Knights of Labor Begin Their Convention at Scottdale.

Mad Hungarians Attack Deputy Sheriffs at Scottdale.

LIVE NEWS FROM THE THREE STATES

[SPECIAL TELEGRAMS TO THE DISPATCH.] Scottpale, May 10.—The Knights of Labor special convention convened to-day, with 72 delegates. The sessions are secret, and none but delegates of labor are admitted. The day was entirely consumed in the approving of credentials, appointing committees and paring reports from delegrates. The reports so far given in are largely in favor of entinuing the strike if an honorable commise cannot be secured. A Conciliation Committee was appointed, consisting of Hay, besmen and Corrigan, who called on General Managers Lynch and Brennen, of the Friek and McClure Coke companies.

Both gentlemen, in reply to their request for a compremise, told them the sliding-scale posted on the 24th of March, and under which they are now running their works, was the only scale of wages they would consider under any circumstances, and that it needed no conference. Any of their empioyes had the liberty to return to work under it until the works were running full. Failing to necomplish anything more, the committee reported to the convention as instructed. To-morrow's work will determine unmittee was appointed, consisting of ructed. To-morrow's work will determine he future course in the strike, but that it rill be continued is a foregone conclusion. A Scene of Wild Excitement. Scottdale has been the scene of the wildes excitement all afternoon. Hundreds of miners are gathered here to get the news of the convention. Shortly afternoon a colored an, who is cooking for the Italians at the Valley works, came to town and announced Valley works, came to town and announced his intention of killing Master Workman Wise for calling him a blackleg. A crowd of about 500 Poles and Hungarians hearing of the man's threats got excited and vowed they would lynch him. A house on Grant avenue, in which he took refuge, was surrounded, and if it had not been for the timely interference of the police murder would have been committed.

The colored way had just been spirited.

would have been committed.

The colored man had just been spirited away, when Isane Cossell, a man charged with being a blackleg at the Summit mines, appeared in the crowd, and the foreigners, aiready crazed with excitement and drink, made for Cossell with a rush. Cossell threw himself into the arms of the police and begged for protection. The police doubtless would not have been able to protect him and not James McGuire, one of the labor enders, sprung to the front, and waved the excited men back sufficiently to get Cossell out of the crowd and into the Scottdale ficuse, from where he was also spirited tway.

Attacked the Deputies, had lardly been dispersed when sovered William Dixon, chief of the eputy sheriffs at Jimtown, and Daniel Mebonald, deputy from Sterling works, in the rowd. This infuriated them again, and hey all turned on the two deputies with tones, razors and clubs. McDonald went own after the first few licks and Dixon, eeing the danger they were in, drew his resolver and fired. The shot hit one of the iders in the shoulder, and for a few monent stopped the rush. The deputies then nade their escape and made for Everson, an were followed and overtaken and beaten y the mob anmercifully, and would have seen killed had not the police followed up nd rescued them. They were brought to he lockup and held antil this evening, and no one appearing to make information gainst them, and the authorities believing he shooting was done in solf-defense, gave hem their liberty. During the rioting Maser Workman Wise was cailed down out of he convention to help quiet his infuriated cople, but he refused, and said: "Let the urs who excited them do the quieting," and went back to the hall. sheriffs at Jimtown, and Daniel Mc curs who excited them do the quieting, and went back to the hall.

The Frick and McClure people claim large mains in men to-day, and fired a number of colid ovens. Over 200 more new men were brought into the region to-day. The open brand, or old N. P. U. men, made application to the R. of L. officers yesterday through their President, Joseph Welsh, to have representation in the convention to-day. He was refused, and to-day, with all his union at the Valley Works, returned to work.

THE BEAVER RIVER DRY.

The New Dam at Beaver Falls Stops All the Mills Below. BEAVER FALLS, May 19 .- Last night the final opening of the new dam being constructed across the Beaver river at this place was closed. To-day the pool is being filled, but the result is there is no water in the Beaver river from this place to the mouth of the river at Rochester. It will take several days to fill the pool, and in the meantime all the factories from here to Rochester that depend upon the water as a motive power must be idle. It is thought the shutting off of the water will not destroy the water power, as there is ample supply in the dams below here, also in the deep holes is the river lead.

The nool made by the new dam will reach from beer to Rock Point, a distance of seven unles, and will be used for pleasure boats, furnish water for the Union Water Company, which will supply all the towns in the Beaver Valley, and other purposes.

GARRISON IN HIS OWN DEFENSE.

He Says He Believed His Life Was in Danger When He Fired.

WHEELING, May 19.-Dr. George I. Garrison went on the stand in the murder case this afternoon. He detailed the shooting of Dr. Baird, prefacing it with the statement that he believed his life was in danger from Dr. Baird, and on Eleventh street, when Dr. Baird applied the epithets to him, and he heard him coming, had turned and fred. On cross-examination, be said that he had armed himself after learning of a threat from Dr. Baird, and in cold weather, when he had to have his coat buttoned up, he always had his pistol in his coat pocket, and when he had reason to expect he would when he had reason to expect he would race Dr. Baird, he took his glove off, so that he could grasp his pistol quickly.

He said he often had his hands on his pistol when Dr. Baird applied epithets to him, and had no reason or desire to conceal that state of affairs. Court then adjourned until to-motrow morning. Baird applied the epithets to him, and he o-morrow morning.

Eastern Bondholders Begin Action for Foreclosure of Mortgage.

ZANESVILLE, May 19.—The Mercantile Trust Company, of New York, trustee for Gilders, Farr & Co. and other New York bondholders, began an action in Common Pleas Court re to-day to forcelose their mortgage for 5,000 against the Zanesville, Mt. Vernon see against the Zanesville, Mt. Vernon and Marion Ballway Company, because of default in the payment of interest. Beside valuable right of way franchise, the company owns a belt line around this city for which any of the roads centering here will pay a good round price.

FOUND DEAD IN A HUT.

An Ohio School Mistress Who Disappeared Two Weeks Ago,

Manys, O., May 19.-What is either a cold premeditated murder or a case of selfection has just come to light near Willshire, a village twenty miles north of this city. Daisy Reynolds, a school mistress, aged 23, was found this morning in an old uninhabited negro but, in a lonely forest, after having been missing from her home Her body was in an emaclated condition, and there were no marks of violence visible. The case is shrouded in mystery and is being

BUTLER'S ORPHAN SCHOOL.

The Commissioners, Despite Protests, Will Remove It to Uniontown.

TLEE, May 19.-The Soldiers' Orphans' BITTIAN, May 19.—The Soldiers' Orphans' school Commissioners examined the school here to-day. A. G. Reed, of Butler Post, G. A. B., met the Commissioners and protested against the moving of the school from here to Uniontown, Pa. The Commissioners replied that they had neted deliberately and that the transfer would be made.

They also stated that next year the number of schools would be reduced to two, as at that time there would only be about 600 soldiers' orphans in the schools.

The Shippen-Lay Homicide. TIONESTA, May 19 .- The Shippen-Lay homicide case came up this forenoon and the entire day was consumed in selecting a jury. Forty-five jurors were called. The defense used up 13 of their peremptory challenges and the Commonwealth two.

Strikers Think That He and His Dop GREENSBURG, May 19.—The trial of Captain THE COKE COMPANIES ARE FIRM. J. A. Loar and deputies, who are charged with the killing of the 11 strikers at More wood, was begun in the Criminal Court here wood, was begun in the Criminal Court need this afternoon. The defense is conducted by Moorhead and Head, and the prosecution by Hon. J. S. Beacom. But little time was consumed in the selection of a jury, which consumed in the selection of a Jury, which is an intelligent one, and made up of representative gentlemen. Nothing very startling was developed through the witnesses heard this afternoon. They only knew the strikers were killed, and the deputies fired the shots that ended their existence.

H. C. Frick was at the counsel table during the selection of the Jury. The impression prevails among some of the strikers that the trial will be very brief, and that the defendants will be acquitted in short order. The names of the defendants are J. A. Loar, Harry Wilson, Richard Burns, Lewis Davis, Cary Brown, Horan Reese, Jacob Zundie, Harry Gilbert, Miles Haun, Elmer Nichols and Jesse Pourger.

Been Hurt Much. Tony Barcky, the fruit dealer, yesterda received a telegram from an Eastern agent to the effect that the fruit crop in Delaware and Maryland will be very heavy this year. The foliage on the peach trees is very thick, and protected the fruit from the frost. Mr. Barcky says that when the crops are good in these two States that a supply of the best fruit for this market is always assured.

"As for the grape outlook," he continued, "it is too early to make predictions. Last year the grapes were fully formed, when suddenly some disease struck them and they dried up. You are never sure of a grape until you eat it. I don't think the frost the other night hurt the grapes very much. I have a grapevine in my yard, and I noticed this morning that it was spry and full of life. The local crop never amounts to much, anyhow. We depend for our grapes on New York and the districts along the lakes. Within 20 miles of Cleveland any amount of grapes are raised annually. The reports from Ohio and New York so far are very favorable, and nobody need be afraid of a scarcity of grapes." eccived a telegram from an Eastern agen
