

TRAVELING A NEW HACK Mayor Gourley Will Investigate the Alleged Misconduct of a Police Official.

GRAVE ACCUSATIONS BEING MADE, Which His Honor Says Will Meet Their Just Reward if Sufficient Proof Can Be Collected.

SOME SENSATIONAL STORIES EXPECTED. Plenty of Comment Made over the Last Communication to Chief Brown.

Mayor Gourley has not written his last letter on municipal affairs. If he secures the information he is now looking for his next reply will be much more emphatic than any of his predecessors, and will be of a decidedly sensational strain.

Stimulus of Approaching Thunder. This is the species of game the Mayor is in a hunt for, and he apparently rather confident of bagging his prize before many weeks have slipped by.

The Mayor was informed on authority that can scarcely be questioned, that a certain police official had been taking illegal advantage of his position. The accusations against this official were that he had been in the habit of extorting money from persons for services which it is the duty of an officer in his position to render without any other compensation than that paid him by the city.

NEW TRACTION PROJECTS. An Extension Agreed on From Second Avenue to Squirrel Hill—Talk of Two Cross-Town Roads to the Park—Advantages of the Enterprises.

Two new passenger railway projects are on the carpet. One is an extension of the Second Avenue road up Greenfield Avenue so as to develop many acres of fine property lying between the Park and the Monongahela. Sales to the amount of several hundred thousand dollars have taken place there within the past two years, all in expectation of rapid transit.

THE OTHER ENTERPRISE has not advanced so far as that of the Second Avenue extension, but rather more has been discussed. It is said that the Citizens' Traction Company has under advisement a line across the city from Duquesne to the Park.

WILLIE TUCKEY Supposed to Have Been Enticed Away to New York. Since June 1 Willie Tuckey, a 16-year-old boy, has been missing from his home, No. 5234 Keystone Avenue.
