CAPT. LOAR INDICTED.

The Grand Jury Finds True Bills Against All but One Deputy.

BADLY BEATEN BY EVICTED HUNS.

Claims Made That the Backbone of the Strike Has Been Broken.

LIVE NEWS FROM THE THREE STATES

[SPECIAL TELEGRAMS TO THE DISPATCH.]

SCOTTDALE, May 15.—The news of the indictment of Captain J. A. Loar and his deputies by the grand jury at Greensburg was received here to-day with a great deal of rejoicing on the part of the strikers. They did not fail to express their satisfaction, and the hope that conviction would follow the indictment. Steve Cairns was the only deputy against whom the grand jury did not find an indictment.

An Italian deputy named Tony and a companion started to go from Leith to Redstone this morning, where they had been assigned to duty by Sheriff McCormick. When just above Leith they were set upon by a mob of Huns and terribly beaten. Tony was knocked down and beaten with clubs and stones. He attempted to draw his revolver, but the spring caught and emptied all the cartridges into his pocket. The Huns took his revolver, watch and $100 in money which he had in his pocket. They afterward gave back the watch and revolver, but kept the money. Tony's companion fared better, getting of with a few bruises.

They Were Evicted Tenants.

The Huns who made the assault were recently evicted from the company's houses in Leith, and were quartered on the land of Mr. Dixon near by. The mob dispersed after committing the assault, but they threatened that like treatment will be visited upon the "blackleg" deputies.

New men continue to take the places of strikers. Two special trains were run into the region to-day. One to the Youngwood district and the other to southern points in Fayette county. The labor leaders did not succeed in shipping many of the men away to-day but claim they will send out a great number to-morrow.

The large double block dwelling house burned at Leisenring No. 3 last night is claimed by some people to have been fired by strikers. The guards saw men running away from the building just as soon as the fire was discovered but could not catch them. Oil was used to start the fire. Arrests are likely to follow. The loss is fully covered by insurance.

Deserting the Strikers.

The Union and Eagle plants which started yesterday are reported as receiving an increase of a number of men from the ranks of the strikers. Forty of the Italians brought to the region yesterday were left at the latter plant. A careful estimate of ovens fired up shows that fully 4,000 of the ovens of the region are now in blast. When it is remembered that the demand for coke prior to the shutdown only required the running of 60 per cent or 9,000 of the ovens it will be apparent to the reader how near the strike is broken.

Labor leaders are having a sorry time with the 11 families evicted at the Valley and quartered here in the third story of the Opera house. The insurance company gave notice this morning that the families must be removed or the insurance policies would be cancelled. The families were at once removed to an unused house on the land of the Charlotte Furnace Company. They had no sooner been there until the furnace company gave notice that they could not remain there. Lumber has been purchased, and a plank house will be erected for them to-morrow.

SEVERAL HISTORIC FLAGS.

An Unexpected Find in a Closet of the Adjutant General's Office.

HARRISBURG, May 15.—An unused closet in connection with the Adjutant General's office, when overlooked to-day, developed a surprise for that official. In addition to old books and papers of interest, there was found stored away a headquarters flag, white field, with the figure 4 in red in the center. No one seems to be able to tell to whom it belongs or what it represents. There were also two United States regulation flags, one marked "First Regiment Volunteers, National Guards of Pennsylvania," and the other "Seventh Regiment Infantry, N. G. P. of Pa." The former belonged to the provisional regiment organized by Governor Hartranft during the summer of 1877, and which was on duty for three months in Luzerne county. The Colonel of the regiment was Hartley Howard, and the Adjutant was George Hersh, now deceased, both of Pittsburg. The flag is in good condition.

The Seventh Regiment was disbanded by Governor Hoyt July 8, 1881, and its flag found in such an unexpected manner is somewhat worn. By far the most interesting find was a Pennsylvania State flag. From data obtained it proved to have been especially made for the occasion of the consecration of the National Cemetery at Gettysburg November 19, 1863. It is said Mr. Lincoln held this flag by the staff while speaking at the dedication.

THE ROYAL ARCANUM ADJOURNS.

A Party of Six Hundred Delegates and Friends Visit Gettysburg.

CHAMBERSBURG, May 15.—The Grand Council of the Royal Arcanum of Pennsylvania adjourned finally at a late hour last night to meet at Williamsport, Pa., in 1893. To-day the representatives and their families, making a party of 600, visited the Gettysburg battlefield and returned here this evening. In the closing session a resolution was adopted stating that it was the opinion of the council that the status of fraternal beneficial societies should be carefully determined by the passage of a bill in the Legislature fairly defining them, and that this could only be accomplished by the united action of all such societies in the State.

The Grand Regent was instructed to address bodies of whatever kind in Pennsylvania. Regarding the proposed legislation, the Grand Regent was also empowered to call district conventions at certain times and places, the expense to be borne by the Grand Council.

OHIO WOMAN SUFFRAGISTS.

Their Annual Convention Closes With the Election of Officers.

WARREN, O., May 15.—A three days session of the annual meetings of the Ohio Woman's Suffrage Association concluded here to-day. The most noted speakers of the woman's political enfranchisement has been on the programme, including Miss Susan B. Anthony, Rev. Olympia Brown and Rev. Anna Shaw. Officers were elected as follows: President, Mrs. C. McCullough Everhard, of Massillon; Vice President, at Large, Mrs. Elwell, of Willoughby; Recording Secretary, Mrs. Claypole, of Akron; Corresponding Secretary, Miss Folger, of Massillon; Treasurer, Mrs. Coit, of Columbus; Auditor, Mrs. Rossa, of Cleveland; member of the National Executive Committe of Ohio, Mrs. Harriet Taylor Upton, of Warren.

TO CORRECT A FALSE TITLE.

How James Wilson Lost His Farm in Clay County, Nebraska.

ZANESVILLE, May 15.—Depositions are now being taken in this city to be used in a rather peculiar case to be tried in Clay county, Nebraska. Several years ago James C. Wilson, of New Concord, purchased 320 acres of land in the above named county. He visited the place last November, and was surprised to learn that a deed had been filed conveying the property to W. T. Moore, and he in turn had sold it to S. O. Hart.

He had never made such a deed, and never met Mr. Moore. The names of himself and wife were forged, and pretended to have been acknowledged before John W. King, a prominent attorney of this city. The records indicate that Mr. King was not an attorney at that time. The suit is brought to correct the title.

Youthful Colored Incendiary.

WHEELING, May 15.—This afternoon a colored boy named Edward Thomson, alias Ed Payne, set fire to a stable in Alley B, which endangered the Stifel Bank and necessitated the sending of two alarms. The stable belonged to George Matthews, and Payne had frequently threatened to burn it. He was arrested and committed to jail in default of $10,000 bail.

Relic of the Johnstown Flood.

JOHNSTOWN, May 15.—Last evening a gentleman, while walking along under the stone bridge, picked up a small clock, no doubt a relic of the flood. The clock was a handsome affair, and must have cost a considerable sum of money.

EVANGELIST CHURCH MISSIONS.

The Biennial Conference of the Missionary Society Closes Its Session.

CANTON, May 15.—The biennial Conference of the Missionary Society of the Evangelist Church adjourned to-day after electing the following officers: President, Mrs. A. V. Hunter, Columbia City, Ind.; First Vice President, Mrs. F. I. Shook, Selina Grove, Pa.; Second Vice President, Mrs. A. M. Stewart, Peabody, Kan.; Recording Secretary, Mrs. H. Belmer, Brighton station, Cincinnati, O.; Corresponding Secretary, Miss M. H. Morris, 406 North Green street, Baltimore, Md.; Treasurer, Mrs. A. V. Mamma, Los Angeles, Cal.; Historian, Miss Emma B. Schell, Baltimore, Md.

Executive Committee, Mesdames S. F. Breckenridge, E. S. Prince, Ross, Mitchell, L. A. Gotwald, D. H. Buslin, J. L. Kissell, Miss Josie Thomas, Springfield, O.; Mesdames T. T. Belmer, Brookville, O.; D. A. Buhler, Gettysburg, Pa.; A. V. Hunter, Columbia City, Ind.; Joseph Gephart, Dayton, O.; J. Renner, Springfield, O.; O. Keysey, Springfield, O. The next meeting will be held at Omaha, Neb.

FOUND DEAD IN THE RIVER.

Four Men and Four Women Charged With Killing a West Virginia Man.

HUNTINGTON, May 15.—Yesterday's dispatches contained the announcement that the dead body of a man had been found floating in the river at Catlettsburg. This morning a brother of T. R. Watts went to Catlettsburg and identified the remains as those of his brother, returning with the evidence of foul play. The authorities set to work and this evening they arrested Wayne Tillinghast and Kirk Willis, charged with the murder, and Harris Davis and Edward Wells and four women inmates of a shanty boat as being accessories to the crime.

Another young man, also charged with the murder, escaped to Ohio. The arrests have stirred up the wildest excitement and the most sensational developments are promised, it being claimed by the authorities that the murder was the result of a conspiracy which will involve a number of other parties.

THE STANDARD IN AKRON.

A Deal by Which the Company Enters a New Field for Its Product.

AKRON, May 15.—The Standard Oil Company has closed an important deal here that marks an era in the Standard's career, Akron being the only station in the United States in which the trust has not gone directly into the field and controlled the sale of its own product. By the deal just made Senator Alexander sells his warehouse, the driveway out to College and Mill street, the land west of the warehouse and the good will of a 16 years' business for $20,000.

The Standard takes possession at once, and will build an office on Mill street, and several big tanks just north of the newly-purchased warehouse.

WITHDREW FROM THE UNION.

The Strike of the Youngstown Carpenters May Now Be Settled.

YOUNGSTOWN, May 15.—After a session lasting nearly the entire day the Carpenters' Union decided by ballot to withdraw from the Building Trades Council. This action is regarded virtually as a settlement of the carpenters' strike which has been in progress here.

The move was decided upon because the association of contractors agreed to meet them in conference provided they withdrew from the trades union, otherwise they refused to even talk of compromise.

TOO DRY FOR PLANTING.

Cambria County Farmers Fear That Crops Will Be Poor.

JOHNSTOWN, May 15.—The ground in this section is exceedingly dry and great injury has been done to the farmers. The work of planting and seeding has been suspended, the farmers being afraid to put the seed in such dry ground. Crops that were put in three weeks ago have not yet shown up and it is feared they have rotted.

There will certainly be a short crop of hay as the grass is so far back it cannot mature properly.

Tri-State Brevities.

JOSEPH JACKSON, charged with wife murder at Johnstown, has been held for trial.

THE 120 carpenters of Uniontown went out on strike yesterday, except a few who are working at union wages.

MRS. JANE BOWMAN was killed in a runaway accident near Greensburg Thursday evening. She was 45 years old and leaves a family.

CONSIDERABLE excitement has been caused at New Brighton, Pa., by the disappearance of a 4-year-old son of John Couch, a well-known furniture dealer of that place.

IN a fight near Farmington, W. Va., Thursday night, John Pyles shot and killed John Fast. Both men were prominent farmers, and a feud has existed between them for years, due to domestic difficulties.

GLEN CAMERON, employed at the yards of the Ft. Wayne road at Canton, had three ribs broken and was internally injured by being squeezed between two cars loaded with bridge iron, which extended over the ends.

CONTRACTOR SHILLINGER, who signed the union scale on Thursday, was surprised yesterday by a walking delegate of the Carpenters' Union compelling his men to leave the job by reason of a non-union plumber being employed on same building.

UNDER FALSE COLORS.

A Woman Who Sought to Impose Upon Chicago's Poor Authorities.

CHICAGO, May 15.—A woman giving her name as Mrs. George S. Bond and claiming to be the eldest daughter of ex-Governor Marcy, of New York, is in this city seeking transportation to her girlhood's home. She is a middle aged woman and has evidently been handsome, though years of poverty and irregular life have left their marks upon her. She proffered her request to the county agent. Her story was somewhat rambling, and she refused to give the address of friends whom she said she had in New York. This cast suspicion on her story, and assistance was refused.

A dispatch from New York says that the only daughter of ex-Governor Marcy died several years ago.

THE Powers of Europe, not content to support enormous armies of trained men, have begun to teach dogs the art of war. An account of wonderful results in THE DISPATCH to-morrow.

A NEW RAILROAD BRIDGE.

The St. Paul Secures a Large Piece of River Property in Omaha.

OMAHA, May 15.—The Rock Island Railroad Company has transferred to the Chicago, Milwaukee and St. Paul a half interest in a $200,000 tract in South Omaha, including depot grounds and right of way to the river.

The tract extends from the present terminus of the Rock Island, at Allright, to the river. It is probable that this is to be the site of the bridge spoken of by President Cable several weeks ago.

Brass and Iron, $15, With Spring.

6½x3 ft. $15. 6½x3½ ft. $15. 6½x4 ft. $15. 6½x4½ ft. $15.

We anticipate a large demand for this brass and iron bedstead. It has all the beauty of outline and good proportion of the brass bedstead, with the cheapness of the iron bedstead, and will last a lifetime. The balls and upper cross-bars are of richly burnished brass. The remainder, including slats, is of iron in a durable enameled finish of black, ivory-white, maroon, steel-grey, pink or robin's egg blue.

The soft ivory-white and lustrous brass, with pure and spotless bed-clothing, make an especially beautiful and effective combination. Our price cannot help but be satisfactory. If contemplating the purchase of either a brass or iron bed, do not delay giving us your order. The manufacturer we represent is running night and day to fill his orders.

THEY COME OUR WAY!

Yes, the dollars have been rolling our way at a very rapid gait during this past two weeks, especially in our department of

MEN'S FINE SUITS.

Our great May Sale which has been a special feature of our business all this week and last will close on Saturday Night next, and will pass into the history of our house as one of the most successful we ever conducted.

If money saved be money earned, then we have afforded an elegant opportunity for the people to earn quite a snug sum during this sale, for every buyer who has visited our house this past week or so has secured genuine bargains in fine clothing and furnishings.

OUR SPACE IS LIMITED,

And so in plain, unvarnished language we say, come and see us before you spend one cent for a new spring outfit and let us demonstrate to your satisfaction that we can save you money if you will let us.

IMMENSE LINE OF GRAND ARMY SUITS.
$6 50 TO $15 00.

"The Life and Deeds of General Sherman," a large cloth-bound book finely illustrated still goes free with every sale of $10 and up in Men's Clothing.

GUSKY'S,
300 TO 400 MARKET STREET.

THE BEST CLOTHING.

We are getting our hands fuller and fuller of trade. But we haven't got half nor quarter what we want.

Whether we multiply our trade two or twenty fold, we shall sell but one sort of clothing, and that is the best. When we can't sell reliable clothing we shall quit the business.

We don't believe in half-wool. We don't believe in shoddy. We don't believe in killing good quality by mean workmanship. Nor do you.

For that reason we want your trade.

Find out the quality when you buy; find it out from the manufacturer of the clothing, who knows; and to do that you must find the house that manufactures the goods it sells; that will bring you to Sixth and Penn.

You'll always be able to find out quality from us; and get the lowest price.
