Wholesale Liquor Bill and Brooks Law Amendment Signed.

AN INCREASE OF LICENSE FEES.

Which Will Greatly Benefit the Three

Leading Cities.

ALLEGRENY COUNTY TAX BILL VETOED

(SPECIAL TELEGRAM TO THE DISPATCH.) HARRISHURG, June 9 .- Governor Pattison to-day attached his signature to the whole-sale license act, which it is estimated will increase the annual revenues of the State between $400,000 and $500,000. This law increases the license fee of wholesale liquor dealers from $500 to $1,000; fixes the rate in cities of the third class at $500; in other cities at $500; in boroughs at $200, and in townships at $100, all of which fees are payable into the State Treasury.

A bottler's license is fixed at $300 in cities, $200 in boroughs and $100 in townships. Distillers and brewers are permitted to deliver their products within the county where the license is granted, and all wagons used in delivering liquors are required to contain the name of the licensee and the number of his license in conspicuous letters and figures.

The Minimum of Sales. This act makes it unlawful for any rectifler, compounder, distiller or manufacturer to sell liquors in less quantities than one gallon or any wholesale dealer or storekeeper to sell any spirituous or vinous liquors in less quantities than, one quart, and liquors in less quantities than, one quart, and brewed or mait liquors in less quantities than 12 pint buttles. The drinking of any liquor on the premises of these licensees is problibited. The applicant is required to show that his place is necessary for the accommodation of the public, provided he is not a brewer or distiller, who is not subject to this condition. It must also be shown by the applicant that he is the only person pecuniarily interested in the business asked to be licensed.

The two bondsmen required can be secured from any portion of the proper county, but they must each be worth, over and above all encumbrances, $2.000 in real estata. Twelve reputable citizens from the county are required to sign the application for license. Provision is mide for remonstrances, and the court is empowered to refuse licenses if it should be shown to its satisfaction that the place asked to be licensed (except in the case of brewers or distillers) is not necessary for the accommodation of the public.

A Stand-Off on Fees.

A Stand-Oil on Fees. A bill of great importance to counties, cities, boroughs and townships was also approved to-day by the Governor. This is an mendment to the Brooks high license law, and requires that all license fees be paid into county, city, borough and township treasur-ies. In cities, $100 of the fee shall be paid into the county treasuries; in boroughs and townships, one-fith of the fee, the balance paid into the city, borough and township treasuries.

Under the law, which the act approved toay amends, in cities of the first class fourfiles of the license fees were payable to the
ity; in cities of the second and third classes, wo difful for the use of the cities and twofiles for the use of the proper county; in all ther office or boroughs, there-fifths for the se of said cities or boroughs, and one-lifth or the use of the proper county; in townuse of the proper county; in town-one-half for the use of the township, irth for the use of the proper county. count for the use of the State. In sand boroughs the State received te-fifth of the fees. As the new law allows the Commonwealth nothing, it will lose annually between $400,000 and $500,000 in revenues just about the same amount the wholesale law will add the same amount the wholesale in will add to the revenues of the public treasury. Un-der the legislation Philadelphia will be en-titled to all the retail liquor license fees, and Pittsburg and Allegheny to nine-tenths of them. The increased receipts in Philadel-phia are estimated at $1,000,000 a year, and in Pittsburg at $300,000.

A Compromise on the Bill.

A Compromise on the Bill.

The bill as it passed both houses made no change in the license fee, but simply provided for a different distribution of the funds than that recognized by the old law. As it passed the Senate, the bill allowed the counties none of the license moneys. When it reached the House, the counties were voted a share of the receipts, which led to the reference of the bill to a conference committee, who increased the amount of the license fee in cities of the first and second classes from $500 to $1,000. The rate prevailing in other places was not touched.

The following additional bills were signed by the Governor to-day: To regulate the manner of increasing the indebtedness of municipalities, to provide for its redemption and to impose penalties for its illegal in-crease, amending section 3 of the act re-lating to increase of indebtedness. Amend-ing an act to permit disabled soldiers to peddle by procuring a license without peddle by procuring a license without charge, extending the privilege to soldiers, sulfors and marines who are unable to prosailors and marines who are unal cure a livelibood by manual labor.

Protection for Alien Property Owners. Extending to any judicial sales the act to authorize foreign corporations to purchase real estate at judicial sales and to hold and convey the same under certain conditions. Providing for the confirmation of certain titles to real estate, relative to the conveyance of titles by aliens. Amending the act relative to the government of cities of the third class, by providing that in case of the creation of any board of officers the mem-bers thereof shall be elected or chosen by the Select and Common Councils, but no two persons from the same ward shall serve on board at the same time iny board at the same time.

I-Prohibiting unining and manufacturing corporations from carrying on stores known as company stores or general supply stores. Authorizing the payment of all fines and penalties imposed by any Alderman or Magistrate to any regularly incorporated Society for the Prevention of Cruelty to Animals bringing suit or prosecuting the charge.

Allegheny's Tax Revision Vetoed. Governor Pattison to-day disapproved the Allegheny tax revision bill introduced by Representative Nesbit. The following reasons are given for the veto: "There are sons are given for the voic. There are three objections to this bill, any one of which would, in my judgment, be fatal, even if various others of hardly less weight could not be found. It authorizes the appointment of three new officials in counties pointment of three new officials in counties where it is to operate, at an annual salary of $5,000 each, to perform certain duties which now comprise only a small portion of the duties of the office of County Commissioner, and which, I believe are performed without any serious complaint that they are burdensome or ill-required.

"In creating a new office to which are to be transferred duties now appertaining to that of County Commissioner, the Legislature has established what is unmistakably a "county office," enlarging the classes defined

"county office," enlarging the classes defined in Section 1 Article xiv. of the Constitution. County Officers Must Be Elected.

"In investing the courts of the county with the right of filling this office by appointment, the General Assembly has ignored the section of the same article ignored the section of the same article which says 'county officers shall be elected at the general elections'—not appointed by the courts. This act regulates the affairs of counties" but it relates at most to two and practically to a single one of the 67 counties of the State. It is therefore 'special and local,' and 'is directly in conflict with the Constitution."

The following bills were also vetoed: Providing for appointment of additional Deputy Register in counties having a separate Or-phans' Court and flying his salary at $2,500. Authorizing the taking, use and occupancy of public burial places in cities of the third class for nurposes of common school educa-tion. The Governor also vetoed a large num-ber of items in the general appropriation bills.

The Governor has written no voto of the bill to compel children to attend public schools at least 16 consecutive weeks a year, but in disapproving an item in the general appropriation bill, in connection with this act, he says his action was due to the fact that the bill did not meet his approval.

"To say that I am pleased with Mellin's Food is not to speak the entire truth. I am delighted with the way my little patients take it and with the complete manner in which it fulfills indications as a food for invalids," writes a physician.
