Graves the fashionable color in the line of y's dress goods this season. Lansdowne, datety fabric of slik warp, and wool filling svery popular. Cashmeres, henrietta and light-weight cloths are also in good demand. shades of gray run from almost white eel shades. Next to the gray are the tan is in popularity. The latter were most gue last sensan, but at this date gray colors are on the grin. In the line of carpets the present fashion runs to neutral shade effects. The style for the last year or two has been in favor of highly covered carpets. But of late fashion has grown more modest, and quieter styles are in vogue this season.

There were some reports of crop damage by lice in Missouri, but the main strength came from corn and wheat and from "shorts" who bought freely. Provisions were raided early by shorts. The result was a recession of 224c in the price of July pork, which suffered the brunt of the attack: of 25 in July lard, and of 75 in July ribs, from the opening. Later, in sympathy with grains, there was a rally to a point slightly above the opening, closing at medi-um figures.

He Who Runs May Read. It needs but ordinary eyes to perceive that business is improving. Evidence of this is seen in the stores, in the mills and on the streets. In all lines of trade, the volume of transactions is steadily growing. Easy money favors the upward drift, and is a strong incentive to expansion. There are no fears of a financial stringency, even in the face of heavy gold shipments. Europe will want wheat, corn, flour and pork next fall, and this will insure the return of the gold that is now being sent over. NEW YORK, May 12.—The stock market again hesifated to-day, and there was a re-newal of the selling pressure on a limited scale, while the buying, which was so marked a feature of yesterday's trading, was entirely lacking. lacking. Under the circumstances process dropped, and in some cases declined materi-ally. The principal cause for the check to the upward movement is to be found in the disquieting news from abroad, the London and continental bourses being depressed through heavy sales of Portuguese and Spanish securities, which brought every-tiling else along with them to some extent. There were further emagements of gold, but these were not of such magnitude as to cause any decline of note and the hesitation is to be traced to the fear of further finan-cial complications abroad, which will neces-sitate a further call upon us for funds. The favorable items in the situation are all to be found in this country and the situation in the stock market hinges upon the probabili-ties of a further withdrawal of gold in the neor future or a return of some of that al-ready sent. Until this uncertainty is re-moved, therefore, the general expectation is for a feverish and unsettled market, with little animation outside of the leading stocks, which are not in the hands of cliques. COUNTRY PRODUCE - (Jobbing Prices) -Supply of nearby eggs is limited, but South-ern stock abounds. For the former demand is active at outside quotations, while South-ern stock is quiet. Elgin creamery butter is weaker and lower prices are expected by the last of the week. Country butter is arriving in larger quantities than the market has capacity to absorb and the drift is toward lower prices. Beceinta of pointers lower prices. Receipts of potatoes are large, but choice stock is steady at quotations. There is a fair supply of Virginia and Tennessee strawberries and outside price is 5c per quart. Over-ripe berries were sold co-day as low as 6c to 8c per quart. The to day as low as do to be per quark. The frost on Monday night gave an additional chill to the prospects for a good yield of home strawberries. little animation outside of the leading stocks, which are not in the hands of cliques. Early advices from London this morning reported a panidxy feeling there, and the same was reported of Paris, and at the open-ing of our market, London was a seller to a moderate extent, making a feverish and lower opening, the losses from last night's figures extending to X per cent. There was, however, an undertone of strength left in the market, and most of the opening loss was regained in the early trading; but the lack of buyers soon made itself felt, and a droop-ing tendency became prevalent, which carried prices down again, and they re-mained below the level of the opening for the rest of the day. The Industrials were again prominent in the market, taking second rank to the Grangers; but Sugar was decidedly weak and Cordage only little less so. The steady decline in prices reached material propor-tions toward the delivery hour, when an effort to cover shorts made a slight rally in the market. The only strong point in the list during the day was the Wheeling and Lake Erie preferred stocks, which are alone this evening in showing a small advance. The market finally closed quiet but weak, at or about the bottom prices. Everything, with the one exception noted, is lower, and sugar declined 24; C Chicago, Columbus, Chi-cimati and St. Louis, Rock Island and Louis-ville, 1%; Pacific Mail and Union Pacific, 1%; Atchison, Northwestern, St. Paul and North-ern Pacific preferred, 1%; Burlington, 1%; and New England, 1 per cent. ### Business Drops Off on Unfavorable Outside News, but Values Not Affected For the Worse-Everything Firm and Some Stocks Higher.

The disquieting nature of the news from abroad yesterday had a tendency to clip the wings of speculation and hold things down almost to the dead level of stagnation. London was feverish and New York showed a reactionary tendency. The Paris Bourse was panicky owing to the Portuguese affairs. As Pittsburg depends more or less upon Exchange and Currency a Little Shortthe East for stimulus, and there being none Local monetary affairs moved along smoothly yesterday, with no new features and no pressure in any direction. The sup-

the East for stimulus, and there being none to spare, trading here was very light. The last call was cut short to allow brokers to attend the meeting of the Chartiers Gas Company. Total sales were 160 shares, con-tributed by Manchester Traction and Pleasant Valley. It might be inferred from the above that prices followed the trend of business, but such was not the case. The Tractions were all stronger, the natural gassers held their own, and Luster. Hidalgo and Standard Underground Cable improved their position. Manufacturers' Gas was bid up a fraction. In most cases final prices were the best of the day.

In most cases final prices were the best of the day. There were no dealings in Electric here and only a modernto movement at Boston. Here it opened at 15% bid and closed at 15% Early offorings were at 15%, later advanced to 16, and closed at 15%. At Boston it closed offered at 15%, with 15% bid. The last sale there was at 15%. The difference between the two points was too narrow for stalping. In the still undigested condition of the cir-cular and the doubt in some quarters as to the outcome of the reorganization plan, it is considered somewhat risky to go short on the stock. The bulk of the business is due to covering in the effort to be on the safe side. This disposition has been quickened by the advance since the circular was made public.

duirements, and inters were easy at 050000 per cent, the outside figure being excep-tional. There was some complaint of a searcity of New York exchange, but currency was also in request. A cashier said: "The demand for exchange is caused by country banks shipping in and by city banks hoarding it as much as possible to keep up their balances in New York." Clearing House exchanges were $149,847 73 and balances $377,725 cs. From the compliation of Robert G. Stoney, Jr., it appears that the aggregate surplus of Pitteburg's 27 national banks is $6,339,726; un-divided profits, $1,351,631, or total of $7,601,339, being an ingrease, as compared with state-ments of May 17, 1890, of $641,942. Two of the banks have a surplus of more than double the amount of their capital; two others have a surplus larger than, and three equal to their respective capitals. At New York yesterday money on call was easy, ranging from 4 to 5 per cent; hast loan, 4; closed offered at 2. Prime mercantile paper, $67. A broker talked in this vein: "There was, no doubt, an attempt made, in the early stage of Mr. Westinghonso's negotiations, on the part of certain parties identified with rival companies to buy up all the common stock and wipe out the Westinghouse Com-pany; but it miscarried. Having built up the concern, and his business reputation being staked on its success, Mr. Westing-house rejected all overtures looking to ab-sorption or amalgamation, and steadily la-bored to sustain the autonomy and high character of the company, and I think he has succeeded.
