A SURPRISING TURN

Taken in the Delamater Case Before the Supreme Court.

FOUR MONTHS' TIME ASKED FOR

In the Change of Venue Petition, but the Court Denies It.

ALLEGATIONS OF EXCITED PREJUDICE

[SPECIAL TELEGRAM TO THE DISPATCH.] THARRISBURG, June L.—Thomas M. Marshall and Charles F. McKenna, of Pittsburg, District Attorney Best, of Crawford county, and George F. Davenport came here to-day, fully prepared to show that the Delematers had no justification for the proposed transfer of their trial from Crawford to another county, but the Supreme Court had hardly met be-George A. Jenks, of counsel for the defend-ants, submitted an application for a continuance of the case until the Pittsburg term of court next October, on the ground that the intense feeling existing in Crawford county gainst the Delamaters precluded an impar tial trial. He further stated that the refusal of the creditors of the banking firm to ac cept the compromise offered at the proper time prevented the defendants from securing the amount required to make the first payment ($145,000) at the time fixed for the turning over of the money to the creditors.

While Thomas M. Marshall was making a few remarks in reply, District Attorney few remarks in reply, District Attorney Best and Mr. Davenport rushed into the Supreme Court room to learn that the Delamaters, whose counsel had expressed a week before a great desire for an early settlement of the question of a clauge of venue, were desirous of a postponement of the argument for four months. Mr. Davenport aunounced to the beach that the unexpected move would be resisted, as the Crawford county lawyers had not had an opportunity to consuit with their Pittsburg colleagues. They retired for consultation and decided to uncompromisingly oppose the application for a continuance. As they returned to the court room, Mr. Jenks was reading the following affidavit: Reasons for the Change.

In the Supreme Court of Pennsylvania,

Crawford County, ss., personally appeared before me, a notary public in and for said county, George W. Delamater, Victor M. Delamater and T. A. Delamater, all of the city of Meadville, county and State aforecity of Meadville, county and State afore-said, who being duly sworn, depose and say that under the advice of their counsel and in preparation of their cases, under the rule to show cause granted by the Supreme Court why writs of certiorari should not issue to the Court of Quarter Sessions of Crawford County, in Nos. — of February time, 1891, and Nos. — of May time, 1891, wherein G. B. Delamater, G. W. Delamater, T. A. Delamater and V. M. Delamater are defendants, respectively.

"They have interviewed many citizens of said county of Crawford and submitted to them certain affidavits, like those upon file on the part of the defendants in said cases, tending to show great excitement and undue on the part of the defendants in said cases, tending to show great excitement and undue prejudice among the citizens, taxpayers and those people who are likely to be empaneled as jurors to try said cases in case they are tried in Crawford county against said defendants, and to such an extent as to prevent a fair and impartial trial of said cases in said Crawford county, and have asked them to sign and swear to these that they may be filed in said cases for the information of the Supreme Court in deciding said rules.

Fifty Unknown Friends.

"At least 50 of these citizens thus asked by as during the past month have expressed their approval of the facts as set forth in said affidavits, acknowledging their knowlsaid affidavits, acknowledging their knowledge that such great excitement and undue prejudice does exist through the said Crawford county, and to such an extent as to prevent a Inir trial of the defendants therein, but refused to sign or swear to said affidavits, as they all clearly stated, because there is such widespread feeling and prejudice against the defendants in this community that by so doing they would injure themselves in their business, social and other relations of life. other relations of life.

other relations of life.

"Deponents do not include a list of the names of these persons, for the manifest reason that by so doing, they having manifested a friendly interest in defendants, and in opposition to the prevailing prejudice against them, would put themselves upon the record and expose them to attack, but do meanifyend emphatically declared. ivocally and emphatically declare that all of the said aforesaid 50 persons, who are representative citizens of Crawford county, have refused to make affidavits as aforesaid, because of alleged fear of injury resulting to themselves therefrom, because of the excitement, prejudice and general frenzy of the public against the defendants—these cases, and further saith not. "Sworn to and subscribed before me this 30th day of May, 1881.

"John O. McCuntock, Notary Public."

Threats of Violence Made.

Mr. Jenks represented that no fair trial could be had in Crawford county, and in could be find in Chiwlord county, and in support of his remarks said an indignation meeting ind been held, at which homicidal threats had been proctaimed. Passion, he said, had not only been running high in the county on account of the failure of the Delamaters, but it was assuming cold-blooded malice. By a postponement this feeling would no doubt be probably allayed and necessary affidavits could be secured.

Mr. Davenport said he could not realize what had produced the change in favor of a postponement of the case. A week ago defendant's counsel seemed anxious to go ahead as rapidly as possible. The transformation was probably due to the fact that the Commonwealth's counsel had secured 250 signatures to a petition disputing the claims of the opposing counsel as to the existence of a prejudice which would prevent justice from being meted out to the Delamaters. He did not charge counsel for the defendants with acting in had faith in the case, but he did charge it on the Delamaters.

The Application Denied. support of his remarks said an indignation

The Application Denied.

At the afternoon session the Supreme Court decided against the application for a continuance and announced that the case continuance and announced that the case would be heard in its order. The case will probably be heard to morrow. In their brief, defendant's counsel assign the following reasons why the writ asked for should be allowed: That there is not only great pecindice among the people generally in Crawford county against the Delamaters, but there would be among the jurors empaneled to try the case, all being interested and prejudiced against your petitioners by repeated allegations and representations of the prosecutors and depositions that their money had been wrongfully used by the defendants.

money had been wrongfully used by the defendants.

In brief the Commonwealth's counsel denies the truth of the allegations of undue prejudice in Crawford county. "The fair and impartial trial," the Delamaters want, Commonwealth counsel say, is "one where they can be assured in advance of an acquittal. Indeed it is more than suspected that they do not want a trial at all, of any kind, anywhere. It is believed they desire to avail themselves of the removal of their cases, for the reasons given by Judge Black in his record for 50 years, in which not one resulted in conviction and nine out of ten have not been tried."

TO SAVE THEIR NECKS.

The Cases of Rusnak, Toth and Saybol Go Before the Supreme Court.

HARRISBURG, June 1.-The cases of Rusnak. Toth and Saybol, convicted in Allegheny county of murder in the first degree, came county of murder in the first degree, came before the Supreme Court to-day on an application for a reversal of the decision of the lower court on points raised by the defendants. District Attorney Johnson asked for an immediate consideration.

Mr. A. Blakely maintained, in the interest of the prisoners, that as the court which tried these men had but one Judge it was illegally constituted and that the Court had erred in overruling the challenges of two furors who had sat in the case. It was also contended as to George Rusaak, that the evidence was too conflicting to justify a verdict of murder in the first degree. District Attorney Johnston contended that the evidence was very conclusive as to the guilt of the condemned men and described minutely how Quinn was killed.

Themas M. Marshall said he was representing the prisoners at the request of the chief presecutor of the case, who was slocked at the verdict of murder in the first degree. A brief history of the case was given, in which he stated that it was all right to import a thousand Hungarians.

Scorrpalz, June L-The converts to the ocialistic doctrine during the strike did not socialistic dootrine during the strike did not vote at the Democratic primaries in Fayette county, Saturday. An exceedingly light vote was polled in the coking precincts as a result. In Upper Twon township, a Democratic stronghold, only 33 out of 300 votes were polled. At Morgan's Station there was no election at all, as the Election Board, which is compressed of persons who were was no election at all, as the Election Board, which is composed of persons who were active in the coke fight, refused to serve.

The Jonas and Delaber converts have been likewise advised to refrain from casting their votes at the Republican primaries in the two counties. The Socialists will likely conduct primaries of their own and run a labor ticket. This is under contemplation by their local leaders. Politics is one of the main topics of discussion among the coke workers now, and they say they will reward their friends and punish their enemies. A labor leader said to-day that if he was rightly informed, over 3,000 votes would be polled by the Socialists at the coming fall elections.

SPOILED AN ELOPEMENT

A Wrathful Father With a Drawn Revolver

Chases the Lover Away. (SPECIAL THEEGRAM TO THE DISPATCH.) BRIDGEPORT, June L-William James, well-to-do citizen of this place, caused a sen-sation in this place by chasing the lover of his daughter over the back bridge with a pistol. The affair was caused by a projected pistol. The affair was caused by a projected elopement on the part of the young man, Peter Miller, a car inspector, and James' daughter Jessie. For some time past Miller has been paying Miss Jessie attentions, to which her father strongly objected.

Yesterday afternoon Miller was out walking with Miss Jessie, when Mr. James appeared and asked for a few words with the former. Miller walked across the street and turned southward toward the bridge. The father followed at a rapid pace, and when he almost overtook Miller the latter started on a run. When they reached the bridge Miller had a start of about 20 yards, and Mr. James, fearing that he would escape, drew his revolver and was about to fire, when he saw several ladies coming toward him. Miller escaped and has not been seen since.

LOW CUT SHOES

LADIES, GENTS, MISSES AND CHILDREN.

Some one has said, "Keep your wrists and ankles cool, and your whole body will be cool." We can't regulate the wrists, but when it comes to keeping the ankles cool we're right in it. This is the time of year when we all desire to keep cool and comfortable, and low cut shoes are the only sensible kind to wear in summer. We quote below a few of the prices in which we have this style of shoe. Remember that while others may quote our prices they will not give you the quality for the price that we do. GUSKY'S

Men's best B Calf, Oxford ties, $1 50. Men's best Dongola, Oxford ties, $2. Men's elegant Kangaroo, Southern ties, $3. Men's best Calf, welt, Oxford ties, $4 50. Men's first quality Kangaroo Southern ties,

Misses' elegant cloth top tipped, Oxfords, $1 75-

Child's glazed Dongola, Oxfords, 75 cents,

Child's hand-made Oxfords, 99c. Child's patent leather tip Oxford, $1. These are but a few of the great number of styles and prices which we have to show you. In looking at our stock through the newspaper it is as though you were looking through a telescope, you see it afar off and it looks much smaller than it really is. Come in and let us show you the stock itself.

We can fit you and please you. This is not a fake, fire or retiring sale, but a bona fide statement of facts.

HONEST IN QUALITY Reliable Clothing will not be put down. We're making the difference between it and low grades well known. The specious cry of "cheapness" is resorted to. It will fail. When cloth, trimmings, style and work are right success is sure. We're talking of our make, you understand. Examine as good Clothing elsewhere, if you can, and compare prices. We don't believe you want shoddy, sweepings of the mill, and cotton mixed, all driven and pounded together, and then printed a fancy pattern to make it look like all-wool cloth. It isn't good enough for Reliable Clothing. When we can't sell the best goods we'll shut our doors.
