SERMONS IN GROVES.

First Union Services of the Season at the Silver Lake Grounds.

THE AUTHORSHIP OF THE BIBLE.

A Successor of One of the Milligans on the Need of Preparation.

OTHER PULPIT TOPICS OF YESTERDAY

"The groves were God's first temples," and last night one was pressed into service again to answer that purpose. Pursuant to their usual custom, the churches of the East not all were right it disclosed a healthy sentiment, for it shows how earnestly men think of God. Then he started in on the lesson, telling the story of a man to whom Christ said, "Except ye be born again ye cannot enter the kingdom of heaven," and of the reply, "How can 1 be born again?" Mr. Chaltant then cited instances to show how people who ind suffered from disease had, physically, been practically made new people. He also showed how a mind is re-generated, and further declared that to be spiritually born again was possible. He said many who had become Christians were liv-ing witnesses of this wonderful change.

AUTHORSHIP OF THE BIBLE.
Interesting Sermon Delivered by Dr. W. A. Stanton Last Evening.
Dr. W. A. Stanton, of the Shady Avenue Bantist. Church, last evening took for his text Psalm extx., 130. His subject was the authorship and leadership of the Bible. He said: "To the questions why and by whom were the particular dootrines now consti-tated of the Bible canons selected and pre-gerved; was it according to the will of one man, or of some definite body of meny when Exra was at his work did he arbitrarily select the books of the Lord; has the church fixed this canon." No; she simply recognized the grave toors be of the will of one man, or of some definite body of meny when Exra was at his work did he arbitrarily select the books of the Lord; has the church fixed this canon." No; she simply recognized the canon as arrendy fixed. The Church and Bible grew together. No single historical Bible grew together. No single historical conduction of the spirit.

of Christian life and told a story of two finely educated young men who wanted to become lawyers, but who had been induced to study the beauties of the national reform movement and who had so become imbued with the spirit that they forsook law and went into the uninistry of the Covenanter church. He said God was just and must have punishment for sin, but He sent His Son into the world to bring men away from sin and into the glories of God's life. He spoke of the beauties of heaven and said it was necessary to have a season of preparation before he could enduro the bring these of God's kingdom. He then made a plea for his people to come to realiza-tion of Christ's love and said it was the min-ister's duty to place this before his people.

THE AUGSBURG CONFESSION.

An Anniversary Sermon [Preached by Rev.

Edmund Belfour Yesterday Morning. future. In the First English Lutheran Church, on Grant street, the pastor, Rev. Edmund Belfour, D. There will be sack races, wheelbarrow races, three-legged races, climbing the greased pole, catching the greased pig, a fat men's race, a lean men's race; a Punch and Judy show for the children, daylight fireworks. A great feature, and a most original one, will be the ascent of Mr. Punch, with his wife Judy, in a miniature balloon. The world-famous Mr. Punch will arrange all the details for the ascent himself, and, ac-companied by his equally celebrated spouse, they will clumb from the stage into the car they will clumb from the stage into the car of the balloon; then Mr. Punch will say "Let her go, Gallagher," when the rope will be cut and they will sail out into space. A GREAT DAY FOR CHILDREN.

The altar in the Brimstone Church was prettily decorated with them to 32 life memberships. The world does not want shen a er; institutaneous revolution is a dream is imagination. The world needs a liv-and governing principle of oppo-n to sin that will manifest itself by day, and that will enter hearts of men and develop itself in their s; that will conquer through love and. the hearts of men and develop itself in their lives; that will conquer through love and light, rather than through threats and force. The Bible, rightly understood, supplies this need. Its claims to leadership rest upon its influence in making history what it is. Its eachings have met the exigencies of every distorted epoch and prepared the next speet. The present history is simply the working out of past revelation. There is ust enough light in the Bible for faith to be possible, and enough gloom to give foundaossible, and enough gloom to give foundagenuine test of character, yet these very itations of revolution are adapted to the conditions of our moral growth. ## THE GROWIH OF THE CHURCH.

Rev. William Thompson Says It Is Due to Christ, Rather Than Man's Efforts.

Rev. William Thompson, of St. James' Episcopal Church, took as his text yesterday morning: "The Lord added to the church daily such as should be saved." He said: "At the time of which this speaks Christ was present with the little company who formed the Church. At every crisis He is revealed as working for the Church-the guide of those who trust Him. If we are the rch of Christ we have Him with us at all times. Unless this be true it were better that these walls were hid low.

that these walls were hid low. "It is Christ who adds to the Church. Our work may be a help, but He is the source. It is His will that the Christian Church shall gather in those that shall be saved. The Church will grow as a consequence of re-vived religiousness among individuals. Be-ligions lines will determine its growth fur more than preaching. The minister has an hour each week to talk, while the people have all week to live contrary lives."

Rev. J. A. Thompson Does Not Belleve Man

Could Go to Heaven Without It.

Yesterday afternoon the portion of Rev. J. R. J. Milligan's congregation that remained in the Covenanter fold listened, at the Alle gheny R. P. Church, to a sermon by Rev. J. A. Thompson. They were 67 in number, mcluding children. The text the speaker chose was "A friend of publicans and sinchose was "A friend of publicans and sin-ners." He said though this was said in mockery by Christ's enemies it was the greatest truth ever spoken of Him. The could not be a Christian until he recognized Christ as a friend. From that he gave a his-tory of Christ's life, showing how everyone with whom He came in contact was bet-

It does not seem to be the creation of any human act. No result of any recorded miracle seems to exist as a result of general consent. It apparently collected itself. Such a statement are we driven in the compilation of the books of the Bible as we how find them. The Bible, as a whole, is a book of many an-thors, but of one unid. It has a beginning and an ending; it has a definite object juit plan is gradually but perfectly developed. The twilight of the patriarch in the 0 di Tes-tament melts into the full-orbed brillianor, of the Christ in the New Testament. "General literature usally reflects public opinion. ## Rev. Mr. Milligan Wants Social Lines Excluded From the Churches.

A large congregation again gathered yesterday at Cyclorama Hall, Allegheny, to hear Rev. J. R. J. Milligan, the seceding Covenanter preacher. His subject was "Masses and Classes." His text was: "And order of the board. JAS. A. MULLEN, President. DANIEL WHITMORE, Secretary. je28-55-29.jy1,5,7,9 the common people heard him gladly." He said that in the days when these words said that in the unys when these words were uttered the Pharisoes, Sadducees and lawyers represented the classes and the common people the masses. "To-day," he said, "the masses and the classes still exist, and even in religion. The church is not for the poor man as it should be, but for the men who can pay big pew ronts. This fact, together with the worldly ties, are fast estranging the laboring man. from the church. There is too much high class and low class, and too much East End and West End. The great churches are being put where the wealthy families live." Mr. Milligan then referred to the strike and said that Christianity was the carpen-ters' best friend. He declared the strike pro-duced idleness and crime and it was the duty of the church to bring both employer and employe together in fellowship in the church and labor. He closed by saying that the church should be a refuge for the poor and the oriminals as well as the wealtby. were uttered the Pharisees, Sadducees LECTION OF TEACHERS-The School Board of Scott township, Allegheny co., Pa., will meet at the Glendaie school building, Chartiers Valley R.
