Liberal Covenanters Will Not Entertain Their Intelerant Brethren During the Meeting of Their Synod-Some Red-Hot Roastings Are Anticipated.

A liberal Covenanter yesterday quoted Dr. McAllister's reported comment on Prof. McClurkin's letter: "We now know what we lieve to meet; what the real issue is," and then went on to say that Dr. McAllister thereby confesses that he did not vote to convict on the merits of the case, but on prejudice. He added: "Further, Prof. MccClurkin is not talking for the suspended ninisters, but for himself, and Dr. McAllister ad no right to form any judgment against sem from Prof. McClurkin's utterance; for them from Prof. McClurkin's utterance; for the professor did not pretend to talk for all."
The same gentleman, who is a prominent member of the church, further stated that "intolearnts," as he termed them, might find accommodations for themselves. He said the liberal part of the resident church would provide ample accommodations for liberal delegates and their wives; but those who set themselves up to dictate to the rest of the brethren what they should do and should not do might find food and lodging for them-selves. He said that 200 delegates would be present, as he said liberal minded men were discriminated against by the intolerant party, and that it had attempted to pack the convention.

nvention. Rev. E. M. Milligan was seen. He said his suspension was not giving him any trouble. His father, Dr. J. C. K. Milligan, of New York, will be present, and he, too, will be roasted on the charge of heresy. roasted on the charge of heresy.

Altogether, it may be expected that the Synod that opens to morrow will be a notable one, and that results may happen equaling the split of 1833. So far as known, the young men who were suspended are as firm as ever, and their friends' ardor is apparently uncuenchable.

APPETITE is generally restored to deli-cate children by the use—in tonic dose—of Dr. D. Jayne's Tonic Vermifuge; and not only an appetite, but strength and vigor as While essentially a strengthener, it is also an excellent vermitage; and if these pests of childhood are present, there is no better, safer or cheaper remedy. To and so Diamond st., just above Smithfield st., in new Dispatch building; well lighted eleganity fitted up, centrally located and having every convenience; these rooms are admirably suited for insurance, real estate or other office business. For further information apply, after 2 P. M., to BUSI-NESS MANAGER, The Dispatch, Smithfield and Diamond sts. The bidder will state the amount he bids for and the premium he will pay for bonds, and the award will be made to the best bidder.

The city has no bonded debt now; there is a debt of about $40,000 existing of the Boroughs forming the city, all of which will be speedily paid by a special tax levied. ## ADVERTISING PAYS

When rightly done-if you have a good thing tell the public. Manufacturers were informed through the Pittsburg newspapers that FREE SITES on level ground, never overflowed by high water, were offered them at KENSINGTON, on the Allegheny Valley Railroad, only 18 miles from Pittsburg. Cash premiums, low freight rates, low taxes, cheap fuel, excellent shipping facilities, miles of graded streets, homes for workmen, churches, schools, etc., etc., were the inducements offered for factories. Read the result of investigation:
