MANY DIFFERENT LOADS TO CARRY

Business Troubles, the Woes of the Perse cuted and Disease.

A SERMON RICH WITH ILLUSTRATION

[SPECIAL TELEGRAM TO THE DISPATCH.] BROOKLYN, June 7 .- The subject of Dr. Talmage's sermon this morning was "The Burden Bearer," and his text Psalms 55:22:

shall sustain thee." David was here taking his own medicine If anybody had on him heavy weights David had them, and yet out of his own experience he advises you and me as to the best way of

has a burden on the other shoulder. The day I left home to look after myself and for myself, in the wagon my father sat driving, and he said that day something which has kept with me all my life: "DeWitt, it is always safe to trust God. I have many a me come to a crisis of difficulty. You may now that, having been sick for 15 years, it know that, having been sick for 15 years, it was no easy thing for me to support a family: but always God came to the rescue."

Oh, my friends, what we want is a practical religion! The religion people have is so high up you cannot reach it. I had a friend who entered the life of an Evangelist. He gave up a lucrative business in Chicago, and he and his wife finally came to severe want. He told me that in the morning at prayers in said: "O Lord, thou knowest we have not a monthful of food in the house! Help me, help us?" And he started out on the street, and a gentleman met him and said: I have been thinking of you for a good while. You know I am a flour merchant; if you won't be offended, I should like to send you do not the Lord, and the Lord sustained lim.

ave business burdens. When we see a man arried and perplexed and annoyed in busi-ess life, we are apt to say: "He ought not to we attempted to carry so much." Ah! it man may not be to blame at all. The Tribulations of Business.

here is many a man with keen foresight and large business faculty who has been flung into the dust by unforeseen circum-stances springing upon him from ambush. When to buy, when to sell, when to trust, and to what amount of credit, what will be the effect of this new invention of machinery, what will be the effect of that loss of crop, and a thousand other questions perplex business men, until the hair is silvered and deep wrinkles are plowed in the cheek; and the stocks go upby the mountains and go flown by the valleys, and they are at their wits' ends, and stagger like drunken men.

There has never been a time when there have been such rivalries in business as now, it is hardware against hardware, books upanist books, chandlery, against chandlery. lardware against hardware, books it books, chandlery against chandlery, it do article against imported article usund stores in combat with another and stores. Never such advantage of never such variety of assortment, so much splendor of show window, so much advaltness of salesmen, so much acuteness of advertising, and ill these severities of rivalry in busiow many men break down! Oh, the non the shoulder! Oh, the burden on art! You hear that it is avariee which these men of business through the these men of business through the and that is the commonly I do not believe a word of it.

Grip, Gouge & Co. Have No Monopoly. The vast multitude of these business men re toiling on for others. To educate their suscholds, to have something left so then they pass out of this life their wives and children will not have to go to the poorse-that is the way I translate this enority of that energy. Grip, Gouge & Co. do not do all the business. Some of us remem-ser when the Central America was coming from California, it was wrecked. Pres-Arthur's father-in-law was the heroic in of that ship, and went down with of the passengers. Some of them got to lifetonts, but there was a young man plan from California who had a long of in into lifeboats, but there was a young man-cturning from California who had a bag of old in his hand; and as the last beat shoved if from the ship that was to go down, that an shouted to a comrade in the boat: "Here, John, catch this gold; there is jobs; take it home to my old mother, it will take her comfortable in her last days." Grip Louge & Co. do not do all the busimake her comfortable in her last days."

Grip, Gouge & Co. do not do all the business of the world. Ah! my friend, do you ay that God does not care anything about our worldly business? I tell you God nows more about it than you do. He mows all your trials, from the day you took hold of your first yard stick, down to the sale of the last yard of ribbon, and the God who helped David to be King, and who helped layelock to be a soldier will help you to discharge all your duties. He is going to see ou through.

A young accountant in New York City got accounts entangled. He knew he was onest, and yet he could not make his acand night until he was nearly frenzied. ed been misappropriated, and be knew be-God he was honest. He knew if he not that day make his accounts come ht, he would go into disgrace and go anishment from the business estab-

He went over there very early, are was anybody in the place, and down at the desk and said: thou knowest I have tried to be right. Help me to-day-help me this out right: Help me to-day—help me this morning."

The young man arose, and, hardly knowing why he did so, opened a book that hay on the desk, and there was a leaf containing a line of figures which explained everything. In other words, he cast his burden upon the Lord, and the Lord sustained him. Young man, do you hear that? Oh, yes; God has a sympathy with anybody that is in any kind of toil! He knows how heavy is the hod of bricks that the workman carries up the ladder of the wall; he bears the pickax of the miner down in the coal shaft; he knows how strong the tempest strikes the sailor at the masthead; he sees the factory girl among the spindles, and knows how her arms ache; he sees the sewing woman in the fourth story.

ond-There are a great many who have a weight of persecution and abuse upon them. Sometimes society gets a grudge against a man. All his motives are misrep-resented and his good deeds are depreciated. With more virtue than some of the honored and applauded, he runs only against raillery and sharp criticism. When a man begins to he has not only the force of natural gravitation, but a hundred hands to help him in the precipitation. Men are per-secuted for their virtues and their successes. The character sometimes is so lustrous that the weak eyes of envy and jealousy cannot bear to look at it. It was their integrity that put Joseph in the pit, and Daniel in the den.

The world always has had a cross between two thieves for the one who comes to save it. High and holy enterprise has always been fellowed by abuse. The most sublime trugedy of self-sacrifice has come to burlesque. The graceful gait of virtue is always followed by grimace and travesty. The sweetest strain of poetry ever written has come to ridiculous parody, and as long as there are virtue and righteoneness in the world, there will be something for iniquity to grin at. All along the line of the ages, and in all lands, the cry has been: "Not this man, but Barabbas, Now, Barabbas was robber." And what makes the persecutions of life worse, is that they come from people whom you have helped.

A Universalism of Damnation.

A Universalism of Damnation. A clergyman of the Universalist Church ent into a neighborhorhood for the establishment of a church of his denomination, and he was anxious to find some one of that denomination, and he was pointed to a certain house, and went there. He said to the tain house, and went there. He said to the man of the house:

"I understand you are a Universalist; I want you to help me in the enterprise."

"Well," said the man, "I am a Universalist, but I have a peculiar kind of Universalism."

"What is that?" asked the minister.

"Well," replied the other, "I have been out in the world, and I have been cheated and slandered and outraged and abused until I believe in universal damnation!" The great danger is that men will become cynical and given to believe, as David was tempted to say, that all men are liars. Oh, my friends, do not let that be the effect upon your souls! If you cannot endure a little persecution, how do you think our fathers endured great persecution? Motley, in his Dutch Republic, tells us of Egmont, the martyr, who, condemned to be beheaded, unfastened his collar on the way' to the scaffold, and when they asked him why he did that, he said: "So they will not be detained in their work; I want to be ready." Oh, how little we have to endure compared with those who have gone before us!

"Cast thy burden upon the Lord, and He | The Miserable Have the Best of Company. Now, if you have come across ill-treatment, let me tell you you are in excellent company-Christ and Luther and Gallleo and Columbus and John Jay and Joshua Quincy and thousands of men and women, the best spirits of earth and heaven. Budge petting rid of burdens. This is a world of burden-bearing. Coming into the house of prayer there may be no sign of sadness or sorrow, but where is the man who has not a conflict? Where is the soul that has not a struggie?

And there is not a day of all the year when my text is not gloriously appropriate, and there is never an audience assembled on the planet where the text does not fit the occasion: "Cast thy burden upon the Lord, and He shall sustain thee." In the far East wells of water are so infrequent that when a man owns a well he has a property of very great value, and sometimes battles have been fought for the possession of one well of water, but there is one well that every man owns, a deep well, a perennial well, a well of tears.

Good Words From His Old Father.

If a man has not a burden on the other shoulder. The box of the conting into the house of prayer than thousands of men and women, the best spirits of earth and heaven. Budge not one inch, though all hell wrack upon you its vengeance, and yon be made a target for devils to shoot at.

Third, There are others who carry great burdens of physical adhments. When sudden six here as the castles of life by storm, we appeal to God; but in these chronic allments which wear out the strength day after day, and week after week, and year after year, how little resorting to God for solace! Then people depend upon their tonics and their plasters and their cordiais rather than upon heavehy stimulants. Oh, how few people there are completely well! Some of you, by dint of perseverance and care, have kept living to this time; but how yon have had to war against physical alliments. Antediluvians, without medical college and infirmary and apothecary shop, multiplied their years by hundreds; but he who has gone through the gauntlet of disease in our time, and has come to 70 years of age, is a hero worthy of a palm.

The World a Hospital of Diseases. The world seems to be a great hospital, and you run against rheumatisms and consump-tions and scrofulas' and neuralgias and scores of old diseases baptized by new nomenclature. Oh, how heavy a burden sickness is! It takes the color out of the sky and the sparkle out of the wave and the sweetness out of the fruit and the luster out and the sparkle out of the wave and the sweetness out of the fruit and the luster out of the night. When the limbs ache, when the respiration is painful, when the mouth is hot, when the ear roars with unhealthy obstructions, how hard it is to be patient and cheerful and assiduous! "Cast thy burden upon the Lord." Does your head ache? His wore the thorn. Do your feet hurt! His were crushed of the spikes. Is your side painful! His was stuck by the spear. Do you feel like giving way under the burden! His weakness gave way under a cross. While you are in every possible way to try to restore your physical vigor, you are to femember that more soothing than any stimulant, and more strengthening than any tonic, is the prescription of the text, "Cast thy burden upon the Lord, and He shall sustain thee." We hear a great deal of talk now about faith cure, and some people say it cannot be done and it is a failure. I do not know but that the chief advance of the church is to be in that direction. Marvelous things come to me day by day, which make me think that if the age of miracles is past, it is because the faith of miracles is past, it is because the faith of miracles is past.

An Abscess Cured by Faith.

An Abscess Cured by Faith. An Abscess Cured by Faith.

A prominent merchant of New York said to a member of my family: "My mother wants her case mentioned to Mr. Talmage." This was the case. He said: "My mother had a dreadful abscess, from which she had suffered untold agonies, and all surgery had been exhausted upon her, and worse and worse she grew until we called in a few Christian friends and proceeded to prove worse she grew until we called in a few Christian friends and proceeded to prayabout it. We commended her case to God and the abscess began immediately to be cured. She is entirely well now, and without knife and without any surgery." So that case has come to me, and there are a score of other cases coming to our ears from all parts of the earth. Oh, ye who are sick, go to Christ! Oh, ye who are worn out with agonies of body, "cast thy burden upon the Lord and he shall sustain thee!"

Another burden soma have to carry is the burden of bereavement. Ah! these are the troubles that wear us out. If we lose our property, by additional industry, perhaps, we may brung back the estranged fortune; if we lose our good name, perhaps by reformation or morals we may achieve again reputation for integrity; but who will bring back the dear departed? Alas! me for these empty cradles and these trunks of childish toys that will never be used again. Alas! me for the empty chair and the silence in the halls that will never echo again to those familiar footsteps. Alas! for the cry of widowhood and orphanage.

Good Comfort for Embittered Souls. What bitter Marahs in the wilderness, what cities of the dead, what long black shadow from the wing of death, what eyes sunken with grief, what hands tremulous with bereavement, what hands tremulous with bereavement, what instruments of music shut now because there are no fingers to play on them! Is there no relief for such souls! Ay, let the soul ride into the harbor of my text.

The soul that on Jesus hath leaned for repose, I will not, I will not desert to its foes; That soul, though all hell shall endeavor to shake, I'll never, no never, no never forsake, Till never, no never, no never forsake.

Now, the grave is brighter than the ancient tomb where the lights were perpetually kept burning. The searred feet of Him who was "the resurrection and the life" are on the broken grave hillock, while the voices of angels ring down the sky at the coronation of another soul come home to glory.

Then there are many who carry the burden of sin. Ah, we all carry it until in the appointed way that burden is lifted. We need no Bible to prove that the whole race is ruined. What a spectacle it would be if we could tear off the mask of human defliement, or beat a drum that would bring up the whole army of the world's transgressions—the deception, the fraud and the rapine and the murder and the crime of all centuries! Ay, if I could sound the trumpet of resurrection in the soul of the best men in this audience, and all the dead sins of the past should come up, we could not endure past should come up, we could not endur-the sight.

When Sin Will Lose its Grip. Sin, grim and dire, has put its clutch upon the immortal soul, and that clutch will never relax unless it be under the heel of Him relax unless it be ander the heel of Him who came to destroy the works of the devil. Oh, to have a mountain of sin on the soul! Is there no way to have the burden moved? O, yes. "Cast thy burden upon the Lord." The sinless One came to take the consequences of our sin! And I know He is in earnest. How do I know it? By the streaming temples and the says, "Come unto Me all ye who are weary and heavy laden, and I will give you rest."

Why will prodigals live on swine's husks when the robe and the ring and the Father's welcome are ready? Why go wandering over the great Sahara desert of your sin when you are invited to the gardens of God, the trees of life, and the fountains of living water? Why be houseless and homeless for ever when you may become the sons and daughters of the Lord God Aimighty?

TWO RAILROAD WRECKS.

A Trainman Badly Injured on the Pittsburg and Western. A freight train went through a trestle at Willow Grove station, on the Pittsburg and Western railroad, Saturday, and some of the cars rolled over a 60-foot embankment. One of the trainmen, Peter Turney, was thrown down the bank and had both legs broken in two places. He was brought to the Allegheny General Hospital, where his legs were amputated. His home is in Lawrenceville.

An eastbound passenger train on the Pittsburg, Ft. Wayne and Chicago Railroad was wrecked at Glenfield at 6:30 o'clock the same evening. The train was running at a good rate or speed when a driving rod on the eu-gine broke. The engine was thrown from the track and wrecked and some of the cars were derailed. No one was injured.

An Active Demand for Offerings in Produce Lines.

FAILURES OF BOSTON SHOE MEN Have a Depressing Effect on Light Hides

and Calf Skins. HEAVY STEER HIDES QUOTED STRONG

OPPICE OF PITTSBURG DISPATCH, SATURDAY, June 6, 1891.

Commission men report a very active trade for the week, and a good demand for all good stuff offered. The features of the week were the advance in old potatoes and the drop in dairy products, particularly cheese, which has been coming to our markets in such large quantities of inte that prices have found a lower level. Fancy Elgin creamery butter is a shade higher than it was a week ago, but all common grades it was a week ago, but all common grades are dull and slow.

Among the new things on the market during the week were home-grown strawberries and cherries. The home crops in these lines are not at all promising, and the demand so far is good for all offered. It is not often that commission bouses of this city are as well cleaned up at the close of the week as they are to-day. All perishable stuff finds ready buyers of late.

Hides and Calf Skins.

The recent failures of Boston shoe dealers have had a depressing influence on buff hides and calf skins. After two or three heavy failures reported a week or two ago, another is reported this week, which had another is reported this week, which had the effect of still further depressing a market already demoralized. It is evident that the manufacture of footwear is overdone. The big failures of manufacturers prove that more than enough is produced, and we are to have new illustrations of Darwin's "survival of the fittest" in the near future. The effect of the depression is realized most in light hides and calfskins, which are lower than they were a week ago. For particulars see quotations. In spite of the decline in buff hides heavy steer hides are strong and show an upward tendency. Heavy hides have not been as high at this season for several years as they are at the present time. In this market and presumably in all markets the kill of heavy beeves has been light of late, and the effect is seen in light receipts of heavy hides. On the other hand, light weight cattle are plenty and the hides from light of the care are light and lower.

Harness Leather. Trade in this line is usually slow at this Trade in this line is usually slow at this time of the year. Allegheay tanners report a fair trade for the season. There is little accumulation of stock. Trade is expected to pick up about the beginning of July, and the reputation of Allegheny harness leather insures a good demand when the movement starts. Following are prices of oak harness leather as furnished by James Callery & Co.:

A Prosperous Trade. The returns of trade show that the imports The returns of trade show that the imports of hides and skins to the United States (exclusive of für skins) amounted inst year to upward of $27,000,000 in value. During the last nine months, says the Philadelphia Record, these imports amounted in value to $21,441,378, an increase of more than $5,000,000 over the same period of the previous year. In the last year the exports of leather and the manufactures from the United Street tis manufactures from the United States amounted to upward to $13,000,000 in value. Our Australian representative sends us samples of a new kind of hide being now samples of a new kind of hide being now produced in that country, says the Boot and Shoe Trades Journal. To say it is raw hide would not be strictly correct, for it is first prepared and dressed in a certain manner, and afterward dried in the sun. It is especially suitable for machine bands and laces, military belts and cross straps. It is also used for the manufacture of soldiers and firemen's helmets, being especially light. The unsterial is said to resist a rifle bullet at 100 yards. It is too much to anticipate that some day our warriors will, unlike those of ancient time, who were clad in coats of mail, be clad in coats of leather, and thus give us real proof of the old adage, that there is nothing like it.

Bulls Weaken Under Favorable Report From Southern Wheat Districts—A Small Bulge in Corn and Oats Not Sustained— Early Advance in Provisions Lost. CHICAGO—Trading in wheat was again of only secondary importance in Saturday's speculative business, corn being by far the strongest market on the floor. The bulls in speculative business, corn being by far the strongest market on the floor. The bulls in wheat were greatly discouraged, the market responding very freely to any bearish news that was set afloat, but utterly rofusing to respond to influences of the opposite sort. Despite the strength of corn and the liberal purchases for shipment and export, wheat sagged steadily.

Dispatches from Texas said that the harvest was in full blast, and shipments from that country would probably begin in ten days. Cooke county, the banner wheat county of the State, reported that it would raise as much wheat this year as for the last three. Samples of fine wheat from Charleston, Mo., some of which was cut early in the week and the balance to be cut next week, were shown on the floor and the effect was depressing. The crop reports received late in the session were unfavorable, but came too late to affect the market. A private dispatch from Paris quoted the weather hot, and reports from New York said that wheat bought for the first half of June shipment was being resold at a loss.

Provisions started easy because of large receipts of hogs, but improved sharply with corn. Offerings by packers and the break in wheat carried them off to the lowest figure of the day. A temporary advance of about 7%c in pork, 5c in lard and 2%c in ribs took place; the advance, however, was all lost, and pork at the close showed a decline of 7%c to 10c, lard of 5c and ribs of 5c. The estimated receipts of hogs for next week were for a liberal movement and the selling out of July and buying of September at an increase of the carrying changes were weakening influences at the close.

The leading futures ranged as follows, as corrected by John M. Oakley & Co., 45 Sixth street, members of Chicago Board of Trade:

OFFICE OF PITTSBURG DISPATCH, SATURDAY, June 6. COUNTRY PRODUCE (Jobbing Prices) Cheese is coming in beyond the capacity of our markets to absorb, and prices are reduced, as will be seen by quotations. A few weeks ago the complaint was that there was not enough; now the cry is too much. The feast follows the famine. Dairy products of all kinds are slow, with the exception of fancy brands of creamery butter. Receipts of strawberries were very large to-day, but there were very large to-day, but of strawberries were very large to-day, but there were none too many, as stock was all cleaned up at noon. Not less than 1,000 crates of berries were sold by Pittsburg com-mission men to-day, or an amount equiva-lent to ten express carloads. The first home-raised strawberries of the season showed up this week. Home cherries are coming in freely, and demand is reported good for all offered.

Sugar is the uncertain quantity of mar kets. Usually at this time of the year an up-ward movement is inaugurated, as demands ward movement is inaugurated, as demands are large for fruit preserving. This season stocks are unusually large, and time only will tell whether or not the usual summer rise will come. Coffee is quiet at the decline already noted. The new coffee crop will soon be due, and Brazilian news points to a full average crop.

WALL STREET'S RECORD. VERY DULL AND STEADY STOCK

MARKET SATURDAY. Firm Tone in a Few Shares Gives Character to the Trading-Chicago Gas and Whisky Fluctuating-Exports and Imports of Specie. NEW YORK, June 6.- The stock market to

New York, June 6.—The stock market today was dull and steady in the main, but a firm tone was developed in a few stocks, which gave character to the trading and was the means of leaving most of the list slightly higher at the close. The general expectation was that the bank statement would show only a slight change from that of last week, and in this there was no disappointment, though the statement indicated a large loss in cash, which, however, the decrease in the legal requirements prevented from ment, though the statement indicated a large loss in cash, which, however, the decrease in the legal requirements prevented from making any material loss in the reserve.

The trading was, in the main, merely professional, and reached only small proportions. In the great majority of the list the fluctuations were on the same limited scale. There was realizing in Chiengo Gas, and that stock retired ½ from the best price of yesterday, but heavy buying of Atchison took place, and a rise of ¾ followed. The Industrials, as a rule, followed Chicago Gas, and Whisky lost ½. The rest of the market was entirely featureless, and while $t$. Paul was active, no marked movement was seen.

The opening was made at slight changes from last evening's figures, and an improvement tendency in the first hour was followed by a partial reaction later. The close was steady at the following figures: Atchison is up 1 per cent, and Southern Pacific a like amount, while Chicago Gas lost only ¾.

The exports of specie from the port of New York last week amounted to $5,975,412, of which $6,414,825 was in gold and $50,577 silver. The imports of specie during the week amounted to $78,341, of which $74,560 was in gold and $3,000,000 by the Ems to London, and $1,000,000 by the La Gascogne to Paris.

LOCAL STOCKS AND MONEY.

Dullness the Feature of the Week-Funds Accumulating in Banks. Business on the local Stock Exchange last week was characterized by extreme dullness, total sales footing up a little less than 600 shares, half of which were furnished by Philadelphia Gas. Prices, however, were, in most instances, well sustained, showing a firm undertone. The only transaction yesterday was 10 shares of Electric at 12%. Closterday was 10 shares of Electric at 13%. Closing quotations, as compared with those of the previous week, show gains and losses about equally divided. Advances were made by Arsenal Bank, $1 50 a share; Chartiers Gas, Manufacturers' Gas, $1 50; Wheeling Gas, Second Avenue Street Rallway, Luster and Airbrake—all for fractions, except where noted. Small concessions were made in Philadelphia Gas, Central Traction, Pietsburg Traction, Pleasant Valley, Electric, Switch and Signal and Underground Cable. The week was totally destitute of striking feature in the local money market. The supply of funds increased as a result of light

Given a Chance to Rest. Michael Black walked from Philadelphia to this city. He was wandering up Carson street at an early hour Saturday in rather a dazed condition, caused, pre-sumedly, by the heavy mountain air en-countered on his trip. Thirty days was given him in which to recuperate.
