

A DISPUTED ESTATE.

Two Administrators Appointed by Two Courts in One Case.

THE QUESTION ONE OF RESIDENCE.

It Makes a Big Difference Whether Millionaire Robertson

LIVED IN THIS STATE OR IN NEW YORK

[SPECIAL TELEGRAM TO THE DISPATCH.]

HUNTINGTON, Pa., June 17.—The settlement of the estate of Millionaire L. A. Robertson, who died in Brooklyn a few months ago, promises to prove a very interesting and complicated one.

Letters of administration were granted on his estate by the Register of Brooklyn a week after his death, and immediately thereafter a notice was served by the appearance of a woman who alleged that she was Robertson's wife, and laid claim to her right of dower.

Now a new complication arises. Certain relatives of the deceased, who will profit more liberally if they can show that Mr. Robertson was a resident of Pennsylvania instead of New York, have had letters of administration issued by the Register of Warren county, this State, so that now two different courts are acting as administrators.

CHARLES R. CAMPBELL, newly graduated from Princeton, drowned Tuesday evening while bathing in the Conemaugh river at Fackville.

HEPTASOPH'S FRIENDLY CONTEST.

Pittsburg and McKeesport in Rivalry, the Loser to Set Up a Banquet.

McKeesport, June 17.—There is a novel contest being waged in the politics of Pittsburg and this city, numbered respectively 82 and 81.

TRI-STATE BREVITIES.

CHARLES R. CAMPBELL, newly graduated from Princeton, drowned Tuesday evening while bathing in the Conemaugh river at Fackville.

HE DIED WITHOUT A WILL.

Mr. Robertson's estate, valued at $200,000, was located principally in New York, Pennsylvania and West Virginia. Under the intestate law of New York, the surviving children of a decedent's uncle or aunt do not inherit the share of their mother or mother, while in Pennsylvania they do.

THE LETTERS OF ADMINISTRATION.

The Register of Warren county, this State, issued the letters of administration on the estate of Mr. Robertson last week in one of the townships of that county; that he had been married there as a woman, and as such had paid tax in 1889 and 1890.

EVIDENCE FOR THE NEW YORK PARTIES.

The letters of administration granted by the Register of Brooklyn were based on the prima facie evidence that Mr. Robertson died in that city, and had lived most of his life at one of the principal hotels.

THE NEW YORK PARTIES.

Another interesting feature of the case is that Mr. Robertson shall be declared to have been a resident of Pennsylvania, the State which will collect a collateral inheritance tax on the whole of his $200,000 estate, no matter what the property is situated in.

A PIPE LINE MAN DROWNS.

While Several of His Companions Are Within Hailing Distance.

On Friday, June 17.—Daniel Sullivan, a pipe line worker, was taken with the cramps while bathing in the river, and was drowned near Silverly's place. Fifteen men were within a distance of 100 yards laying a pipe line, but Sullivan had been giving exhibitions of fancy swimming, and they thought that he was in fun when he called for help.

STRAWBERRIES FOR PITTSBURG.

One Buckeye Village Loads 400 Bushels on a Single Train.

East Liverpool, June 17.—The little town of Liverpool crops up as a large shipper of strawberries. Last evening the train hands, conductor, fireman and all, had to turn in and load the pile of strawberries at the station here for the city.

THE DEFENSE BEGINS ITS CASE.

The State in the Marlatt Murder Case Closes Its Evidence.

YORKSBURG, June 17.—In the Marlatt murder case, the State rested at noon, having clearly sustained the indictment by a large amount of direct evidence. This afternoon the defense introduced a large number of witnesses, their testimony being of a character to support the theory that Marlatt was insane.

RHEUMATISM

A case of Chronic Rheumatism with contraction of the tendons of the hands and limbs, with NERVOUS PROSTRATION CURED.

To whom it may concern: I consider it a duty as well as a pleasure to inform the public of the wonderful benefits I have received at the Electrical and Medical Institute, 442 Penn. ave. I was given up as a confirmed invalid, when a gentleman from New York advised me to take treatment at the Institute, as he had recovered from a similar disease by the same treatment. When I was admitted to the Institute I could scarcely move my limbs, the cords being contracted, and drawn up, and now, before my month is half expired, I am able to walk as well as any woman of my age, which is 60 years.

MARGARET DUNCAN, 63 Lake st., Allegheny City.
