PERSONAL TELEGRAM TO THE DISPATOR ! JOHNSTOWN, June 18 .- Suit is about to be brought against the South Fork Fishing Club by a number of those who suffered in the great flood for damages or losses sustained. J. J. Strayer, who is said to have lost considerable property in the flood, is at the head of the movement, although a large number of others will help it along.

They have retained Colonel W. D. Moore, of Pittsburg, as their attorney, and the parties feel confident of bringing it to a successful issue, and expect to recover all their losses in full. If they are successful many more cases will, no doubt, be brought against the club for damages.

A FRIGHTFUL BOILER EXPLOSION. The Engineer Says a Thunderbolt Was the Cause of the Accident.

AKRON, June 18 .- A portable boiler used to drive drilling machinery at the wells of the water works, which have been drilling in South Akron, exploded this afternoon, Henry Golden, who was watching the drillers at work, was instantly killed, his head being blown from his shoulders. John Harvey, a driller, was fatally injured, both his eyes being blown out, while the hot steam left on his face a surface of white, cooked flesh. When his clothing was stripped from him a little later, shreds of flesh came off with it. Clarence Fulton was terribly scalded and badly injured. Five others were more or less injured.

One man was thrown 120 feet by the force of the explosion, while the bulk of the boiler, weighing a ton and a half, was thrown 500 feet, and the derrick and other apparatus were blown in a dozen different directions. The ground in the vicinity of the explosion was form and rooted up as if by earthquake. The engineer is positive the boiler did not carry steam above its limit at the time, but says it was struck by lightning, the explosion following immediately after a thunderbolt. An examination of the pieces of the bolt. An examination of the pieces of the

An Akron Victim of the Grip Succeeds in Gashing His Throat.

ARRON, June 18 .- Early yesterday morning in Gilbooly, who has been barn boss for a number of years for Brewster Bros., made a perate attempt to take his own life. He had been suffering with a severe attack of the grip for nine weeks, during which time he had been closely confined to his bed.

be had been closely confined to his bed-buring the morning his wife left his bed-ide and Mr. Gilhoolytold his little daughter to bring him three razors.

The little girl was afraid he intended to do to be said he only wanted to sharpen them. The girl turned her back for a moment, and, turning around, was frightened to see her other standing in the middle of the room with a gory wound in his throat. She ran oward him and secured the razors before he bould indied another cut. Only a small indict another cut. Only a small had been severed, but, owing to the weakened condition, it is feared be

VICTIMIZED BY COUNTERFEITERS.

Many Small Merchants of Beaver Falls Are Imposed Upon.

Braven Falls, June 18 .- For several days post a man who resembles an Italian has been passing counterfeit money on the stores of this place. It was not generally ntil last evening. The bill which he works with is a $5 greenhack, of the series of 1880. It is a poor imita-tion, and he passed it upon persons who handle but little money. His plan is to buy some small article, give a bad bill in pay-ment for the goods received and receive his change in good money.

PROSPECTS AROUND WHEELING. Crops Excellent, Wholesale Trade Brisk and Money Easy.

WEEKLING, June 18 .- General and trade re ports from a district comprising 27 counties in Western West Virginia and border counties in Ohio show excellent crop prospects Trade is reported dull in a number of coun Trade is reported dull in a number of counties, but generally owing to some local cause.

Interior West Virginia counties show a brisk business in consequence of the completion of a number of railroad lines. In Wheeling the volume of wholesale business is larger than at the corresponding period of any previous year. Money is easy at the banks, with good demand.

DANGER IN LIFTING MACHINES.

A Lawrence County Man Over-Exerted Himself and Will Die. NEW CASTLE, June 18 .- Charles Kahrer, of LIGHTNING UNDRESSED HER FEET.

A Buckeye Woman Is Severely but Not Fatally Shocked.

ALLIANCE, June 18.—During a severe thun-der storm at Beloit this afternoon lightning struck the residence of Emanuel McKinzie. The bolt came down the chimney and into the kitchen, where Mrs. McKinzie was sitring; and completely tore both shoes and stockings off her feet, shocking her severely. It was at first thought the severe nervous shock would prove fatal. She is recovering

The Coke Traffic Enormous.

SCOTTDALE, June 18 .- The coke traffic over the Southwest Railroad since the strike was broken has become simply enormous. It is said in railroad circles that the road will be double-tracked, as they cannot handle thei trade with the present single track.

The Braddock Strike Ended. BUANDOUK, June 18.—The members of local union No. 208, Carpenters and Joiners, held a meeting this evening. After due consideration the strike was declared at an end. A good many carpenters' union men returned to work this morning. Wheeling's Deep Well Going Deeper.

WHEELING, June 18.-The Wheeling Development Company will begin to sink its deep well still deeper as soon as the apparatus is on the ground. Dr. Hallock has completed his observations at the present depth.

HEIRS TO $30,000,000

A Number of Little Washington Citizen Strike a Streak of Luck. Washington, Pa., June 18.—Miss Theresa D. Chapman, of St. Louis, who is now here on mingled business and pleasure, has been working on a claim for seven years to secure a large fortune belonging to the estate of Thomas Death, who died a century ago in England. Death had two brothers who came to the United States before his death.

came to the United States before his death. He left a will bequeathing all he had, amounting to about $30,000,000, to his brothers. His brothers, however, had also died, and according to law the money will go to his next nearest living relatives.

Since the time of the demise of Death the estate has been lying untouched in England. An English agent, thinking that distant relatives still survived in this country, ascertained that Miss Chapman resided in St. Louis. Since her arrival in this city she has been successful in finding several persons, who are undoubtedly heirs to the estate. Their names are: The Coulson family, the Days, the McCleunthens and the Posts.

TOOK HIS OWN LIFE.

The Charred Remains of a Suicide Found in the Burnt District. BRADFORD, June 18.—A tragic story is re-ported from the Kettle creek trout region. It was this district which was swept by flames during the recent extensive forest fires. Recently while a party of men were nassing through a dense wood which had been burned over they stumbled on the burned and blackened body of a man. His burned and blackened body of a man. His identity was unknown, except that it was surmised he was a stranger who had been in the wood on a trout fishing expedition.

The searchers were horrified to find a builet hole in the man's temple, while his right hand, burned though it was, still clasped a revolver. There was nothing left on the body by which to identify the man and the story could only be guessed at. It is supposed the unknown man became lost while seeking to escape the fire, and being cornered by the flames on every side preferred to die by a pistol rather than endure the horrible agony of being slowly roasted to death.

LAWRENCE MINOR ACQUITTED.

The Court Instructs the Jury That th

Evidence Was Insufficient. WAYNESBURG, June 18.—The evidence in the trial of Lawrence Minor, charged with the murder of Richard Long, was concluded to-day. On the conclusion of the evidence to-day. On the conclusion of the evidence Hon. J. W. Ray, counsel for the prisoner, addressed the court, asking that the jury be instructed to bring in a verdict of acquittal upon the ground of insufficient evidence. This was opposed by the Common-wealth's attorney, Hon. A. A. Purman, but after deliberation the court instructed the jury to acquit the prisoner.

The prisoner was acquitted and discharged. It will be remembered that Long had been drinking with Minor on last Christmas Day, and it was alleged that he had been severely beaten by the prisoner, so that death resulted in a week. Both men belong to prominent families.

was 105 years old last Christmas day. He is laile and hearty, and he expects to make his son a visit on the Fourth of July. The assistant burgess has promised the old gentleman the finest carriage that can be found in Du Bois, and he will lead the grand procession on that day.

There are Il sons in the Charles family, all of whom did their share in fighting the battles in the late war, and it seems as if they are bullet-proof, as the 11 sons came back home sound and well. Mr. Charles' grandfather lived to the age of 108 years, and his mother died about a year ago at the age of 98 years.
