The exciting featand just what make the fun of a ball game, but the noise at times was simply disgrace-chiefly made up of The Cincinnati players, at least some of them, once more gave a display of rowdvism, and it was in some respects even worse than that of Saturday. It seems as if Latham was fast degenerating from a harmless prattler of laughable remarks to a downright abusive kicker. The manner in which that player has used abusive and insulting remarks to Umpire Battin ive and insulting remarks to Unipire Battin during this series is a disgrace to the national game. And Holliday was prominent in this line yesterday, but while there may be some excuse for the wild breaks of Holliday because of his mental get-up, there can scarcely be any excuse at all for a man like Latham, who is captain of the team and who poses as a very wise man. Some of Latham's Talk.

Here is a specimen of his talk to the umpire yesterday. When the latter had fined Latham $10 for abusive remarks, Latham re-"Fine away. I'll fine you when we get you If that kind of talk and threat has to be tolerated on a League ball field, the public should be made aware of it by President Young. Battin is a new umpire and he has done exceedingly well in this city. He may have made mistakes, but he certainly has not been worse in this respect or even as bad as the average mapire. But even if his decisions were faulty at times, no player has a license to walk up and abuse him. Holliday walked up to him and shook his fist in his face. Holliday also threw his cap on the ground and jumped on it. Of course, an impulsive player like Holliday couldn't well be expected to do anything clee when his captain was settleg such a remarkable example. As a result in the should have retried both mon from the game. Certainly the contest was an exceedingly close one, and the wind-up of it was so close that the 1.10 people present probably were never so excited in their lives. It was the extreme closeness of the argument that doubtiess caused the feelings of the players to run so high, And it was at the very closest stage of the gange that full called Holliday out at the home plate, and then the latter made a disgraceful exhibition of himself. No other ampire would have returned doubt her premained and the game.

Had Some Ginger in Them. hould be made aware of it by President

Had Some Ginger in Them. The home players put a little more ginger into their work resterday than they have for some time past. They played as if they wanted to win the game and this is a feature that the public always want to see. King was much more effective than mand, but he gave too many bases on balls. Still he showed great speed and it may be that he is about to regain his old time effectiveness. But the team generally were not in hitting humor and it is hard to say what the result would have been had Mullane not given so many bases on halls. Of course if the balls had been across the plate they night have been knocked safely away.

The second uning was the stage where the scoring began. After Bierbauer had been retired Mullane gues the next three men their base on balls. This was delightful to the crowd. Berger then came to the bat and made a sacrifice hit, scoring Mack. Buildon stole third and Maul remained at first, While King was at bat Maul started to steal second. After Stani had dodget between the bases awhile he was nabbed without Hamon scoring. Hanlon inverthad a safe chance to score as the fielders were keeping a close eve on him.

In their half file visitors tied the score. After Relliv had struck keenan got his base on balls and Smith's single sent him to second. Harrington struck out and then Berger made a wild throw of Mullane's grounder, allowing Keenan to score. Smith also tried to tally, but was nabbed at the plate.

In the third inning after King was retired at first. cam generally were not in hitting humor and it is in the third luning after King was retired at first diller got his base on balls and Beckley sent him to hird on a single to center field. Beckley stole econd on a wild throw by Harrington and Miller cored. Browning's single scored Beckley.

They Tied the Score Again. ore runs were made until the eighth inning. when the visitors again tied the score. Harringto got his base on balls and Muliane sacrificed him to second. Latham went up next and purposely fouled about a dozen balls. Three balls were called on King, but by some remarkable pitching called on King, but by some remarkable pitching he struck Latham out amid the cheers of the crowd. McPhee then knocked out a safe hit to left, scoring Harrington. Then came Holliday and he banged out a single to Maul, but the latter allowed the ball to get past him and McP'hee scored. Holliday tried also to tally, but he was declared out at the plate. He never touched the plate as he slid in and Mack also to tally, but he was declared out at the plate. He never touched the plate as he shd in and Mack touched him out. The umpire's decision on this point caused Holliday to make the scene referred to. In fact almost all the Cincinnati players surrounded the umpire. This closed the liming.

In the hinth Mack got his base on halls and Handon made a bunt. Keenan muffed the throw and Mani was safe at second and Handon afeo on first, hiaul got his base on balls, filling the bases. Berger made a neat sacrifice, scoring Mack. King knucked up a little fly which Mullane caught, and Miller went out at first.

Then came the visitors for the great wind-up, Marr led off with a single and was sacrified to specoud by Relly. Keenan knocked out a fly to Handon, who threw the ball to Bierbauer and the latter threw it in turn to Miller, who could have touched Marr out, who was stealing third on the throw, But Miller dropped the ball. Two men out and a man on third and one run needed to the the score. Smith came up and got his base on balls and stole second, added by a passed ball. Then came Harrington. He dodged on quite a while with King and finally smacked the ball square on the nose for a terrific liner to middle field. The hot contest looked all over. Everybody gave it up, as the two runs were coming rushing in. Nobody thought it possible for Hallon to catch the ball. But he ran as if running for his life. The ball was just fixing past him and he was half running prith it. With one desperate effort he leaped at it, and agree onough he got it. It was a remarkable catch and it saven the day. He was cheered again and again. The score:

was the word passed along the line of immigration inspectors throughout the country to-day. This was the result of the action taken by the New York immigration authorities on Saturday last in getting after Frank Slavin to bring him to terms for coming to America under contract to exhibit in boxing matches and theatrical entertainments. Immigration Inspector Stilch of this district was to-day engaged in looking up the subject thoroughly.

"Slavin's contract to exhibit himself here was a clear violation of the silen contract labor law," said Mr. Stilch, "and the first important puglist that comes to Chicago will be sought out by me and be compelled to give an account of himself. I haven't the least doubt but that these imported puglists violate the law."

All the fines imposed on the local players some time ago have been demanded by the club. Baldwin was fined $50. He was fined $50 for leaving the turnstile at Boston before the business was done, and $50 for missing the train in coming home. Miller's $50 was for his offense at Brooklyn, and Browning was fined $50 for taking the plates off lies shoes, which caused him to fall down in the field and make errors.

Fines are not creditable to players, as there is always cause for a fine, and it is about time that some of the players in the local team were beginning to act like men and not like children. The public has been complaining all along about Manager Hanlon being too lenient, and there is now an indication that discipline will be enforced. Nobody connected with the club likes to enforce fines, but if players who receive enormous salaries wont do right they cannot expect to excape the consequences. The players ought from now on make up their minds, like honest men, to try and be of profitable service to their employers and the public who are giving them the kingly salaries they are receiving. If they don't do this they will be the sufferers in the long run, most assuredly.

Mr. Fitzgerald's Statement.

Mr. J. Fitzgerald, manager of the Jeannette ball club, writes to this paper as follows regarding the game on Saturday between his team and the Inde-"There seem to be some erroneous statements affoat in regard to Saturday's game. In Sunday's paper it was stated that we had played for $100. Now this is a gross faisehood and does our club great injustice. We never have played for one cent, neither do we propose to. We play for pastime, and nothing else. We have a club here that we can be proud of, and if we could have had a square deal by that Pittsburgh umpire we would have men castly Saturday. We are perfectly willing to take a defeat if it is honest, but we do not propose to let a game go by default on account of the rank decision of a rank umpire."

The Party Broke Up Crasy Drunk. About 1 o'clock Sunday morning the gam-bling party broke up and the 60 or more nen, crazy drunk, started for their sleeping quarters. On the way over a man hamed William B. Blair, it is alleged, sprang the idea of driving them out. It took like wild fire, and with muttered curses against the talians the drunken men hurried toward with a cry the attack began on the sleeping Italians. The drunken crowd sprang into the tent amid the foreigners, atmed with sticks, clubs, knives and whatever else they could lay their hands upon. The fight did not last long. The Italians were at too great a disadvantage, and after a brief resistance they fied in terror, leaving behind all their belongings. They carried away one of their comrades named Cataline Francisco, dangerously wounded, by a cut in the breast which threatens to result fatally. The Italians Flee to St. Louis.

The Italians made their way to this city where they reported the matter to the po-lice, and Francisco was taken to the city dispensary, where his wounds were dressed. At the camp their departure was followed At the camp their departure was followed by a scene of piliage. Their valises, bundles and packages were broken open and the contents taken.

The police at once began a rigid investigation, and the following arrests were made: Edward Manley, John H. Jones, Michael Cassel, W. R. Blair, W. C. Brooks, F. Leader and John Shiller. These men profess ignorance of the attack off the Italians, and say they were awakened by a commotion and merely aided in driving from camp the disturbers of their slumbers. One of the assaulted party, however, identified two of the men arrested. Italian Consul Dominico Ginnochio is indignant over the attack on his countrymen, and will doubtless enter into a preliminary correspondence with his Government on the subject. He has demanded of the Chief of Police protection for the Italians and also an immediate official investigation of the riot.

Annual Police Inspection. The annual inspection of police took place in Old City Hall yesterday morning. There were 120 men from the First district, 80 from the Second and 30 from the Third. They were put through the drill by Captain J. A. A. Brown, and went through it without a break.

Both the method and results when Syrup of Figs is taken; it is pleasant and refreshing to the taste, and acts kelay, for Brown, the i. N. Bunton, for Walton, and the Clifton got away in the afternoon. The Time assisted the Kelsy up the river from Bellaire and the boat got here in the morning. W. H. Brown's Sons sent out 1,000,000 bushels on this rise. Mr. Arnold stated they still have considerable coal to ship, but they did not hir outside boats, as some of the other operators. Most of the Brown boats, with the first high water, went to New Orleans, where coal is bringing a good price, and they haven't been able to come back.

On the Allegheny side a loaded flat, with a workman on board, broke loose at Smith's coal yard and started down the river at a lively rate. The man called for help and the towboats in sight went to his assistance. The flat passed all the bridges safely, and, after an exciting chase, was caught by the tugboat John Dipple in the Ohio river. The current in the Allegheny is very swift, and it is exceedingly dangerous to handle coal on that stream. On Sunday afternoon the Bob Connell ran into a raft, smanning the guards on the bow and doing other damage to the boat. gently yet promptly on the Kidneys, Liver and Bowels, cleanses the system effectually, dispels colds, head-aches and fevers and cures habitual constipation.
