

The Dispatch

ESTABLISHED FEBRUARY 8, 1864. Vol. 26, No. 140—Entered as Second-Class Postoffice, November 1, 1867, as authorized by act of Congress.

Business Office—Corner Smithfield and Diamond Streets. News Rooms and Publishing House 78 and 80 Diamond Street, in New Dispatch Building.

TERMS OF THE DISPATCH. POSTAGE FREE IN THE UNITED STATES. DAILY DISPATCH, One Year, $3.00. DAILY DISPATCH, One Month, .75. DAILY DISPATCH, One Week, .25.

THE LAWS DELAYS. The reconstruction of the Penn Bank failure in the courts this week draws renewed attention to the questions involved in that famous case.

THE VETO MILE. This is equivalent to asserting that the laboring classes are so blind to the interests of the whole State that they are willing to subject its entire fundamental law to emasculation in the interest of privileged classes.

THE UPPER TEN. FORAKER has just sold 7,000 acres of land for $100,000. PROF. CHARLES D. MCLVER has been elected President of the Girls' Normal College, at Greensboro, N. C.

THE LAW DON'T REACH THEM. The termination of the prosecution against the President and directors of the New York and New Haven Railroad for violation of the New York law against heating train cars and trains, was unexpected, but very instructive.

THE MAINTENANCE OF THE ARMY. The new law permitting enlisted men to purchase their discharge from the army after a year's service, at certain established rates, is attracting attention.

ROTHSCHILD IN DISGUISE. How the Passengers Were Rebuked and One Man Gained Fame. "It was the lion of the day once in my life."

THE SMOKERS OF PITTSBURGH. A Gas City Man's Experience With Tobacs in the Wild and Woolly West. Walter Lee, of Pittsburgh, is quoted in the St. Louis Globe-Democrat as follows:

TALK OF THE TOWN.

Teaching the Indian Humanity—Express Shaving—A Confused Bridgegroom—A Youngster's Faith—True Stories of Real Life in Street and Country Lane.

THE BRIBERY FOR IT. Touching the discussion of the press on the Constitutional Convention proposition, the Philadelphia Times says: "So far the majority of their expressions are hostile, and if the newspapers accurately represent the voters the convention will be voted down."

AN IMPROVEMENT ON VON MOLTKE'S FAMOUS EPICUREAN AFFIDAVIT. The announcement is made this week of the formation of a Cotton Duck Pool. It consists of $3,000,000 to $10,000,000 capital, which gives the cotton ducks plenty of water to swim around.

PHILADELPHIA IS AT PRESENT enjoying a peculiarly pleasant season. A barber who has just returned from Philadelphia makes statements that do not state and confessions that do not confess.

THE PASSAGERS—THOSE who understood those who did not—smiled. The passengers—those who understood those who did not—smiled.

EDMUND LEATHES, actor, who had been in England, and who had also traveled in this country, died recently in London, aged 44.

THE ITALIAN GENERAL

The Italian General lost 13,000,000. A discharged chorister in an Ohio town took revenge on the congregation by sitting in a pew and purposely singing out of tune.

CURIOUS CONDENSATIONS.

In the city of St. Petersburg it begins to freeze at the end of October, and a general thaw rarely takes place before the beginning of April.

OUR MAIL POUCH.

Queries for Mr. Carnegie. A few weeks ago I was a strong advocate of bimetalism, but after reading a splendid article on "Money" by Mr. Andrew Carnegie my mind has been wandering on the money question, so much so that if Mr. Andrew Carnegie answers the following questions satisfactorily, I wish many others will hereafter vote for bimetalism, which means square money.
