YESTERDAY'S ASSOCIATION GAMES. PAPECIAL TELEGRAM TO THE DISPATCH.

New York, June 1 .- "Get right at them boys; get right at them," George Miller shouted every time he returned from the field in the third game of the present series between Brooklyn and Pittsburg at Eastern Park to-day. Usually, after a holiday, many of the cranks feel sore from bellowing, and take a rest for a day or two, but still the game was not played to empty benches. The game lagged for a few innings, but toward the latter part the audience got excited and hissed and jeered Umpire Lynch, who gave neither team more than they deserved. From an impartial spectator's view his decisions were not out of the way, but what can you expect from a home audience when their team is struggling to master the lead, and the umpire won't help you out in moments when the brain is on fire with ex-pectation of seeing "Darby" or "Dave" glide er the rubber with the winning run. Roasted Umpire Lynch.

The left field bleachers had it in for Lynch, but their wrath was let out to the full extent much when a Brook! mitegets real angry) in the seventh inning when the score was even up. Collins stepped to the plate and banged out a line drive to left field, and by good sprinting slid into second base. "Tnat's the kind, Hub, old boy," the lett field bleacher king crank yelled. But Collins, without saying a word, quietly walked back to the bench, when Lynch declared him out for not touching first base. But as Brooklyn won the game Mr. Lynch, as an umpire, was voted by all to be all right when the contest voted by all to be all right when the contest was over.

The Pittsburgs were not as spry as on Decoration Pay, and this was especially the case of Browning, who allowed Griffin's hit to roll to him, and as the center fielder is somewhat of a runner, he took two bases owing to the slowness of the blg outfielder. There were many pretty plays made, of which two were those of the home players. When Browning hits a ball plump it is sure to travel at not a snail's pace. It was in the seventh inning that he caught one of Hemming's inshoots just right, and like a streak was making fast time to left field. Pinckney's quick eve saw it coming, and with one bound made a jump and pulled in the hit with one hand. "No wonder I won't lead the League hitters," grunted Browning, as he took his place in the outfield. Then ngain in the ninth Fields smashed the ball to right, which Burns took in with easy grace after a long run, only getting the ball near the fence.

A Most Peculiar Part

f the game was that the Brooklyns had but four assists, which is a small number for a nine-inning game, but it seemed the visitors were too anxious to "kill" the ball, and in stend raised it high in the air, giving the elders easy chances to retire the batters. If Hemming can do as well in his future differming can do as well in his future games as he did yesterday, so much better for Brooklyn. At trying moments he kept his wits about him, and outside of the first and fifth innings the Pittsburgs secured but one hit. Stratton was hit rather hard, but the hits were mostly made by two players, games as he did yesterday, so much better his wits about him, and outside of the first his wits about him, and outside of the hiss and fifth innings the Pittsburgs secured but one hit. Stratton was hit rather hard, but the hits were mostly made by two players, Griffin and Pinckney each finding Stratton three times.

The Pittsburgs made the first run. Miller hit to left in the opening inning, and, as the ball took an awkward bound, he reached third, scoring on Browning's live bagger. In the next inning the home team saw that one and went them two better. Burns and Pinckney hit safe, while Stratton filled the Pinckney hit safe, while Stratton filled the bases by not allowing Dailey to hit the ball. Hemming sacrificed, sending home Burns. With two out Stratton made a muff of Collins' grounder, and, after falling down, threw wild to first base, allowing the other two men to tally. Neither could send a man ground the bases until the fifth inning, when Hanlon's men tied the score. Stratton and Beckley hit safely. Browning then came along with a hit to center, and, as Dailey allowed the returned ball to pass him, both men on bases scored. In the eighth inning Griffin got in a double and tallied on two successive sacrifices. A wild throw of Miller gave O'Brien two bases on his weak hit. Pinckney's hit scored O'Brien. Score:

ISSUING DOG LICENSES.

Can Procure Their Papers Any Time Within Fifteen Days.

The registration of dogs began yesterday

Early in the morning Superintendent Weir decided that in order to avoid the rush at the Department of Public Safety offices, an to better accommodate the people, licenses would be issued at the Central, Seventeenth ward, Nineteenth ward and Twenty-eighth ward, Nineteenth ward and Twenty-eighth ward police stations. All day a crowd of anxious owners crowded into Central station. The impression had gotten out that only one day was to be allowed for securing the licenses. After arriving at the station they were informed that time would be allowed until June 15 at least, and many of them went away to come back when there is not such a rush. A number brought their dogs with them. This is unnecessary, as the licenses will be issued on the statement of the owners.

licenses will be issued on the statement of the owners.

"Before we are through I expect there will be at least 1,500 dogs licensed," said Chief Brown yesterday. "We are giving the poo-ple 15 days, which is pienty of time for everybody to attend to it."

At the Central station 130 licenses were uicide of Mrs. Celia Fisher in Allegheny Yesterday. Celia Fisher, aged 63, of Allegheny, delib-erately walked in the Allegheny river, above erately walked in the Allegheny river, above the Seventh street bridge, yesterday morning and was drowned. Her body was taken to Herman & Ebbert's undertaking rooms.

Last night Coroner McDowell investigated the case. He found that Mrs. Fisher lived on East street, but four days ago she left her husband and went to her son Peter's house, on Long alley, because her husband was drinking. Yesterday morning she wandered out. She was seen walking into the river with her apron tied about her head. When she reached deep water she dived and was drowned before assistance could arrive.

CHANGES IN A HOTEL.

Charley Miller Once More at the Mone gahela House.

The Monongahela House looks as it used to in olden times with Charley Miller once more behind the desk as chief clerk. He started in yesterday and is there to stay. He will will spend much of his time in the obby with the guests, and will help J. Morrow Arnold to manage the house. The lat-ter is kept busy looking after the coal busi-ness for Captain Brown.

Manager J. H. Kelly leaves the hotel to-morrow. Charles S. Holmes and he have se-cured the Kent House at Lakewood, and Mr. Kelly will devote himself to running this

A story gained circulation yesterday to the effect that Mrs. Margaret Lane was at Mercy Hospital, dying from consumption. Inquiry at the institution proved that she was not there, and all the consumptive patients are improving. The story was probably told because she says she is coming, but nothing has been heard from her recently.

Eventsion Tickets on Sale. The excursion tickets for the summ The excursion takets for the summer to Eastern points were put on sale by all the railroads yesterday. Union station was crowded with people going away, but "wait a little bit, just a little bit," and all the lines will have plenty to do.

Couldn't Find the Ghost. Captain Mercer, with several officers searched the alleged haunted house of John D. Scully in Hazelwood last evening at the owner's request. Of course they found nothing. The house has been empty for two years.

THE HISTORY OF A LYNCHING. Vigilantes Suffer Several Defeats and Wait

Year, but Finally Succeed. NEW ORLEANS, June 1 .- The fact of a lynching of a negro, Tump Hamp-ton, in Claiborne parish, has been mentioned, but not until to-day were the facts received by Governor Nicholls. The information came from the penitentiary officials to the effect that last year, Hampton, who was a resident of Claiborne Hampton, who was a resident of Claiborne parish, was suspected by his white neighbors of complicity in a hog-stealing case and they went in a body one night to his house. He warned them off from his house, and on their persisting in the attack he shot and killed one of the party.

This dispersed the crowd for the night, but the next day Hampton was arrested for the killing. An attempt was made to enter the jail and lynch him, but the plans of the mob were thwarted by the prompt action of the Sheriff. Hampton got a change of venue and stood trial for the killing, and was acquitted. He was immediately re-arrested for hog stealing, and fearing that he would be lynched if he remained in jail pending trial he pleaded guilty and was sentenced to one year; and the Sheriff delivered him at the penitentiary at once and the lynchers were again balked. The latter waited patiently until Hampton had served out his sentence, when they had him arrested on an

THE GORILLA UNDER ARREST.

CHICAGO, June 1.—"The arrest of Gorilla' is a most important one," said Lieutenant Kipley to-day, referring to the capture of Robert Rathbone in Canton, O., Saturday. Robert Rathbone, alias Roberts, will be brought back to Chicago for perpetrating a most daring bank robbery on the West Side over a year area. With a man named Benson, on the West Side over a year ago. With a man named Benson, who is also a clever crook, Roberts planned to rob F. C. Gehrke's bank. The attack was made at the noon hour when but few people were in the bank. Benson distracted the attention of one of the officials behind the counter while the "Gorilla" seized a bunch of bank notes containing $3,000. The clerk saw the theif, however, and gave the alarm. Both thieves took to their heels but were captured by officers and locked up.

The "Gorilla" was arraigned, placed under $2,500 bail and jumped his bond. Since then the police have been making every effort to capture the fugitive. Saturday Detective Kellogg arrested the fugitive as he was working the crowd that attended a show at Canton.

ABILITY THE TEST

the President Will Apply in Appoint the Circuit Court Judges. WASHINGTON, June 1 .- President Har ison has finally determined not to appoint the nine new Circuit Court judges until next December. He says no member has yet been selected. Political belief, it is understood, will not be a dominant requisite understood, will not be a dominant requisite for appointment to those positions. It is the intention of the President to select men for these places of the very highest legal ability, and, with the view of obtaining such talent, the legal work of candidates will be carefully scrutinized, and. wherever it is possible, their briefs and printed arguments before their respective Supreme Courts will be secured, and subjected to examination.

The ability and legal acumen expressed in these documents will, therefore, have much weight in assisting the President in reaching his conclusions. This is taken as an indication that, perhaps, there may be a Democrat appointed in one of the Southern circuits. The appointments of the five Land Court Judges is looked for confidently this week.
