ANOTHER MIGHTY LIVELY TIME.

The R. P. Synod at Last Gets Down to the Trial of the Seven Young Suspended Ministers.

DELEGATES NOT ALLOWED TO LEAVE.

Rev. A. W. McClurkin Purges Himself of Any and All Contempt.

The opening business of the R. P. Synod yesterday morning was to a good many people somewhat after the definition of the old lady of the word metaphysics: "When you dians ken what the minister is talking aboot and the minister himself dinna ken. then that's metaphysics." It was all rela-tive to what the record of Friday's proceed-ings should show, and only those who had followed the course of the Synod knew just what was wanted.

Dr. R. J. George read a minute of Friday's work, which he asked the Synod to substitute for the one it had approved.

Rev. J. F.Carson, amid objections, opposed the adoption, saying it was not a minute of Friday's proceedings. That it had no refer-ence to Dr. McAllister's letter, and as some members might have recourse to the civil courts before the affair ended, Rev. Mr. Carson objected to a tinkered minute, and wanted the record accurate.

Rev. J. R. Thompson also objected. He said it was not the province of the clerk to make history, but to record events as they Dr. George replied that he made his record as best he could and was responsible to the court; if the Synod chose to order it so, he could resign.

Dr.Mc Allister proposed to call up his resolution of Monday, and amid a storm of protests succeeded in having the letter and resolution ignin laid before the court.

The minute dropped from the record was

The minute dropped from the record was restored and announced ready for amendment. Instead of a letter introduced by Dr. McAllister it read "a copy of a letter."

Rev. J. F. Carson objected that it was not a true record, as he held the doctor had introduced it as a real letter.

A Voice—He introduced it distinctly as a copy.

Elder D. Torrens also objected to the word "copy."

A Letter Which Was and Was Not.

Rev. J. M. Foster, of Cincinnati, demanded to know how they knew it was a copy of a letter written by one of the six suspended ministers. He urged that the minutes should show that it purported to be a copy of a letter, but he falled to make any impression on the majority.

Dr. McAllister moved to strike out all of Dr. Sproull's resolution that the Synod having heard the statements now proceed to trail. The motion prevailed.

Elder R. M. Downey wanted to know in what position this action placed the accused. The reply was that it had no effect on them. Rev. McClurkin said he understood it to be a bar to appeals, but the Moderator said it was only a bar to complaints.

What position this action placed the accused did not exactly term it a complaint. The Moderator said the present action was not on the suspension, but on the complaints. It was explained that an appeal was from the decision of the yourt and a complaint as to injustice and wrong.

A voice—He introduced it distinctly as a copy.

Frof. Wilson didn't want the Synod to be precipitate, as one suspended brother had denied the power claimed by Presbytery.

Dr. McAllister moved to strike out all of Dr. Sproull's resolution that the Synod having heard the statements now proceed to trail. The motion prevailed.

The McClurkin said he unde once read on Monday, but termed it "a copy of a private letter." He asked that his ex-planation be minuted.

Dr. Armour moved to reconsider the reso-lution of disapprobation, but the motion falled.

Rev. J. C. Smith said Dr. McAllister's ex-

A motion was made to consider the appeals and complaints together and it carried, and a long discussion followed as to the method to be pursued in trial, whether the matters of injustice and wrong and the appeals should be considered separately or together. It seemed to be finally decided that the business would first be lumped and the various phases finally voted upon separately, such as whether the conviction was correct and as to whether the sentence was too severe, etc. nev. J. C. Smith said Dr. McAllister's ex-planation was only a speech and had no more right to a place on the record than other speeches, but the doctor got there. Dr. McAllister's resolution calling on the suspended to purge themselves of contempt was now reached. was correct and as to whether the sentence was too severe, etc.

After the complaint and appeal of Rev. Reed had been read, Rev. McClurkin arose and said that as his complaint was the only one not mixed with an appeal he should come first, and so he bared his neck and began his defense.

Rev. Mr. Somerville thought it probable the young men did not think they were violating church authority by exercising ministerial functions outside the R. P. Church, and moved the tabling of the resolution for the tire that its value. he time being. Dr. McAllister on the question of urging

Dr. McAllister on the question of urging suspended brethren to purge themselves of contempt, said he wanted to give them a chance and wanted the action to go on the record that the principle might be sustained, as it was a vital one. The papers were full of proof that the suspended brethren had been preaching since their suspension. Dr. McAllister said he wished to be understood, and charged ecolesiastical discourtesy. action of the Pittsburg Presbytery was illegal, as there were no witnesses to the charges preferred against him. It was un-just, as such procedure was dangerous. It and charged ecclosiastical discourtesy.

Don't slander sister churches.

Dr. McAllister—I am not. Rev. J. R. Thompson, of Newburg, N. Y.—

Just, as such procedure was dangerous. It was founded on false testimony, as he had not in 1830 used the language imputed to him. He appealed because it had been reported that the Pittsburg Presbytery had offered to dismiss the convicted by letter so that they could minister in other denominations and such offer had not by letter so that they could minister in other denominations and such offer had not been made to him. He also held the acts of the Presbytery to be illegal as contrary to the Book of Discipline. He argued that if statements said to have been made at the meeting of Presbytery in October are to be used as evidence they should have been committed to writing and held in the absence of proof of their truth that his unsupported denial unset them.

Rev. McClurkin asked that the libel be reframed, so as to conform to the order laid down in the Book of Discipline and witnesses be summoned to substantiate the charges made. He argued this phase at length, illustrating by hypothetical cases. He had offered to prove that statements made on the floor of Presbytery were false and was not allowed to do so. If he were to be condemned for his own statements, so be it, but not for the statements of others, and on false statements, and he held that he stood condemned on an inadmissible libel.

A little humor cropped out now and then even at the gravest times. While Rev. McClurkin was making his defense Rev. D. C. Ferris, a stalwart conservative, arcse and asked to be allowed to go home on account Dr. McAllister and wanted to know what right he had to be in contempt any more than the young ministers. Elder Stevenson referred to the statement of Dr. McAllister that he would not surrender a document to that he would not surrender a document to any authority short of a civil court. Rev. J. O. Bayliss, of New York, charged Dr. McAllister with inconsistency in reach-ing into the New York Presbytery. He held that all violators of law should be placed on the same plane. Rev. Mr. Bayliss did not think other churches were out of place when they recognized the young men. The sus-pension was not for immorality. Ministers in good standing in other denominations cannot be held to any line of conduct, short cannot be held to any line of conduct, short of immorality, laid down in the R.P. Church. pits. Prof. W. J. Coleman, of Beaver Falls, asked that all preliminary cobwebs be brushed aside and the Synod get down to business— dismiss the contempt feature and get at the heat. Rev. Mr. Ferris said all they should do Key. Mr. Ferris said all they should do would be to affirm the law of the church. Prof. Wilson said they had been told the church could only suspend for offenses against morality. As far as a man is concerned who shows contempt of court, there is no court. It is not proposed to shut the young men off the floor, if the Pittsburg Presbytery wants the trial.

Rev. Mr. Bayliss—I want to ask the professor a question.

ssor a question. Prof. Wilson—I won't answer it. The question was put, however, and an-swered at the request of the Moderator. Rev. Bayliss wanted to know if a Baptist minister were to sprinkle instead of im-minister were to sprinkle instead of im-merse and were disciplined and could go to another church, whether he could be held to be in contempt. Prof. Wilson said that min-ister was not coming to Synod as these men were and the cases were not parallel.

Would Place a Ban Upon the Ministers Rev. J. E. Thompson held that the author-ity of the R. P. Church did not follow the oung men out of the church. He further eld that they did not act as Christian ministers. If the prosecutors had their way the necused would not be allowed to hold family worship or say grace at the table or comfly worship or say grace at the table of colli-fort the dying by a prayer, not as ministers, but as Christians. He urged Dr. Somerville's resolution as a sedative to hush the gather-ing storm, dissipate the fog and enable them ing storm, dissipate the fog and enable them to get at the case.

Points of order came from all parts of the house during Rev. Mr. Thompson's speech, and when he concluded the convention's noise resembled that of many waters.

Dr. J. W. Sproull said there was but one thing to do, and that was to pass the resolutions. The views of the opponents of the Pittsburg synod would destroy all authority of the church. He wanted the young men to be allowed to come forward and clear their skirts.

An Evening Session for Reports.

The evening session was called to order at 7 o'clock for the transaction of the regular business of the Synod. After the opening prayer the report of the Board of Sustentation and Church Extension was read. It detailed the churches assisted. As to church extension, it was stated the contributions had been but $623 65 and only two congregations were assisted. It was recommended that the Synod donate $4,000 for sustentation and $2,000 for church extension. The report was referred back to the committee.

The next report was that of the Committee on Psalmody, which had been appointed in pursuance of a memorial from one of the congregations in relation to the Psalms. The report was to the effect that the main question was: did God appoint the Psalms as His form of worship? Quotations from Seriptures were made to show that the composition of the Psalms was inspired, and they were found suitable for all forms of worship.

The report was received and the resolu-Dr. McAilister read a statement on the subject.

Dr. Sproull wanted the young men to come forward and say they had never wished to show disrespect of the court's authority, so to help their case.

Rev. J. S. T. Milligan thought it wise to let the resolutions lie on the table at the present stage of the game. He held as fundamental principles were not attacked, there was no heresy in the action of the young men, simply a difference of opinion. In the first place, there was only a difference of opinion, the offense being as to application of that opinion.

The first was that the Synod renew its testimony to the Psalms as the only inspired form of worship. This was adopted. The second was also adopted. It was that the Synod enjoin all under its control to obey the injunction of the Word and praise God in the words of the Seer. not of opinion. Only those who obey the law have a right to discuss it. He held that if any were suspended by the R. P. Church, they were suspended from the Christian ministry and the preaching by the sus-pended was an act of discourtesy to the the Word and praise God in the words of the Seer.

The third resolution created some discussion. It was that the Synod renew its testimony in behalf of the revised edition of the Psalms as more accurate, nearer to the original and less encumbered with human additions than any other. A motion was made to strike this out, and some debate followed on the relative merits of the old and revised editions of the psalms. The motion to strike out was finally laid on the table for the time.

The next resolution was that a committee Pittsburg Presbytery.

President Johnston, of Geneva College, wanted to lift the blame off the shoulders of one of the accused and desired to explain, but the Synod shut him off and would not out the Synod shut him off and would not allow any vicarious work just then.

On Mr. Somerville's motion to table there were heaps of fun. Rev. Armor insistes on explaining his vote, and was ruled out on the suggestion of Dr. McAllister, but would not down and made some half-dozen speeches. Rev. Carson refused to vote unless he could explain, and so did President Johnston, of Geneva College. Rev. McClurkin refused to vote because he said, he couldn't comprehend how the word "purge" came into play. Rev. J. C. K. Milligan voted to table, accompanied by a protest against the deprivation of an explanation. J. R. Thompson declined to vote under the Moderator's ruling. The motion to table was lost, 27 to M.

The ayes and noes were insisted upon the final disposition, but one member thought the matter hadn't been sufficiently debated and in the melec the noon recess was taken.

Delegates Must Not Leave,

First in order in the afternoon Dr. R. J. George offered a resolution that delegates whose expenses were paid to do the work of Synod by the people had no right to go home without consent of Synod or to neglect the duty imposed upon them. The resolution passed.

Dr. W. J. Sproull offered a resolution that and a big tangic ensued. As to the evidence on which Rev. Mr. McClurkin was indicted, Dr. McAllister said the prosecution had based the indictment on minutes of the October Presbytery, and Rev. Mr. McClurkin was remiss in not objecting sconer and that the minutes of the October Presbytery should have been challenged sconer.

Rev. H. P. McClurkin called for the reading of the minutes of the Presbytery meeting on October 15, and they were, after some discussion, read.

on October 15, and they were, after some discussion, read.

Dr. R. J. George insisted that Pittsburg Presbytery should be heard in full as well as the accused, and that the order arranged should be adhered to, but after discussion it was decided that all should be tried together, but that the vote in Rev. McClurkin's case should be separate, and the clock showing the hour of 5 P. M., the Synod took a recess until 7 P. M.

Dr. McAllister called a meeting of the Pittsburg Presbytery, to be held immediately after adjournment in the northeast corner of the church. It was a close communion gathering. Dr. McAllister said there was nothing of public interest in it.

The resolution passed.

Dr. H. H. George now moved the previous question to cut off debate on preliminary work, as he said some delegates were getting restive, and intimated that Pittsburg Presbytery was not in much of a hurry. The motion passed without dissent.

Dr. McAllister's resolutions in arrest of business and issue of process to hurry the suspended men before the Court as in contempt, and give them a chance to purge themselves, came up, and Rev. Somerville called for the ayes and noes.

Rev. J. R. Wylie thought a division necessary, as one of the accused had filed an interlocutory, but his view failed, and the vote was taken.

These works, situate on the Monongahela river and the Bellevernon branch of the P. McK. & Y.R. R., 5 miles above McKeesport, with a river frontage of one and a half miles, are provided with both river and milroad transportation. The entire property, including 220 acres of coal net, 122 acres of surface, with the houses, buildings, stores, offices, which is not a surface, with the houses, buildings, stores, offices, works in operation, are offered for sale. The works control large fields of coal adjoining and otherwise inaccessible to the river. They are worked without the usual expenses attending drainage and ventilation. The coal is almost wholly free of sulphur and binders, and is noted for its superior quality.

We are, for necessities of the mine, taking out one small piece of coal, and can show over $1,200 per acre clear above expenses.
