

is freely expressed in political and financial The favorite theory seems to be that Marsh has not left the city, but is lying in circles that Bardsley will commit snielde or ran many before the time set for his resignaknown the wait for a favorable opportunity to make bit escrepe for the immediate excitement has subsided. Others, however, are workevery unsvenient made by Mr. Bardsley is being watched clearly by detectives emis in a hiding place known only to his wife. Another notion is that he is gone to New York and is being sheltered by his wife's mother's friends, and color is given to this story by the fact that Mrs. Marsh was a resident of New York at the time Mr. Marsh met her, and that Mrs. Lynch ha just returned from that place, where she vent, presumably, to make arrangements for Marsh's retreat. building, City Controller Thompson, who, with the Mayor, is familiar with every movement that has been made in the pres-ent investigation, when asked to-day if it ment, who has seen upward of 30 years of service in control of many subordinates, told the correspondent of THE DISPATCH crutch, which would furnish a sure means of identification. to-day that the efficiency of the service had increased amazingly since the enactment of the civil service laws, and that where there was one worthless fellow in the service now,

WASHINGTON, May 22 .- Even those department officials who are opposed to the civil service law denounce as infamous the really vicious attacks on the Civil Service

Construction of the shadow which was east on him by the Pope's encyclical has appeared. In his exordium the Pope dilates upon the task while he talks with an air almost approaching cheerfulness. There seems to he no doubt the the task of the church its position toward the existing spectra to the main issue. A leader in the existing spectra to the main issue. A leader in the construction of the task of the church its position toward the task of the main issue. Commission on account of the admission to office of the man Smith involved in the disgrace of Green B. Raum, Jr., and who was There seems to be no doubt that the oppo admitted to office by means of being impersition of his former friends has acted as sort of a stimulus and has developed an conated in a civil service examination by a amount of vitality and fiber which people did not believe Parnell was capable of, much as they knew of his steadfastness of brighter man than himself. It is a matter of history that such impersonations while not impossible, have been surprisingly innot impossible, have been surprisingly in-frequent and very quickly found out. Smith's fraud would not have escaped dis-covery so long as it did had not young Baum given him work in his own room and purpose in his fighting for Ireland's cause. Parnell has received addresses from 30 Na tionalist societies in various parts of the North of Ireland. In reply he said that he fully appreciated such utterances and urged upon them all, as a thing of the last import-ance, that Ireland should continue to uphold then assisted him to conceal his incapacity. An old official of the Treasury Depart her independence.

the father to the thought, for he looks bet-

Socialism May Now Be Read.

omenally there will be little debate and harmonious action. It is not an Assembly that will get heated on any subject. It consists of the thoughtful, level-headed, hard-working pastors of the Church; men who are fearless and are determined to do their whole duty conscientiously, without and abroad, in response to popular demand, and he did not want the scrpent continued of all night accommodations. Secretary Tracgardh was asked what would be done in in the cross, so the subject was passed over for consideration to-morrow morning. Promises of a Fight. Elder Horace E. Simmons read a short

There was loud applause when Dr. George

P. Hays moved that the subject of union with the Protestant Episcopal Church be

AN ALABAMA MINE HORROR.

Ten Colored Convicts and One Free White

Man Killed by Gas.

BIRMINGHAM, ALA, May 22 .- At the Pratt mines to-day an explosion of gas in a shaft where convicts are working killed ten negro convicts and one free miner named

Tom Moore. It is believed the men had in some way knocked off a plank from a door which stood across an old chamber on which the word "gas" was written.

The gas rushed out and caught fire from he lamp. Officers of the company went to the rescue and worked to save the men, but were themselves suffocated and narrowly escaped, being dragged out unconscious. The bodies of the dead have all been re-

ALL the news of Europe in Bright Cable

GENEVA COLLEGE RECOMMENDED.

Pittsburg Pastor's Resolution Adopted by

PHILADELPHIA, May 22 .- At the session of the General Synod of the Reformed

Presbyterian Church of North America to-the Reformed Presbyterians.

Letters in THE DISPATCH to-morrow.

overed.

rear.

this matter. "We will let the Duquesne have that aboved by the State authorities and that he as been subjected to their scrutiny every day for several weeks past.

Employes at the City Hall state that strange men have been seen daily hovering shout the corridor leading to Mr. Bardsley's office, and that they were conspicuous by their absence when Mr. Bardsley left the building. City Controller Thompson, who, was true that detectives were shadowing the City Transurer, responded:

Not Eager to Impart Information.

"I would rather not answer that ques

"Will you say whether these detectives are employed by the city or State?"

"No. I prefer not to say anything about that satisfies. I am willing and anxions that the public shall know everything that is new in regard to the subject, but there are some things which it would be wrong to revalue this stage. It would serve no good purpose, and might do considerable harm." Dirtor hashe day the Controller had a long consultation with the Mayor, but he positively refused to say what the conference was about. Receiver of Taxes Taylor this afternoon met City Solicitor Warwick by appointment, and questioned him as to ather he would have a right to withhold the each of the day's receipts and turn over to the City Treasurer only the checks. Mr. Warwick, after thinking a few minutes, replied that he would stand by the Receiver a schutiever course he would pursue. Acting upon this counsel, Captain Taylor deended to hold back the cash and keep it in his own safes and vaults for the night until to-morrow, when he will appoint a depository for the reception of the money. The checks he sent to the City Treasurer.

All of His Property Assigned.

Shortly after 3 o'clock an assignment was brought to the Recorder of Deeds' office of all property, real, personal and mixed, be longing to John Bardsley to Edward W. McGill, the law partner of Robert Alexunder, Mrt Bardsley's counsel. 'The deed of assignment is signed by May K. and John Bardsley, and includes 22 houses and lots of ground on the north side of Girard avenue, tween Forty-ninth and Fiftieth streets, taking in from No. 4955 to 4975 and 499934; 21 houses and lots on the south side of Mourse avenue to Thompson street, between Forty-ninth and Fiftieth, and taking in Nos, 4900 to 4946 inclusive; 14 houses and lots on the south side of Cathedral ave nue, between Forty-ninth and Fiftieth, including from No. 4920 to 4938 and 4944 4946, 4964, 4966. A fourth row of houses is on the north side of Cathedral avenue and takes in 18 structures, between Nos. 4915 mod 4051, and all other real, personal or mixed estate.

At the same time that these legal docu monts were being filed, a judgment note with execution was entered in Common Pleas Court No. 3, by John & James Doh ou against the Bradford Mill Company, Hurry Leonard, President, and M. H. Davis, Trensurer and Secretary, for $172, tist, sinted May 21, 1891, and payable one day after date.

A Very Sweeping Document.

Excention was taken out against the property of the company by Lawyer Rich WANTS of all kinds are quickly answered through THE DISPATCH. Investors, artisans, bargain hunters, buyers and sellers closely scan its Classified Advertising Coimus. Largest Circulation.

He May Be the Scapegoat. This is explained on the ground that ever since the trouble that has swamped Mr. Marsh broke over him suicide has been constantly uppermost in the wretched man's mind, and that Mrs. Marsh has only accomanied her husband to save him from th further disgrace of self destruction.

An ugly story is afloat to the effect that Mr. Marsh did not leave of his own accord, but that he continued the role of everybody's friend and, being ruined himself, was per-suaded to run away rather than run the risk of jeopardizing others should he stay and tell the whole truth.

Lawyer John S. McKinlay is as surprised as any one connected with the affair, if not more so, for he advised his client to stand up and make the fight. said: "I can only explain his sudden disappearance on the ground that it was made at the importunity of his wife." Deputy Marshal James L. Marshall has been untiring in his efforts to capture his man, but when asked, "Well, where is Marsh?" he ould only shake his head and turn the palms of his hands up with a negative shrug of the shoulders. Pattison After the Truth.

Intelligence was received here this more ing that Governor Pattison had addressed the following letter to the Auditor General Hon, Thomas McCamant, Auditor General:

Sun-Referring to Article IV., Section 10, of the Constitution of the State, which pro-Sum-Referring to Article IV., Section 10, of the Constitution of the State, which pro-vides, "He may require information in writ-ing from the officers of the Executive De-partment upon any subject relating to the duties of their respective offices." I desire to be informed, at your earliest convenience, of the condition of the accounts of John B. Bardsley, City Treasurer of Philadelphia, with the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania, and to have a statement of his account with the Common wealth since January 1, 1890. I alise desire you to furnish me, at your earliest convenience, with a statement of the account of the city of Philadelphia with the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania, and a copy of the said account as it has existed since January 1, 1800. I am desirous of hav-ing this information at an early date in casts into America. Few men have studied the problem as conscientiously as Mr. Owen. PHANTOM ESTATES IN NEW YORK. Heirs of the Edwards Millions Turn Up in ing this information at an early date in order that the Law Department of the Com-monwealth may be furnished with a basis to promptly institute such proceedings as may be advisable to advance and protect the interests of the State. Yours respectfully, ROBERT E. PATTISON

FOUR COACHES DERAILED. Auditor General McCamant came at delay.

took action.

A Railroad Accident in the Northwest Una tended by Casualties.

A NEW METHOD OF MURDER.

Force Until Run Over.

Ware, a colored girl, aged 16, was driven

on the railroad track at the point of a pistol

SHREVEPORT, LA., May 22 .- Jane wards, about 150 or 175 years ago.

Texas and Elsewhere.

Auditor General McCamant came at once to Philadelphia to give his personal attention to the loss of State funds. Speak-ing of Bardsley's indebtedness to the State, he said: "In the usual course of business this money should have been paid on or beo'clock at Teanaway, Wash., on the Cascade fore May 18. After that date ten days of grace are allowed before suit is entered. This would bring it up to the 28th. If the division of the Northern Pacific, the passenger train leaving Tacoma to-day had four coaches derailed. money is not paid into the State Treasury by the latter date, Six persons were injured slightly, but no passengers were seriously hurt. A surgeon

Suit Will Be Entered Against Bardsley and his bondsmen. His bonds to the State nount to $120,000. There are several legal questions which may come up, but which have not been considered yet. One is whether the bondsmen cannot be sued for whether the bondsmen cannot be sued for the full amount of the deficit, regardless of the sum mentioned on the bond, and the other, whether the city of Philadelphia cannot be held responsible by the State and compelled to make good the amount." The Auditor General added: "It was like a class of thunder out of a class the adar a clap of thunder out of a clear sky when I heard of Mr. Bardsley's resignation. The first I heard of it' was from Mr. Harrity about 5 o'clock yesterday afternoon. I had sonry, It Is Said, Will Protect His in the Coming Baccarat Trial.

THE PRINCE OF WALES' SHIELD.

there were 20 a dozen years ago, protected in their office by influential friends or rela-[BY DUNLAP'S CABLE COMPANY.] LONDON, May 22 -Freemasonry, the intives. He believes the operation of the law ought to be extended to include chiefs of fluence of which has for a long time past appeared to be waning, so far at least as divisions, and thus make the appointment of such as young Raum by indulgent fathers in office impossible without their under-going the regular examination. any public manifestation is concerned, and this in spite of the regard in which it is held by the members of the royal family, Attorney General Miller has referred all who hold important positions in its ranks, the papers submitted to him by the Civil Service Commission in the cases of Green B. will probably exert a power which it has Service Commission in the cases of Green B. Raum, Jr., and the other persons alleged to be connected with irregular appointments to minor positions in the Pension Office to the United States Attorney for the District of Columbia, for whatever action is required by here Guill Scriptic Commissioner Person not known for quite a long time. This will be shown in the approaching trial of the baccarat scandal, for the belief seems to be growing that it will be used as a powerful shield to the Prince of Wales when he is called as a witness in it.

law. Civil Service Commissioner Roos inw. Civit Service Commissioner Roose-velt, to-day, in speaking of the resignation of Green B, Raum, Jr., said that the com-mission was the first to bring up the case, and it had done all it has power to do in the It is this mystic science which is no doubt at the bottom of the action of Augustus at the bottom of the action of Augustus Harris in discharging Phil. Robinson, the editor of the Sunday Times, which Mr. Harris owns, because of the publication of an arti-cle in the columns of that paper in reference matter. It has called the case to the atten tion of the Secretary of the Interior, the to the Prince of Wales' debts. His Royal Highness is the Grand Master of English Secretary of the Treasury and the Attorney General, and it was in consequence of the Free Masons, and Augustus Harris has the honor of being the Senior Grand Warden in my that the Secretary of the Interior

the Grand Lodge of England, so that his CONGRESSMAN OWEN contributes for position is at present second to that of the THE DISPATCH to-morrow an article on Prince in the Masonic world. immigration with special reference to his new law to restrict the flow of Europe's out-

HE DESERVED THE HONOR.

The Knighting of Sir Alfred Haslan Wa Due Him as a Public Benefactor.

(BY DUNLAP'S CABLE COMPANY.) LONDON, May 22 .- Sir Alred Seale Has-

lan, who was knighted by the Queen on the SAN AUGUSTINE, TEX., May 22 .- A. D. occasion of her laying the foundation stone Polk, of this town, has gone to Louisville of the Derby Infirmary, won his reputation and other Eastern points. His mother, Mrs. V. Polk, is one of the heirs to the colossal in business by being the originator of the dry air refrigerator scheme, which allowed fresh meat to be stored in large quantities on shipboard and conveyed tremendous dis-Robert Edwards estate in New York. He goes to Louisville to be present at the meeting of the Edwards heirs. He not only tances represents his mother, but quite a numbe It is, in fact, entirely owing to this in-vention that England is now able to get frozen meat from the Antipodes, and this industry continues to increase every year, heirs. He carries with him the weddin dress of Penelope Sanford, who married Hayden Edwards, brother of Robert Edso that Mr. Hasian may really be regarded as a public benefactor, and if he deserves the honor of knighthood—and no one ques-tions that fact—it would seem as if the honor might have been conferred on him for his services in this direction rather than because he happened to be Mayor of Derby on the occasion of the Queen's visit to that ST. PAUL, May 22 .- This afternoon at 1 city.

FRENCH ARMS FOR RUSSIA.

New Proofs of Friendship Between th Republic and the Empire. on the train promptly attended the injured, and the train proceeded after a few hours BERLIN, May 22 .- The Cologne Gazette says that previous to the Czar's visit to the exhibition at Moscow, a French squadron is expected at Cronstadt with 20,000 rifles for the Russian army, and that the French The Victim Kent on a Railroad Track by officers will accompany the Czar to Moscow.

A PLAGUE OF LOCUSTS.

The Insects Have Made Their Appea at Rome and in Sardinia [BY DUNLAP'S CABLE COMPANY.]

ROME, May 22 .- The plague of locusts has appeared in the Roman Campagna. As | by the mob.

refers to the pressing importance of the matter, and the difficulty in dealing with it arising from its complex character, owing to the numerous concurrent factors requiring consideration; yet, he says, a solution can be obtained by applying the eternal principles on which the teachings of the church are always based. Now as ever men's relations toward each ioners.

other as individuals or parts of society must have the sanction of the old authority. The law is stated in Deuteronomy vi: 21.

COMMERCIAL TREATIES DISCUSSED. The French Government Wins a Parli

mentary Victory on the Tariff.

PARIS, May 22 .- In the debate on th trriff in the Chamber of Deputies to-day the right of the Government to make treaties was discussed. Ministers Ribot and De Freycinet maintained that the Governmen had the right to conclude treaties, modifyin even the minimum tariff, with the assent o the Chamber. A motion to reject the first article of th tariff bill as useless in view of the Govern-ment's power to change the minimum tariff, was rejected by a vote of 342 to 162

OBJECT TO TARIFF TINKERING.

Marseilles Flour Merchants Predict th Buin of Their Business.

MARSEILLES, May 22 .- The flour merchants of this city drafted a memorial protesting against the report of M. Viger, a member of the Customs Committee of the Chamber of Deputies, advising a reduction of the duty on foreign wheat from 5 franes to 3 francs per hectolitre for a year. The flour merchants declare that this reluction will ruin their trade. They say ten flour merchants have already been compelled to close their establishments. FRANK G. CARPENTER interviews Dr Scott, Neal Dow and Cassius M. Clay on Ion-gevity for THE DISPATCH to-morrow. An-ther of the interesting series on rules for ong life. All the news.

HAPPY FARMERS OF ILLINOIS.

Improved. SPRINGFIELD, ILL., May 22 .- The May

ssued to-day, declares that, notwithstanding the fears expressed during the winter as to the amount of damage done by the Hessian fly, the winter and spring has been so favorable to the growth of wheat that the con-dition is far above the average. Never be-fore at this date since 1880 has the condition been so promising for a large yield. The average condition for the State is six The condition in the northern division is put down at 103, and in the central and seeding was delayed by spring rains, and the condition is but 90. The fruit crop is expected to be the largest ever known.

SHIRLEY DARE finds poetry and health in the soil. A letter in gardening for women

LYNCHERS CAPTURE A TRAIN.

ting thing the Presbyterian Church has ever experienced, to have a board of directors ask one of the professors in one of our seminaries whether he believes in purgatory. The questions and categorical an-swers are by no means satisfactory to the overwhelming majority of the commisto the Committee on the Polity of the Church. The subject of church unity was again up in the form of a report on the uestion very similar to that made last

It will be several days before the case of Dr. Briggs will come officially before the Assembly. The overtures on the subject will go to the Committee on Bills and Overtures, and will be by them referred to the Committee on Theological Seminaries, and ossibly some of them to the Committee ou he Policy of the Church.

Loaded for Big Game.

The Committee on Theological Seminaries consists of stalwarts and is loaded for big game. The position of the chairman, Presiprogress attained was worth. ent Patton, of Princeton, is known to the shole Church. Union Seminary men may object to virtually being tried by men so absolutely devoted to Princeton and orthodoxy. But it is the constituency of the Assembly which will determine the matter and assume the responsibility. The feeling is growing that a special comany other church. nittee should not be appointed, as there is an aversion to giving conspiculty to a heresy which does not prevail in the Pres-byterian Church to any respectable extent. It is becoming more and more apparent that the views of Dr. Briggs are coming to be recognized as very ancient, and that they are every day losing force. Great interest was manifested in the appoint-ment of the standing committees, which were announced this morning. The stated his white robe for a noonday marriage ser-vice, but said he did not wear that kind of a robe in the daytime. But he was in favor clerk, Dr. William H. Roberts, received of church comity. the names of the members of the Committee on Theological Seminaries very leisurely. Upon a call for division, it was decided to enlarge the scope of the committee's power so as to take in all other Protestant denomin addition to President Patton, the cot mittee contains such uncompromising anti-Briggs men as McKibbin, brought up and trained in Pittsburg and now of Cincinnati; Humphrey, of Bourbon Kentucky; Breck-enridge, with the blood of his ancestors in his veins; Brownson, of Detroit, the son of his father; Totten, of Pittsburg-everyone of whom has sounded a blast from his the bugle. The Revision Report Delayed.

course and address. He so rambled that at last he had to be suppressed.

Dr. Patton's Eloquent Plea.

It was a marked contrast when the graceful and scholarly Dr. Patton took the floor,

The report of the committee which will review Union and Lane will not be made until the close of next week. The business of to-day was opened with an unusually large attendance at the devotional services.

Grain and Fruit Prospects Could Hardly B

It was raining hard and was very unpleas ant on the street. The report or circular of the State Board of Agriculture, was read, but commanded no particular at-tention. It had been published in full and distributed through the Assembly the previous day. The commissioners showed no particular seriousness, and once or twice burst out in laughter at the reasons as-signed for certain changes. At the close of the reading of the report it was loudly applauded. An 80-year-old elder, Mr. James M. Graham, made a quaint speech against revision, which brought down the house. He held that the points above normal. The area sown to wheat is unusually large-1,834,000 acres. whole trouble was caused by ministers of the gospel. There are too many Prof. Briggses in the church. He wouldn't dot an "i" or in the church. He wouldn't dot an "i" or cross a "t" in the old confession. The aged southern divisions at 108. Rye is reported in about equally good condition-103. Oat father could not get a second to his am ments, and created great merriment by his

n THE DISPATCH to-morrow. All the lews.

They Take a Colored Murderer From an Officer Intent on Vengeance.

ful and scholarly Dr. Fatton took the floor, and eloquently advocated recommitting the report and instructing the committee to send it down to the presbyteries. He dwelt upon the harmony that pervaded all the sessions of the committee. He held that in all the proposed changes not a solitary doetrine of the Calvanistic system had been HOMER, LA., May 22 .- Last night a train touched by the report of the committee, which statement was received by the Ason the Louisiana and Northwestern Railwhich statement was received by the As-sembly with loud applanse. If the outside world, which seems so greatly interested in this movement, has expected this, they will be worldly disap-pointed. President Patton said he was not ashamed to emphasize the word Calvinistic, for that is what it is, and that is what we road was stopped at Beardsley's by a mob of 20 masked men, who foreibly took from the Sheriff Tennis Hampton, colored, who is charged with the murder of E. H. Webber in 1889 It is believed that Hampton was lynched report of the special can't afford to keep the cables going all Board of Publication at Philadelphia, night for the few passengers we might pick which gives promise of a very lively light. Dr. Torrance asked for a special deliverance on progressive eachre and kindred

"All night cars would cause more people to locate in the East End and increase your mosoments and the subject was referred day business as well," said the reporter.

There May Be All Night Cars.

"That may be a fact," returned Mr. Trag-ardh. "We could run horse cars and it rardly. has been talked of. Just as soon as the pub-lic demands it there will be all night horse cars. The Duquesne has the advantage in the matter of the night business, and for dropped, for the special reason that he was not auxious to be reordained. He went vigorously for the historic Episcopal Church the present can keep it." "Have you any information from Phila-delphia, other than that the fares will be and the insufficiency of the Nicene Creed. reduced?' He thought we had spent more time and money on trying to bring about union with "No. All I know is that any man who has 3 cents can ride to East Liberty on our line. The idea of selling a book of tickets for $5 has been abandoned, and it will be the Protestant Episcopal Church than the Hon. George Junkin, of Philadelphia, simply a 3-cent rate per single trip." One would generally suppose that the Duquesne people would be the most hurt said the Episcopalians were trying to get the great Presbyterian Church to squeeze itself into the little hole of the historic ov the reduction, but the smiles of Messrs, episcopate of the Episcopal Church, and they never intend to recognize Presbyterian Magee and Rice were rather broadened than spoiled when they were informed of the cut ordination. He would not lower the Pres-byterian banner even to the Methodist or last evening. "It is plainly an evidence of weakness, declared Mr. Rice. "They see how the thing is running."

The Question Still Unsettled. "There's no surprise in it," said Mr. Magee. "They have declared their inten-Drs. Rice, of San Francisco, and Smith Drs. Idee, of San Primore, pleaded for a continuation of negotiations, as did also Dr. Bartlett, of Washington, in an exceed-ingly humorous speech. He had once been tion to reduce the rate for the past year, and of course it was expected. Is it to be and of course it was expected. Is it i for single trips or will they sell books?" ingly humorous speech. He had once been invited by an Episcopalian rector to put on Will Do None of the Fighting.

The Duquesne's President was informed that there would be no books in it, and was asked what his company proposed doing. "Nothing but continue running," was his aconic reply. "Then it will be a one-sided fight?"

"If there is a fight they will have to do it II," suid Mr. Magee. "We consider our nations in a movement for federation of all," said Mr. Magee. ride worth a nickel.'

"We are not running regularly enough yet, but expect to get down to about an hour and a half for a round trip to-morrow. We will then decrease the time as much as possible as we get to working on a system. Until that time we can't tell what speed can

The Citizens' Will Be Lookers-On.

Secretary Gormley, of the Citizens' Trac-tion Company, cannot suppress a smile when he thinks of the fight for patronage when he thinks of the light for patronage which is soon to come on between the Pitts-burg and Duquesne Companies. He says positively that his company will not be in it, as it is too far out of the line. "It is not the through traffic so much as that which jumps on and off along the route," said Secretary Gormley last night.

route, said Secretary Gormey last high. "Of course, we are glad to catch the pas-sengers going to East Liberty, but if we were compelled to haul all our customers five miles for 5 cents there would be very little money in the street car business. Averaging up the long and the short rides, it isn't so much, but where can you find a company that can afford to carry pas-sengers at the rate of 1 cent a mile? Of sengers at the rate of 1 cent a miler of course, we will make no reduction to meet the Fifth avenue line," continued the Sec-retary. "I don't think it is paying busi-ness." "You didn't lose anything by reducing from 10 to 5 cents, did you?" was asked. "Granting that, it does not follow that the best advertising medium. All classes can be reached through its Chastfiel Adver-tisement Columns. If you want anything you can get it by this method.

BUSINESS Men will find THE DISPATCH

work. This action was reconsidered, and the matter referred to the following special "Is that because of the beautiful scenery along the Soho route?" was asked. "Not exactly that. We give a much longer ride. We go a mile further than they do in three different directions. Our committee, which is expected to bring order out of confusion: Drs. Smith, Hays and Rice. At night a popular meeting was held in the interest of Sabbath school work, and was addressed by Dr. Worder and Dr. Cra-ven, of Philadelphia, and others. Wilkinsburg line isn't ready yet, but will be soon. Then we take in an entirely different territory. It was only tributary to their road because there was no line closer.

People had to take long walks to ride on the Fifth avenue line. We go after them PRESIDENT HARRISON didn't pay a penny of railroad fare on his swing around the circle. Neither did Pullman nor anyon the by-streets." "How will your speed be as compared to that of the other line?" was the next quesoody else pay any bills. The facts about the trip given in THE DISPATCH to-morrow.

be made."