[SPECIAL TELEGRAM TO THE DISPATCH.] CHICAGO, June 33 .- One scrawny and forlorn little hit is all that the Chicago's se-cured from Silver burg's renowned and high-salaried twirler was in fine fettle. His Dutch revolutionary blood was up, and he came within an ace of shutting out Anson's men without vouch safing them a hit. Had his support been of the gilt-edge order the score would have stood 3 to 0. As it was, Miller's high throw to Beckley, and Captain Hanton's insane fumble of Wilmot's hit, are responsible for Chiago's runs. It is true that sacrifices by Dahlen and Anson belped thing along, but ceither of the runs was earned. Captain anson put his cyclone pitcher, Stein, in the ox. The youngster was nervous and was extremly wild. Besides, he was hit at critihis delivery at times which, twice at least, resulted in the batsman getting in clean hits. The Pirntes clinched the game at the outset—Miller started the fan. He flied out to Picffer. Beckley, the second man up, got four wide ones. Then Carroll struck the sphere on the seam. It sizzled along the line, and Anson might have stopped if had he tried. He evidently thought it would run into foul territory, but it shot over his base like a streak and caromed out into the extreme left, Beckley scoring with ease and Carroll reaching third. He scored on Bierianer's sacrifice from Pfeffer to Anson. Mack mercifully went out and Pittsburg had a brace of runs, one of them carned. resulted in the batsman getting in clean hits.

The Fun Continued in the Second Inning Captain Hanlon leaned hard against one of cein's curves, in the second, and the horse skin flew like a bird past Cooney. He went second on Maul's sacrifice and was well on his way to third when Stein pushed a wild pirch to Bouman. The Cyclone was rattled and Fields waited and got four balls rattled and Fields waited and got four balls and rolled an easy one to Pieffer and Fields exhibited a neat piece of head work. The lift was a short one and he started for second, but doubled on his tracks and essayed to reach first. Pfeffer chased him down and got an out, but while this was going on Hanlen samtered home from third and King by a scratch landed safe on first. Miller fouled out and the agony was over. No runs came for the Pirates after that, and, as it happened, none were needed. Up to the sixth luning exactly three Chicagoites got as far as first. They went there with King's compliments. Dahlen got a poke in the ribs and concer and Pfeffer got bases on bails. In those five innings just 18 men went to bat. Ryan was the first to step into the batter's box in the sixth. He sent a baby one to Miller who threw so high that Beckley had to leave his base.

Then came the sensation of the day. King was feeling so good that he let up in his speed just a trifle. Walter Wilmot had not layed in two days and was famishing for a chit. King fired one that cut the plate lease hit. King fired one that cut the plate and there came a sound as if of hall patter-half on the shingles of the grand stand. It was a honey cooler and it did not stop rolling until it paused at the feet of Hanlon. It was started for second, scooted to third, and scampered none because Hanlon unabled the ball, Wilmot going to second. Iron there he crossed the plate in easy stages on sacrifices by Dahlen and Anson (arrold filed out to Hanlon. It was one, two, three again after that, and in the minth, first, handen and then Anson succumbed to King's landen and then Anson succumbed to King's hallen and then Anson succumbed to King's rowess and fanned the other at which the unfeeling audience howled with laughter. Pittsburg came near scoring again in the fourth. Mack smashed out a single and limiton sacrificed. Mani and Fields were sent to first on balls. With the bases full king was so thoughtless as to shove a weak bunt to Stein. The Cyclone cut off Mack at the plate and Bouman sent the ball to Anson in time to smother King, completing a double play. Bouman muffed Mack's third strike in the sixth, but the runner was not advanced. seling audience howled with laughter

There was an odd play in the third. Wilmot lined the ball to Beckley who lost his lightance and dropped the ball, but Beckley swang his foot around on the base and while streeched at full length ploked up the ball and held it up to view. He got the put out. In the sixth Ryan made a wonderful runging side catch of Maul's cloud scraper. It looked like a home run, but Jimmy pulled it down. It was a great bit and a great eatch. In the ninth Mack hit and Hanlon sent a grounder to Pfeffer who got it to first in time. Mack, who was playing about ten feet from the base, was for the second time made the victim of a pretty double play. CHICAGO. B B P A E PITTEBURG. R B P A 1

NEW ADVERTISEMENTS. ********

JACKSONS claim to be able to save you some money, and we will make good the claim if you will call on us before the week is out. A careful examination of our stock shows that some lines have gone off a little more readily than others; and, so that we may even things up, we shall quote special rates, making in some instances reductions of 10 per cent, 20 per cent and 30 per cent. This means that while the leveling-up process continues, $8 and $9 will have the purchasing power of $10 and $12 in our store. Among the lines affected by this sweeping reduction are some of our own Home-Made Black and Blue Serge, Fancy and Plain Cheviot Suits, Odd Trousers, some in plain effects, others in checks and stripes. Grand values in Pants and Suit Remnants to be made to order at very low prices. A positive saving of 25 per cent. We do not wait until the season is over, but now is the time for genuine reductions.
