Columbus. 9 Washington. 6 Boston. PHILADELPHIA, June L-"With Roldwin in the box we'll win sure-you fellows won't get over six hits," said Manager Hanlon this afternoon be-fore the game. With two exceptions Manager Edward's observation was all right-the Pittsburgs lost and the Phillies did secure more than six hits, in fact, they just doubled six. The game was entirely too jughandled to be interesting.

At no time during the exercises did the Pittsburgers give any indication of being the terrors they are cracked up to be. They played like so many mer working on a contract, as far as showing they knew as much about team work as Browning does of theosophy. He Wasn't a Terror.

Baldwin had no terrors for the Quakers who, although they haven't a collective batting average of 200 or thereabouts, are apt to make any pitcher weary once in awhile The visitors' error column merely indicates the tired character of their field play. With the exception of Miller, Mack and Beckley, none of them showed any marked disposi-tion to over exertion, and twice extra bases were made on hits which snappy fielding od throwing might have prevented. The Phillies began scoring in the third. Inmilton opened with a single, and went to nd on Deichanty's out at first, on which d have been easily retired, but, for ately, Bockley fell in a trance, as he con chied the stitches on the ball. Shindle up with a liner that went whistling all way out to left field, and Hamilton d. Thompson hit to Reilly, who reshindle at second. After two strikes been called on Myers, Thompson started cond and Mack threw to Berger. The was low, and the ball rolled on in its r without molestation from either or, Miller or Hanlon, and finally wound the bicycle track, Thompson scoring. the stitches on the ball. Shindle

Hurst Even Robbed Them. The Phillies were presented with a run in the fourth by Umpire, Hurst. With two-out Allen reached first on balls. Esper made a scratch hit and Hamilton was given a life "a rumble by Berger, Delehanty hit safely center, and the procession started. Hanon got the ball and torew out Hamilton at rd. Allen scored all right, but Esper did not cross the plate until after Harrison had been touched out. Umpir: Hurst, however, extending the play at third, declared that two runs were scored. two runs were scored.

The Phillies seventh was a very large inning. Shindle began with a fly to Miller.
Thempson followed with a hit to right, on which he made three bases on good running.
Maxer's fly to short was gracefully muffed by Carroll, and Thompson counted. Clements was sent to first on balls. Myers drove a beauty over Browning's head, and Mayers, and Clements counted. Allen sent a single over second, and Myers came in. Hamilton oliowed with a liner to right, which struck he wall and bounded back into Carroll's ands, and Allen scored.

Carroll's single and steals to second and hird and Hanlon's out gave Pittsburg a run a the seventh, and Carroll got around again a the ninth on a famble by Shindle, a must y Myers, a steal to third and a single by larger. Attendance, 2022. Score:

Miller's piaying in the fifth inning was such as to cause Hanlow's displeasure, and Miller's fine was increased to $100 and he was taken out of the game. Miller told a friend before leaving Brooklyn that he believed Hanlow's action to be induced by personal motives. He asserted that he would not pay the fine and there is likely to be trouble ahead for him, it has been apparent that Miller and the old members of the Pittsburg club are not on the friendliest of terms.

Great Game Expected. [SPECIAL TELEGRAM TO THE DISPATCH.] WELLSBURG, W. VA., June 4,-The East Liver Wellishing, W. Va., June 4.—The East Liverpool club and the home team will cross bats here Saturday next. A great deal of interest is being taken in the game, as East Liverpool is in the lead, with Wellsburg second, and a very interesting time is expected. Considerable money is being put up on the game, and the odds favor East Liverpool elightly. At least 100 people are expected to come down from East Liverpool to see the game, and a considerable delegation is expected to come from Toronto and New Cumberland.

Local baseball patrons may look out for some lively fun. A challenge was received in this office last evening that will probably result in a contest that will figure in the annals of local baseball. The bartenders of Allegheay want to play the bartenders of Flitsburg a ball game for $100 a side on any suitable date. If the Flitsburgers have nerve enough to respond the Allegheahans will meet them at this office and make a match. Surely Pittsburg is not going to take water in a case of this kind.

St. Clair.—William St. Clair, of Thirty-third street, is years old, an employe of the Pennsylvania Railroad, fell from a locomotive at Thirty-second street yesterday evening, suffering a severe scalp wound and a slight concussion of the brain. He was removed to the West Penn Hospital.

Lochenardes—Jacob Lochenaeder was injured at the Scalfe Foundry yesterday and was in an extremely critical condition at the West Penn Hospital last night. He fell into a pit and onto an oil can, the pipe of which penetrated the abdomen, causing internal bleeding. He was at once conveyed to the hospital in an ambulance. He is married and has a family.

Geeman—John German, employed at D. O. Cunningham's glassworks, was cut on the arm and one of the large arteries severed by a roller breaking and falling on him. He came very near dying from loss of blood.

Warnes—Mrs. Flora Wagner, who resides at the head of South Twenty-second street, was knocked down at Twelfth and Carson streets by a team driven by Lew Johnston, an employe of W. A. Minick. She was able to proceed to her home shortly afterward. Johnston drove to Oliver's Fifteenth street mill and left his team, making his escape through the mill.
