A MOST COSTLY STRIKE. Many Thousands of Dollars That H

Been Paid Owing to the Cokers. SPECIAL TELEGRAM TO THE DISPATCH.

GREENSBURG, May 25.—One of the most in-cresting, and at the same time most expensive items of the great coke strike, was the money paid out by the several coke companies for deputies, arms and legal expenses. In adding up the costs of the strike the items mentioned have not been counted in, yet they are by no means inconsiderable.

items mentioned have not been counted in, yet they are by no means inconsiderable. There have been on duty in Westmoreland and Fayette counties 400 Pinkertons, at the rate of $3.50 per day, for a total of 20 days, or about $25,600. Besides this there have been sworn in in both counties 800 local deputies, who served an average of a month each, at the rate of 25 cents per one hour of a day of 12 hours. This amounts to $72,000.

Then the legal expenses of the fight have been very large. There have been issued from the Prothonotary's office in Fayette 500 eviction writs and the same number in this county, and about all have been executed. It cost about $15 to issue and execute an eviction writ, and with the 1,000 issued the cost was about $15,000. Then the cost of the military and criminal prosecutions growing out of the strike have been enormous.

The Trouble in the United Brethren Church

Is at Last Before the Court.

(SPECIAL TELEGRAM TO THE DISPATCH.)

CHAMBERSBURG, May 25 .- A special term of court began here to-day for the purpose of hearing arguments upon the long-drawn-out equity suit between the liberal and radical factions of the United Brethren Church, the equity suit between the liberal and radical factions of the United Brethren Church, the decision in which will determine the ownership of many thousand dollars' worth of church property in Pennsylvania. The suit was begun nearly two years ago by Rev. H. A. Schlichter, presiding elder of the Chambersburg district, and the trustees of the United Brethren Church of Greencastle, to recover the church property, which the radical, or anti-scret society, faction had taken possession of. The latter had locked the doors against the liberals, who stood by the action of the General Conference at York, Pa., in 1888.

Judge Stewart several months ago fixed to-day for the opening of the argument. The court room was crowded with prominent churchmen. W. Rush Gillan opened the case for the liberals, and was followed by Judge William Lawrence, of Bollefontaine, O., for the radicals. He occupied most of the afternoon session, and will likely finish his argument to-morrow. O. C. Bowers and ex-Judge D. W. Rouse will close the case. It will be a month or two before Judge Stewart's opinion is rendered. This will determine the ownership of the church property in this State, as it has been made a test case, until a final decision is made next year by the Supreme Court.

THE BENEFIT OF POSTPONEMENT

Leading Ministers.

THE SERPENT AND THE CROSS AGAIN

[SPECIAL TELEGRAM TO THE DISPATCH.]

DETROIT, May 25.-The Briggs case cor tinues to be the great subject of discussion and anxiety in the Presbyterian Assembly

The leading friends of the Professor are lob-byists and their number has been increased by the arrival of Dr. Johnson, of Chicago, and Dr. Philip Schaff, of New York. Dr.

Schaff is a German theologian, who be-longed in the early years of his residence in this country to the German Reformed Church, and since coming into the Presby-terian Church has been engaged chiefly in book making. He is a high authority in favor of immersion and has never been regarded as a Presbyterian.

The leaders in the lobby for Dr. Briggs now are Drs. Fields, Morris, Evans, Johnson and Schaff. The work was prosecuted vig-orously all day Sunday and to-day. Several of the sermons, especially that of the Mod-crator, were objectionable to the friends of Dr. Briggs. The subject is not likely to come before the Assembly for two or three progress, making conquests among even the Pittsburg and Philadelphia delegations.

Questioning Briggs' Sanity.

A distinguished ex-Moderator of the As sembly and a theological professor outlines his views. He says if Dr. Briggs were insame or dangerously sick, or if other con-providence of God, surely the Assembly would not proceed to action. He says a man the would one day answer the Union Sem-nary trustee's questions as he did and the next day make such an address as he did in Plymouth Church, is in a questionable con-ifton of initial.

The Assembly can decline to approve the lection, but not disapprove it, and appoint committee to consider the whole case and a committee to consider the whole case and report to the Assembly next year, explain-ing that this course is not to prejudice the New York Presbytery. He would even agree to have the Assembly order the professor to cease teaching in the interim.

Policy of the Lobby.

such is the policy of the lobby, which has, however, about reached the limit of its influence. Indeed there are signs of reaction gainst so much and such lobby work. It is an actual fact that influential friends of Dr.

riggs are nearly all in the lobby, and a my fact is that they work carnestly with ssibility that it may turn out as revision , and there will be harmonious action did, and there will be harmonious action after conference and the singing of the long meter Doxology. Some think that harmonious action would have been more likely if some of the friends of Dr. Briggs had sailed with him for Europe on Saturday.

The anti-Briggs men of the New York Presbytery are saying very little, if anything. Dr. Herrick Johnson, of McCormick Seminary, Chicago, thinks the best thing to do is to appoint a committee to confer with the Union Theological Seminary trustees and try to put a brake on Dr. Briggs. His utcerances are unwise and too radical.

The Benefit of Postponement.

If he cannot be suppressed his case can coverhauled next year, while the force of veto now would be forfeited. The moral orce of a deliverance next year would be incomparably greater. By this action of the Assembly as to the theological seminary report the earliest time that the Briggs case ort the earliest time that the Briggs case an come up is next Thursday.

The question of the scrpent on the cross has up to-day, morning and evening. It roused much scrious and comical oratory. Or. McNeir, of Utah, wanted the symbol of the snake taken off and an open Bible put in is place. He hated snakes and did not want its place. He hated snakes and did not want to have to stop and explain in his part of the country the meaning of the snakes.

A general opposition was aroused in the Assembly. It was said the snake was mean, reacherous, miserable, horrid and represented the devil. A symbol of the devil or his representation was improper on the seal of the Presbyterian Church. George Jenkin, of Philadelphia, warmly advocated the servent as the symbol of Christ upon the cross-pent as the symbol of Christ upon the cross. Boctors of Divinity, eminent jurists and many others took a hand in the debate, of which the Assembly is becoming impatient. Beport on the Freedmen.

The report of the Committee on the Freedmen showed encuraging progress. Secretary Allen, of Pittsburg, made an eloquent address. He was followed by colored speakers. The resolution repealing the action of the last Assembly, which ordered the Board for the Freedmen to cut down expenses, excited vigorous discussion. On account of this action on the whole, the report was postponed.

The vacant supply and ministerial adjustment report was earnestly debated. Much opposition was elicifed, especially to a plan which seemed to create a blacklist of churches and ministers. Drs. Roberts, Patton, Birch and Moore successfully raised the question of constitutionality, and had the whole business referred to a special committee, to report to the Assembly on this point. The scheme will unquestionably be killed.

The Serpent Up Again.

the serpent was again discussed, calling forth a torrent of oratory. The Assembly was very impatient, but the speakers were persistent. The ground previously covered was retraversed. Amid much confusion, a vote was forced on the amendment to take off the symbol of the serpent. It was carried off the symbol of the serpent. It was carried by a vote of 285 to 137. After an eloquent ap-peal by Dr. McCook, to let the old seal stand, the report was then recommitted, so that the subject will come up again. General Eaton, United States Commis-sioner of Education under Presidents Grant, sioner of Education under Presidents Grant, Hayes and Cleveland, read the report of the standing committee on education, which was followed with an address by Secretary Poor. The Rev. Dr. Baker, President of the board, from Philadelphia, made remarks, and also Dr. John D. Hewitt, of Kansas. The resolutions were adopted re-electing the old board. The popular meeting for the freedmen was held at night and addressed by the Rev. J. F. Gibson, of Pittsburg, and others.
