

ARE YOU A SPORTS MAN?

Five Words About the Late Disastrous Defeats of the Pittsburgh Baseball Team.

GENERAL AFFAIRS OF THE GAME.

Necessity of Something Being Done to Stop the Crooked Transactions at the Trotting Meetings.

THE SLAVIN AND KILRAIN CONTEST.

Local Team Scullers of Front and Carry Trotting Regarding the Best Records.

As far as baseball has been concerned the week has not been a very pleasant one for the admirers of the Pittsburgh team.

It is a long time since such a sudden change of sentiment, such a revolution of feeling, in a local place among local baseball cracks as there has during the last few days.

This is very unfortunate, indeed, for everybody concerned. But the change of feeling cannot be wondered at, and there is one consolation that this feeling is not deep-rooted.

It will disappear just as soon as the team run up a few successive victories, and they are sure to do that.

The best friends of the local team are bound to admit that, they, the team, have so far been very disappointing.

When a team is being badly beaten and in a very regular way, all invariably have fault to find and suggestions to make.

Of course, this is just the time to make them, and we have to do this in a way that is in good spirit and with due modesty.

Some More Local Matters. When a team is being badly beaten and in a very regular way, all invariably have fault to find and suggestions to make.

and I may say emphatically, declared they would never leave Cincinnati. Poor Cincinnati! They said more. They made it known that they would continue to tramp under foot the national agreement and decline to recognize the National League.

These Crooked Trotting Races. The trotting season has hardly opened yet, but what little of it we have had has not been very satisfactory.

It is not too long since the season opened in such a questionable way. What with the rumors of crookedness at Homewood and the facts of questionable work at Baltimore.
