Its Old Quarters. The Board of Directors of the Cha of Commerce held its final meeting of the season yesterday afternoon. The only business transacted was the report of the Committee on Rooms. This committee reported that they thought the old quarters would best suit everybody, but that it will be next April before the rooms would be ready.

The committee was continued with full power to to act and were instructed to make arrangements for the occupancy of the present quarters until the old ones are fixed up. The board then adjourned until the first Monday in September.
