

A MAN ON THE STOCK. Large Receipts of Cattle at the East Liberty Yards, and the Markets Lower and Sluggish. No Prime Heavy Beaves, and But Few Light Ones Were Offered.

SHEEP DOWN, TAO AND SWINE STRAY (OFFICE OF FARMERS' DISPATCH.) Monday, June 7.

There were from 80 to 85 loads of cattle on the market at East Liberty yards this morning, against 50 loads last Monday. Quality of offerings was generally better than last week, but the market was slow and prices were reported as to the way from 10c to 25c per cwt. One commission man reported that the market was more than 1/2c lower at the first dash and that all signs pointed to a further break before day was over.

The range of markets was $18 to $20. One commission man reported that the market was more than 1/2c lower at the first dash and that all signs pointed to a further break before day was over.

The receipts of cattle at Herr's Island were below the average, numerically, and while many of the offerings were good, the market was slow and prices were reported as to the way from 10c to 25c per cwt.

The market at Woods' Barn. There were 200 head of cattle on sale by the Greenwalds at Woods' Barn yards, 188 from Chicago, 18 from Ohio and 20 from Pennsylvania.

Chicago cattle sold at a range of $5 25 to $5 50, the latter price being paid for a few 1,400-lb. steers close up to 1,500 lbs.

It Still Tends to Depress the Stock Market, Which Is Sustained Only by Favorable Crop Prospects—Laid Prices Better Than The Day's Lowest.

New York, June 8.—The stock market continued to be depressed yesterday and today, with the principal factor in the making being the shipments of gold.

A Big Thing on Paper. A gigantic scheme is on foot at St. Paul, Minn., in the building line. Architect C. A. Reed is perfecting the plans for an immense building, which will be the largest in the city.

The question of selling Brimstone corner may be considered settled in the negative. The price of anthracite coal at Chicago has advanced 1/2c per ton since Saturday.

Philadelphia has found some support at the close of the day. The market for the day was a bad day for outdoor amusement sales, but from the number of lots disposed of the demand seems to be on the increase.
