BREAKING JAIL TO FIND COOLNESS

INDECTAL TELEGRAM TO THE DISPATCH, I BRADDOCK, June 15 .- At 10 o'clock to-night Rebert Finnin, 25 years of age, is lying un-conscious in the office of Dr. A. W. Schooley, as the result of being hit with a stone. At Kinney's station, on the Pittsburg, Virginia and Charleston Railroad, the congregation of St. Peter's Church, Southside, Pittsburg, held a picnic to-day. The attendance was very large and everything passed off pleasantly until the party gathered at the station, waiting to take the train for home. While Finnin was standing with a party of friends an unknown man threw a stone into the crowd, which struck him on the right side of the head, inflicting a ghastly wound. The miscreant who threw the missile jumped on heard the train and was lost in the crowd. count of persuasion could induce the be put on the train, and he was left on the platform in a dying condition, s writing he is still unconscious and ly breathing, and the physicians in at-nee do not think he can live until

The idea here is that there was some private quarrel at the picnic. Revenge was sought and Finnin suffered. The man who rew the stone was seen but a moment, but was seen that he was dressed in a black eviot sult and was of a sandy complexion, is thought he either lived in Homestead

Southside. Suther, of the Twenty-fifth was on the train, but could do nothing count of the train pulling out so y. It is thought the trainmen were dand feared a riot. Finnin worked in he transportation department of the Edgar Thomson Steel Works and has a wife living a Johnstown. It is not thought he will yer recover sufficiently to tell the name of

earths a Case of Cruelty. Bepsons, June 15 .- The Children's Aid Sc circly here has brought to light one of the most startling stories of cruelty that has yet appened in Bedford county, Job Barefoot the steward of the almshouse. Several weeks ago the officers of the Children's Aid Society were notified that Nellie Stuckey, a 10-year-old girl who has been an inmate o the institution for several years, was being cruelly treated. On investigation by the so ciety its members learned that Nellie Stuckey was being confined in the insane depart-ment, where she was kept for several days at a time, and her food consisted of nothing he said the girl was insune. The so-nen waited on the Board of Directors, matter before them and asked that be given into their charge, which granted, having previously secured an nination by the county physician, who connect the girl sane. They found a hone for Nellie on a farm a few miles from Bestford, and the reports they have show that she is getting along well, and for the training she has had is particularly bright. Barefoot has said that he put the girl in among the insane as a means of punish-and is a years of age, and does his regular day's work. Mr. McCully, who is much older, makes his home at the Dayton Soldiers'

COKE OVENS BANKED. A Decreased Demand for the Fuel Causes the Shutting Down. TUDALE, June 15 .- The coke operato will blow out ovens on account of the de creased demand which has occurred in the market during the last week. The Frick Company to day blew out 22 per cent of their ovens at the Mutual, Calumet and Redstone works. These works have been running full since the collapse of the strike.

It is understood that McClure will also blow out a percentage of their interests, but it is not yet a certainty, as they have three of their plants now banked entirely. This move will throw several hundred men out of

DESPONDENCY'S DOINGS.

Cosnocros, June 15.—The dead body of Washington C. Wolfe, aged 85, and who had Washington C. Wolfe, aged 85, and who had been 67 years a type setter, was found floating in the Muskingum river within the limits of this city early this morning.

Until two weeks ago Wolfe held a stick on the Democratic Standard and was probably the oldest printer at work in the United States. It is thought he committed suicide, owing to old age, infirmity of health, poverty and despondency.

A PECULIAR REQUEST.

The Miners Are Asked to Sustain the Lo of Poor Shipments Presson, June 15.—D. & H. Colliery No. 1, at Parsons, is idle. The cause is a peculiar at Parsons, is idle. The cause is a peculiar one. Wholesale dealers in the large cities complained that the coal sent was a very poor quality. It was sent back, and the company wanted the men to stand the expense of replacing the coal or quit work.

The men all left No. 1 colliery. A large mass-meeting of all the men at the No. 1 and No. 2 collieries was held at Parsons last night, and it is probable that they will all strike.

She has been highly en-dorsed by almost every female organization in the country, such as the Women's Christian Temperance Union, the Women's League, etc., and the influence, irrespective of politics, is so strong that Secretary Poster, it is said, will not ignore it. Miss Cleveland has many enemies among the strong-minded women, and they will, no doubt, protest against the appointment of the ex-President's progressive sister. The position is without doubt the most important ever held

HALE AND HEARTY VETERANS.

McKeesport Possesses Three Lusty Survivors of the Mexican War.

McKeesport, June 15.—McKeesport has three survivors of the Mexican War, all of whom did active service to the end, also in the late war, Major John W. McCully, John Dell and W. Sharp. The latter served all through the Mexican War. He went to South America for the United States Government. After the Mexican War was over he put in long service, from San Francisco to Salt Lake City, and also assisted Fromont in planting the territorial boundary lines.

He is 65 years of age and a is knobbler at the W. Dewees Wood Company plant, and is laide and hearty. He draws a Mexican War service piension and is probably good for many more years. Mr. Dell is a contractor and is by years of age, and does his regular day's werk. Mr. McCally, who is much oider, the Government.
