BAGGED IN A BARN.

A Burglar Captured After a Spirited Fight With Officers.

HE WAS ASLEEP IN THE HAY MOW

But Awoke in Time to Make a Bold Attempt at Escape.

HE IS ADMITTED TO BAIL BY THE COURT

McKersroht, June 22.-At 3 o'clock this morning a squad of police went to the barn of David Parker, who resides on Cherry lane, just outside of the city limits, and cartured John Parker who is charged by Detective Trich with burglary. The palice have been looking for him for two weeks. Some time after Jacob P. Nell's office was robbed of $300 and two watches Mrs. McKee, of East Park, informed the detectives that her son Harry, a boy about 18 years of age, had told her that on Decoration Day he was ith John Parker, and he had $300, most of which was sliver. Parker told McKee that he got it robbing a place at Greensburg.

McKee then said that Parker put a revolver at his head, and, under threats of killing him if he refused, made McKee take the silver he gave him and get it exchanged for McKee was taken before the Mayor and denied having told his mother the story, and defiled having told his mother the story, and stated that if he said it he was drunk. He was committed to bail, and Trich charged Parker with burghary. The police found hus sleeping in a lay mow, and, as they drew near, he quickly pulled out a murder-ous looking revolver and retreated to the corner of the barn. ### SERIOUS TROUBLE EXPECTED.

Strong Probability That the State Militia May Be Called Out, O., June 22.-It is feared here that

Although the militia of Cleveland would be capable of quelling any disturbance which might arise, precedent shows that hometroops are not called upon to deal with home troubles. Captain Bryan, of Company B, was seen this afternoon, and when asked how long it would take to get the company in marching order at the armory, promptly replied, "One hour." If the Captain receives a summor for the company, he will at once a summons for the company, he will at once communicate with the sergeants. ### MANY RUSHING RIVULETS.

They Cause a Pond to Overflow and the Fish Gleefully Escape.

CANTON, June 22 .- A great deal of excite nt was caused yesterday by a rush of water from Feathers pond, which lies at the ad of Lake street. The increased amount of water for the last few days raised the md to overflowing, and yesterday's downcour completed the work, and a minature river flowed down Lake street. Hundreds of fish were either washed out or swam out of their own accord, and numbers of the finny tribe were picked up along the street this morning. Catrish weighing as high as six pounds and bass of considerable size were picked up. A carp was found floundering around in a little pool, and it would have tipped the beam at five pounds. At the corner of Market and Third streets a monster frog was found.

it than it would fetch? that it's not sure of its prices now, and'll be less so if kept over? or that it's sought to make up for lost time? Anyway, it doesn't compete with our reliable clothing. We have sold heaps of our make, because it was wanted and the prices were low, in good time:

low to begin with. Some lots have been made lower. The goods have solid value. The prices are genuinely lowered. Men's Suits, $15, down to $10. Boys' Suits, $8 50, down to $5.
