THE PENNSYLVANIA CO.'S NEW CUT-OFF

[SPECIAL TELEGRAN TO THE DISPATCH.] NEW CASTLE, June 8.—The following strange letter was received by a newspaper man of this city this morning, finely written on legal cap, which explains itself. Every effort is being made to find the name of the

"NEW CASTLE, June 7. "You may perhaps think this the strangest letter you ever received; but when you read ciear through you will see there is sense in it. I am a poor man, not only in this world's goods, but in health as well. In fact I have a short time to livent best. I have no insurance on my life and my wife and two children will be left in destitute circumchildren will be left in destitute circumstances. I am of some expense to them. I intend to commit suicide, but in doing so I propose to commit the deed fin such a manner that it will take me some time to die. Now, what I want to get at is this: How much will you pay me for an account of my thoughts and deeds as I draw near the dark veil? I intend to soil this to some newspaper and a card placed in the paper stating 'We will give $- for the article,' will let me know. I will consider this a contract and the money can be paid to my wife after I am gone. I propose to cut one of the large veins in my left arm and then take my pen in hand and write down the result until the cold arm of death compels me to stop. As you see from this hastily written letter I can write fairly well, and I promise you that the article will be interesting. In Districts."

NOT IN THE THIRD PARTY.

Powderly Says the Knights of Labor Are Not in Politics at All.

SCHANTON, June 8 .- General Master Workman Powderly was asked to-day in what way the People's party will affect the Knights.

"I have been asked that question every time a new party is organized, and that has been quite frequently," replied Mr. Powderly, "The Knights of Labor know no

"I was at Cincinnati, but the Knights of Labor, as a body, knew nothing of the organization of a third party there."

"You do not think the Knights will act with the People's party there?"

"The Knights will not. A majority of the members, as individuals, may. The Knights of Labor, understand me, will support that party, whether it be the Republican, Democratic or the People's, that will adopt the principles they advocate."

"What effect will the People's party have upon Republican majorities in Western States."

Well, now, you want to interview me on a "Well, now, you want to interview me on a question upon which I desire to express my-self with the greatest care," remarked Mr. Powderly. "I do not care to answer it in an informal interview of this kind. I do not wish to risk even a slight mistake, for it may subject me to the criticism of the entire country. Under other circumstances I will answer you."

A FALSE WIFE DISAPPEARS.

She Leaves a Note Intimating That She Has Committed Spicide.

SCHANTON, June 8 .- Mrs. William Smith, of this city, formerly of Brooklyn, has suddenly disappeared, and nothing is known of her whereabouts. Mrs. Smith is a handsome young woman of 21. A year ago her husband went to Huntington, Kan., intending to send for her when settled there. Meanwhile, she and her child stayed with her parents here. In an accident in Kansas Mr. Smith broke his shoulder. For months he was unable to write to her or send her money for her sup-

Among her admirers, meanwhile, was Edwin Milberg, foreman of the Dickinson Manufacturing Company's shops here, who took her to parties and excursions. She sought to procure a divorce from her husband on the ground of desertion. May 26 she received a letter from her husband containing a postal note for $45, with which to go West, also. After receiving the letter and money she wrote to her mother, saying that her mother would never see her again except to look on her dead face. It is thought that she committed suicide. Warrants are to be issued to-morrow for the arrest of Milberg and four other young men, who are supposed to know something of the utilist.

. THE PENNSYLVANIA'S PLANS.

A Cut-Off Route Between the West and Baltimore and Washington.

Whimling, June 8.—It is now certain that the Pennsylvania Railroad Company intends to construct an extension of its lines from Mansfield, O., to Martin's Ferry, and thence Mansfield, O., to Martin's Ferry, and thence across the Wheeling Terminal Bridge company's new bridge to this city.

The consolidation of the Northwestern Onio Company under the name of the Toledo, Mahoning Valley and Onio Raitroad means more than a change of name. The change means that the Pennsylvania Company will furnish the money to push the road through to this city, and ultimately through to the Atlantic seaboard. It will make a short cut-off for the Pennsylvania Company between Baltimore and Washington and the West.

Dr. Arrans, the Brownsville dentist, pleaded guilty at Uniontown yesterday of trying to bribe Judge Nathaniel Ewing, and was sentenced to one hour in jail and to pay a fine of $500. Owing to the great excite-ment, and possibly mental aberration, under which Abrams was laboring, the punishment was no greater.

THE FIRST ON RECORD.

A Licensed Saloon Keeper Caught Selling Liquor on Sunday.

Samuel Zalkin is the first licensed saloon keeper in Pittsburg ever arrested for violating the Brooks law by selling on Sunday. His place is at No. 201 Wylie avenue. Last Sunday morning Detective Coulson was passing the place when he noticed it was open. It was reported at once, and an officer was sent up to notify Mr. Zalkin to close his place at once. This he did not do.

Accordingly, yesterday morning Inspector McAleese made information against him for selling liquor on Sunday and Detective Coulson went up to arrest him. Zalkin objected to getting into the patrol wagon, but protests were of no avail and he landed in Central station.

Charles F. McKenna stated after the meeting that an offer of $30,000, to hold for 30 days, had been made for a portion of the property. Bishop Whelan, who was subsequently seen, said that the intention was to grade the property and sell it in building lots. He thought enough would be realized in this way to clear off the indebtedness. The remainder of the property would then be turned over to the Sisters.
