Trading was restricted to Philadelphia Gas, which continued the advance of the previous day on the strength of the Wash-ington county oil strike. The rest of the natural gas stocks were steady to strong. Confidence in this class of securities is as conspicuous for its presence as but a short time ago for its absence. While the gas holds out to burn the biggest bear may eke re-turn. ap30-rrs 83 The financial crisis of last fall has almost entirely disappeared, but it has left the country in a temper to make wild specula-tion impossible. Optimists of a year ago are now extremely conservative. They are mov-ing slowly and coutiously. This change of sentiment has greatly reduced the chances for speculative operations in real estate. Operators, however, are not disposed to take any risks in the premises and the speculation lags, the dull-ness at times to-day being equal to anything in that line during mid-summer, while the ductuations were on a strict parity with the amount of business done. The opening was made at figures from ½ to ½ per cent higher than the close of last evening, and the continued covering of shorts soon forced a fractional advance over the entire list in the early imding. In this movement, however, Wabash preferred was the only prominent feature, and while St. Paul and a few others were quite active for the time being there was little or no feature to the trading with the exception noted. The upward movement, however, came toan end when the demand from the shorts was satisfied, and in the afternoon the course of prices was again downward. Many stocks were then brought below the level of the opening figures, Rock Island and St. Paul being among the number, while Louisville and Nashville was most conspicuous for its or the time and the shorts was stored and show was the shorts was been brought below the shorts was been being the number, while the desider. H. B. Smithson, anctioneer, sold yesterday for Black & Baird 40 lots in the plan laid out by D. H. Barr, Twenty-first ward; amounting to $22,000.
Charles Somers & Co. sold for Charles Klein to James Wilde a frame house of four rooms, on lot 50 feet front by about 90 feet deep, situated corner of Reed street and Breckenridge avenue, for $2,000. and Nashville was most conspionous for its decline. The market, however, was kept within marrow limits during the entire day, and no material movement was scored outside of the advance in Wabash preferred. A slightly better tone was developed toward steady to firm at insignificant changes from the opening prices. The only final change of note was a gain of i per cent in Wabash preferred, the others being irregular for mull fractions only. Barroad bonds: an entire slump ex-isted in prices. COUNTRY PRODUCE (Jobbing Prices)—There is a better movement for fancy creamery butter than for a week past, but no advance in prices. Country rolls are also moving more freely, with 10 to 12c per pound as rul-ing prices in a Jobbing way. Large quanti-ties are being packed for future use. Straw-berries, are in good supply, and quality of late receipts is good. The average price to-day was 10c per box, but a few very fancy were sold at 15c. Bermuda potatoes are weak and lower, as our quotations will disclose. New Southern potatoes are coming in more freely, and prospects are that there will be a full supply by another week. Strictly fresh nearby eggs are scarce and firm, and the outlook promises a 20c market. APPLES—Fancy, # 0007 50 per barrel. FIRST SECOND CALL. CALL. B. A. B. A. THIRD CALL, B. A.

QUEER SHOOTS IN WHEAT.

When It Was Expected to Have Advanced It Went Back, Hurting Lots of Brokers-Corn Was Excitable and Very Irregular in Its Movements.

CHICAGO-Wheat was subjected to two or three unexpected and disappointed shoots -day. When it was expected to advance receded, and when it looked weak it neved decided strength. The opening was idedly lower than the close vesterda bles noted lower than the close yesteriny. bles noted lower prices abroad, and the eather in the wheat belt was fine. There as no damage from frost reported in the orthwest, and with warmer weather there e market looked due to break at the start. to market noted the to break at the shift, t dld just the other thing. New Yorkers ent in heavy buying orders,1,000,000 bushels, t was said, being purchased on that account or S. V. White & Co. alone. Local shorts also covered freely and the ransactions of a syndicate which was said o be "playing the market" according to a vytom wis also said to have an effect on also said to have an effect on These things and the early strength made a decidedly strong market and advance. The corn market was selv and exerted more or less infuence on wheat all day, operators some-how taking a one from that market. When corn declined wheat went off too, assisted by a selling pressure from some of the local uly started at 90% (199% c, against $1 00% at July started at 29/g029/c, against $1 00/g at the close yesterday, and advanced to $1 00/g. When the New Yorkers tried to sell out their early purchases they found the heavy local bears, under the leaa of Ream, Cudaby & Linn, were willing to help them sell. July proke specify to 5% and ultimately sold to 18/g., with a slight recovery before the close. The Bradstreet report of a large decrease last week in available supplies had little of-fect. The liberal exports and talk of 100,000
