A MUTUAS CONVERSION.

The Counterfeiter Turns Preacher and the Minister Becomes His Pal.

Curcago, May 28 .- Captain Porter, of the United States Secret Service, has returned from Southern Illinois, where within the past week he has put behind the bars the preacher counterfeiters, George Vancil and Jeromiah Holmos. He tells a queer story of mutual conversion, in which a counterfeiter became a preacher and a preacher a counter-feiter. "Jerry" Holmes was a counterfeiter and a general outcast in Duquoin, Ill. Rev. George Vancil was a Baptist Minister. He George Vancil was a Baptist Minister. He undertook to convert Holmes to Christian-ity after everybody had given him up as in-corrigible. The men met one night under the stars, and Vancil prached sermon to itoimes to such good effect that he professed repentance. He fell ou the ground, and with his hands toward heaven declared he would forever renounce his ways. Holmes turned preacher, and became the postor of a Campbeilite congregation in the country near Duquoin. It was not long after this that Holmes gave Vanuil some counter-foil money, and Vancil passed it. Later on Holmes gave him some more, and he passed that upon some members of a traveling cir-ous. This Rev. Nr. Vancil confessed, but he declared that he took the money and con-tioned that he took the money and conlared that he took the money and con-ned the acquaintance of Holmes for the timbed the acquaintance of Homes for the purpose of Jearning his secrets and exposing the gang of which Holmes was the feader. Rev. Jerry Holmes, who made the coin, and who was captured a week ago, heid religious services in juli last Sunday, and had all his fellow prisoners shouting for glory. He preached a regular fire-and-brimstone ser-uon
